WEEKS trial subscript'n IOC Twentieth Century Farmer

It contains a number of special articles each week by the most competent specialists in every branch of agriculture; departments devoted to live stock, crops, the dairy, poulty yard, the orchard and garpen, farm machinery, veterinary topics, irrigation and the markets.

The farmer's wife, too, has her share of space, with recipes and suggestions on cookery, dressmaking, fancy work, care of flewers and matters particularly pleasing to her, while the children have a department edited for them exclusively. Four or five pages are devoted to a complete review of the news of the week, covering happenings at home and abroad, and news in particular interesting to the great farming west. Then, too, are the stories, choice poetry and humor and all the good things that one likes to read after the lamps are lighted and the day's work is done.
