MADI CONTRACTS ARE

Sugar Company Will Employ Exper ienced Beet Growers for the Crop Here.

HOLT COUNTY BEETS ARE BEST

A Carload Shippen From Here a Few Years Ago the Best on Record, Says Grand Island Factory.

The Norfolk sugar factory people have made their contracts with F. M. Weidner for 200 acres of land on the irrigation ditch for the purpose of growing sugar beets. Mr. Weidner says the sugar company has engaged a sugar beet expert of Salt Lake City, Utah, to come here and take charge of the growing of the crop. Several families of Russians, experienced in growing the beet, will be sent here from Norfolk to attend to the crop.

The sugar beet industry has not been very extensively tried in this section of the state, but a trial on a small scale a few years ago proved very satisfactory and brought flattering returns. A carload of beets raised here and shipped to the factory at Grand Island was pronounced by the factory people there to be the best beets ever shipped in the Unites States, containing the largest per cent. of dextrose of any beet yet produced. Mr. Weidner says a fair crop of sugar beets will bring about $71 per acre.

The Market

South Omaha, April 9. Receipts business and pleasure trip. from January 1st, 1902, up to and Including yesterday compared with same period last year are as follows:

1092 1901 In. Dec. Cattle...219,873 177,267 42,606 Hogs....729,082 611,616 117,466 Sheep...260,552 298,185 37.633

Receipts so far this week are very fair in both cattle and hogs and the market has shown very little flucnation. Today the feeling in cattle market is strong and active, with good prospects for the near future. The market shows a decline of perhaps 10c since april 2nd, but we believe this will be regained in a day or two.

We quote good to choice 1300 to 1500 beeves at $6.40 to $6.90, and good 1150 to 1300 steers at $5.80 to $6.30, with fair to good 900 to 1150 steers at $5.25 to $6. The cow market shows ality. about same decline as steers but much more on poor and common. Choice fat heifers can be quoted nearly to at $4.75 to $5.50; bucher stock $3.50 to of town.

Mr. Pickering met a very sad death at Lynch, Boyd county, on last Fri-day. He was on the streets of Lynch with his son Howard when a run-away team of mules came tearing along the street. Both men ran out to stop the team and Milo was run over and killed. The wagon tongue struck him in the side and bore him down, the wagon wheels striking his head and breaking the jaw bones. He was unconscious when picked up and died shortly after. Mr. Pickering was among the best citizens of the county. He was an old soldier and was with Sherman on the historic march to sea. He was sixty-nine years old and leaves a wife and four children, two sons at. Dorsey and one at Lynch, and a daughter in California.
