The Market

South Omaha, April 30.—Receipts of cattle have continued moderate for past week and have ruled about steady on best grades of beef cattle until last two days, when receipts have been quite liberal and prices are off 10c to 15c, and 15c to 20c on short-fed and poorer kinds. Fat cow and milked stock show about the same decline. There has been little "doing" in stockers and feeders and the poorer kind has brought low prices. There is a good demand for the better grades of fleshy feeders. Thin cows and heifers are selling very low.

We quote 1300 to 1500 beeves at 6.40 to 6.75; 1050 to 1250, at 6 to 6.40; 900 to 1050, 5.50 to 5.95. Fat western hay-fed 5.90 to 6.10; choice, fat heifers up to 5.90; cows 4.50 to 5.50; poorer kinds down to 1.75; calves 3.50 to 7; feeders 4.50 to 5.25; stockers 2.50 to 4.50.

Hog receipts have been moderate until yesterday and today, when we had 13,000 each day and buyers took off 10c to 20c. Chicago is showing about the same decline there. Prices range from 6.65 to 7.15 here.

Sheep receipts fair, with prices higher on fat lambs and lower on wethers. We quote choice lambs 6.50 to 7, yearlings 5.70 to 6.15; ewes 4.80 to 5.50.

Quarantine a Dead Letter

It seems from a recent decision of a Nebraska court that the quarantine regulation is a dead letter. About a week ago Dr. Herbert W. Miles, a dentist at Blue Hill, was arrested by the village marshal, for alleged violation of the smallpox quarantine. Attorney A. M. Walters for the defendant, moved to dismiss the case on the ground that the act of the legislature creating local boards of health did not empower the boards of health in villages to provide a punishment for a violation of its laws or rules in regard to quarantine. The court sustained the motion and the defendant was discharged.

WEATHER AND OTHER THINGS.

It sounds a little odd to speak of a drouth this time of the year, nevertheless a prolonged dry spell in parts of Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa was most effectually broken on last Thursday and Friday. The drenching rain was accompanied by a 60-mile-an-hour gale and other things beside the drouth were broken. The greatest havoc by the wind was wrought east and south of this locality, Missouri and Kansas suffering most. Our own section had suffered none for rain, but the rain came in time to give the grass a boost it otherwise would not have had.

A Washington item states: Senator Kerns of Utah is doing some large entertaining this season, reports a Washington letter. He lives at a leading hotel and has the reputation of being very rich. He started business when he was 14; at that time he became a "freighter," carrying miner's supplies from a railroad terminus in Nebraska to the Black Hills. He had quit school four years before for the remunerative occupation of farm work in Holt county. He discovered the Mayflower and Silver King mines and that was the turning point in his fortunes. He left off laboring at $2 a day and soon went to buying railroads and gathering in political honors. He and Senator Clark of Montana make a congenial working team. They are now laying a railroad from Salt Lake to Los Angeles.

An excited lady from the country made a ripple on the peaceful waves on the west side of town Monday. She had come in from her country home and purchased a spring bonnet at one of the millinery stores. She put the bonnet and box in her wagon and went about her further buying. The constant blowing winds blew the bonnet and spring bonnet into the street, and it was carried away. When the lady returned to the wagon she was much dismayed that her bonnet was gone. She was told that a man had been seen going toward the southwest part of town on a bicycle and carrying a bonnet. She immediately started in pursuit and stopped at the first place that had a bicycle standing by the fence to recover her bonnet, but the bonnet was not there. She called at several houses and when last seen was going north making everybody with a bicycle give an account of themselves.

W. F. Gratie was in town last Thursday, calling at this office and renewed his subscription to this household necessity for another year. Mr. Gratie ordered his paper sent to Atkinson instead of Emmet as heretofore as himself and father will receive their mail there hereafter, it being more convenient.

Col. Neil Brennan, S. J. Weekes and James Ryan were passengers for Omaha Sunday. Mr. Ryan went from Omaha to Lincoln, where he will remain for a month getting a wholesale hay house for Ryan Bros. of this place opened up. The firm now has wholesale hay headquarters at O'Neill and Sioux City, and will add another star to their crown by opening one in Lincoln.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET

O'Neill Odd Fellows Observe the 83d Year of American Odd Fellowship With Music and Feasting.

ESCAPES FROM THE COUNTY JAIL

William Barnett, Who Was Held for Horse Stealing, Gets Out of Jail and Has Not Been Found.

Last Saturday marked the eighty-third anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America. The event was appropriately observed by Garfield lodge No. 95 at O'Neill.

Two hundred Odd Fellows, Rebekah's and their families assembled at their hall Saturday evening to celebrate the occasion. Rev. Ramsey of Page was the speaker and gave an interesting address on Odd Fellowship. The program as rendered entire was as given below:

Opening ode.....by the lodge
Prayer.....Rev. Rominger
Vocal solo.....Miss Mills
Address.....Rev. Ramsey
Piano duet.....
.....Misses Bessie and Mable Snyder
Recitation.....Dean Selah
Piano music.....by the apollo
William Buyers of Sioux City was present and was called up for a short speech.

After the rendition of the program, the banquet boards were spread and the great hall full of people sat down to one of the grandest suppers served in O'Neill for some time. The remainder of the evening was spent in feasting and in having a good social time together.

William Barnett, who had been a prisoner the last four or five weeks charged with horse stealing, escaped from the county jail sometime between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock Saturday night. Deputy Sheriff Harding, who sleeps in the jail, says he left the jail at about 11 o'clock and returned about 2. During this time Barnett made his escape.

The prisoner was not in a cell but in the front part of the jail, the iron door being locked on the outside with a padlock. The padlock was broken, the door ajar and the prisoner gone when the deputy returned to the jail. He is convinced that Barnett had help in getting out as there was nothing inside the jail with which the lock could be broken.

No definite trace has been had of the escaped prisoner. He is 23 years of age, black eyes and hair with very dark complexion; has round, full face; about 5 feet, 8 inches in height and weighs between 175 and 180 pounds. The sheriff offers a reward of $25 for his capture.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours." This Remedy is for sale by P. C. Corrigan
