HARDWARE

For a quarter of a century I have been in O'Neill in the Hardware and Implement business, and am here yet, with a carload of new Implements for the spring trade. Following is a partial list of goods carried by me:

John Deere Plows; Buggies, Planters, New Pivot Tongued Cultivators, Riding and Walking Listers, Discs and Seeders

These goods are beautiful in construction, durable and have no equal. The Moline wagon, none better on wheels, having many points superior to any wagon on the market. The celebrated Champion binders, mowers and hay rakes. I also handle bale ties. In the stove line I carry the best known steel range, the great ajestic; also many other makes of stoves and ranges. I am the only dealer west of Norfolk who carries the Stransky Steel Ware, every piece warranted for five years. I also handle enameled ware. I have the Lisk and Elliott anti-rust tinware, none better. For any rusty piece returned I will gladly give a new piece. Nickel plated copperware, such as tea and coffee pots, tea kettles and other articles in profusion. Anything you want in silverware, cut glass, glassware or Rogers 1847 table cutlery. In the cutlery line I carry no imported goods, nothing but the products of American factories and American workmanship. I have all grades, from the cheapest to the best. I have the Sioux City garden seeds; also other garden and field seeds, such as millet, clover, etc. I have the best kerosene, the "Eocene," gasoline, machine oil, and axle grease. A very nice line of sewing machines. In barb wire I have the genuine Glidden, no imitation, every pound warranted to run one rod.

It is always my aim to treat customers in the best possible manner and to give them honest labor and good goods for every dollar they may think well to turn my way. If you cannot give me all your trade, give me what you can, and it will be appreciated. I will say in conclusion that no man in my line will give you any more for you dollar than I will and my guarantee or warrant I will make good.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent and dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our given them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkey Hall, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Not the Whooping Cough.

The whooping cough had caught many children of a certain neighborhood. A certain mother of a bright little boy had many fears lest her son should take it. She had talked and worried about it so much that her boy was almost afraid to leave her side.

One night after the little fellow had been put to bed a donkey was being driven past the house, and when right in front of the house he began with that terrible voice of his, "Hee-haw, hee-haw."

With a shriek the little boy leaped from the bed, screaming at the top of his voice: "The whooping cough is coming, mamma!"

He didn't catch the whooping cough that time.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Police as Lawyers.

The police force of Montreal, Canada, will soon be in a position to conduct a case in court provided they study hard enough. Chief Legault has succeeded in having a portion of the police appropriation set aside for the purpose of hiring an instructor who will deliver lectures to the members of the force once a week in both civil and criminal law as it concerns their duties.

Brennan's is headquarters for all kinds of lamp's. 261f

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

The Pope's Sweet Tooth.

His Holiness the Pope has a passion for sweets and is never without a small box of bonbons—usually some variety of chocolate drops—in his pocket. Until his severe illness in the spring of 1899 the Pope had hardly been ailing after his accession to the papal chair and he is said to have declared that "since I have been Pope I have had no time to consult doctors, and so I have always been well."

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They will clean your stomach, improve your appetite and make you feel like a new man. They are easy to take, bear sugar coated, and pleasant in effect. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Bicyclists Rode Into Molasses.

Three bicyclists had an unusual experience the other evening. They were riding along on smooth asphalt, when, in crossing the shadows of some trees, as they thought, all were thrown violently to the ground. They felt a soft, gummy substance covering the pavement, which held fast their clothing and hands. After some effort the men tore themselves loose. They had ridden into a pool of molasses.

You will never wish to take another dose of pills if you once try Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect. They clean the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Not Taught That Way.

It is difficult for nations to get away from the aboriginal idea that the surest way to have peace is to jar the enemy into a comatose condition.

should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it. It can be taken in summer as well as in winter.
