Meek Items. Crops look fine in this part of Holt. We are sorry to learn of the death of an old and much respected friend and neighbor, Mrs. Ernest Kaczor, who was buried in Pleasant Valley cemetery July 19. Phoenix Pick-Ups. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lampher, of Atkinson, visited Phoenix relatives last week. The days are not long enough for a certain "Lengthy" young man in this neighborhood, so he makes the nights ring with his shouts at his team. His friends are greatly concerned about his condition, they cannot explain this strange love for work and are talking of administering a sleeping powder to insure them a few nights' rest. Mr. and Mrs. Lampher visited at Mrs. F. G. Coburn's Tuesday afternoon. Sam Anderson, of Atkinson, was in this vicinity Sunday. The ball game last Saturday afternoon between the nine from south of Atkinson and the Phoenix nine resulted in favor of Atkinson. Mrs. H. E. Palmer and daughter, of Independence, Iowa, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. F. G. Coburn. The Phoenix ball nine will play with the Celia nine at the latter diamond next Saturday. Mrs. Roy Coburn spent Saturday at her sister's, Mrs. Kirkland.

Ray Bits. Mrs. Wvquist is on the sick list this week. Mr. and Mrs. DeYarmon returned from Sioux City Tuesday. James Harding is cutting grain for his brother on Honey creek. Colmer Ross had business in town Tuesday. J. S. Twyford commenced to put up hay for A. W. Dodge the first of the week. Jim Palmer was in O'Neill on Monday for a load of bridge timber. Rev. Foreman was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday. All are invited to attend the meeting here this week. C. Campbell had business at the county seat Tuesday. James Palmer spent Sunday at his home near Stuart. PROSPECTUS OF THE New York Family Story Paper FOR 1902

Founded in 1873, the New York Family Story Paper enters its twentieth year with a consciousness that its past record as the family paper of the whole country is the best guarantee of its future performance. It contains something of interest to the whole household, from its oldest to its youngest members; and while its stories are of more absorbing interest and thrilling incidents than the average tale published in the monthly magazines, yet its columns are kept scrupulously free of anything that might offend the most fastidious. In typographical appearance and illustration the New York Family Story Paper is the model for all similar weekly papers. Get a copy and compare it yourself with the others. Its staff of authors is the best in the character of fiction that the mass of people desire to read. Among its contributors, most of whom write exclusively for its columns, will be found such popular authors as— Miss Laura Jean Libbey, Miss Emma Garrison Jones, Mrs. Alex McVeigh Miller, Miss Helene Hicks, Miss Evelyn Malcom, Miss Ettie Rogers, Mrs. E. H. Hough, Mrs. Charlotte May Kingsley, Mrs. Lillian R. Drayton, Mrs. E. Burke Collins, Mrs. Charlotte M. Stanley, Mrs. M. A. Kidder, Miss Abi S. Jackman, Miss Katherine Dangerfield.
