for the SW 1/4 NE 1/4, Sec. 7, T. 31 N., R. 12 W. She names the following witnesses to prove her continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 4, A. D. 1902.

A Joint resolution proposing to amend section one Article fifteen, of the constitution of the State of Nebraska, relative to the manner of submitting and adopting amendments to the Constitution of the state of Nebraska.

Be it Enacted and Enacted by the Legislature of the state of Nebraska: Section 1. That section one of Article fifteen of the Constitution of the state of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an order of sale, directed to me from the clerk of the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, on the 6th day of July, 1902, in favor of the county of Holt as plaintiff, and against George W. Dorsey, Emma Dorsey, Walter Forsyth, South Omaha National Bank, a corporation, Nebraska Loan and Trust company, a corporation, James N. Clark, receiver of Nebraska Loan and Trust company, as cross petitioner obtained a decree for the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and the costs taxed at $20.33 and accruing costs, I have levied upon the following real estate to satisfy said order of sale, to-wit:

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an order of sale, directed to me from the clerk of the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, on a judgment obtained before the clerk of the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, on the 24th day of March, 1902, in favor of the county of Holt as plaintiff, and against Alice Gilbert, her husband, her husband's National Savings Bank of New York, a corporation, and Minnie Thompson as defendants and James N. Clark, receiver of Nebraska Loan and Trust company as cross petitioner obtained a decree for the sum of two thousand, eight hundred, fifty-three and 30/100 dollars, and the costs taxed at $55.58 and accruing costs, I have levied upon the following real estate taken as the property of said defendants, to satisfy said order of sale, to-wit:

Romendorf to the Plano Manufacturing Company, to secure the payment of the sum of $70, and upon which there is now due under terms and conditions of said mortgage and the notes secured thereby the sum of $70, and the Plano Manufacturing Company, deeming it unsafe and insecure, and said property not having been properly cared for and the same being damaged and depreciated in value said mortgagee, here elect to declare said notes and mortgage due and payable, as is provided in said notes and mortgage and default having been made in the payment of the notes secured by said mortgage, and no suit or other proceeding at law, have been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof, said Plano Manufacturing Company will sell the property mortgaged to-wit, and described as follows: One Jones mowing machine, one hay rake, bought of Emil Salgins in the year 1901, and manufactured by the mortgagee, also one set of machins and agricultural tools, complete, consisting of gas fitting tools, saws, chisels, planes, audetc, also one set of buggy harness, and one buggy wagon at public auction at the Blacksmith shop of Emil Salgins in the city of O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska, on the 9th day of August, 1902, at two o'clock, p. m. of said day.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, Land Office at O'Neill, Nebraska, June 24, 1902. Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of her intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the register and receiver at O'Neill, Nebraska, on September 6, 1902, viz:

Clara Matilda Lundgren, H. E. No. 16190.

as you live, just as the clock struck one they were standing there under that big bunch of electric lights and getting married for dear life. And I will say, 'twas as pretty a wedding as I ever saw, and as pretty a bride, too.'

'Well, I declare!' ejaculated the thin Rachel; 'but, Carrie, I thought you started out to tell me about your own marriage.'

'I was so relieved he wa'n't raging, I felt real faint, so I dropped in a chair and said I wished there could be. He got red and sorter hummed and hawed, but soon I made out he wanted he and I to do it. You could have knocked me down with a feather; I didn't say a word; and then he began to beg and said it wa'n't anything sudden with him—except of course the window part—and I knew it wa'n't either, and altogether it ended by my doing it.'

'Well, if that don't beat the beater!' ejaculated the thin lady. 'You ought to have seen that crowd, Mandy. How did I feel? Well, to tell the truth, I did feel fool-funny.'

Tepid Baths for Big Necks. The increase of stature among the Japanese is very perceptible, and the substitution of tepid and even cold water for the hot baths among many of the people is responsible for an increasing floridity of the complexion.

TWO IN A WINDOW.

'Because I'll need you soon,' she said. 'Do you reckon papa is asleep?' 'I thought then she must be fixing to run away, and I asked her, real indignant, if she was, because I never did have any patience with running away—it's so commonplace.'

Eden Valley Voices.

More rain this week for the good of the corn. H. B. Hubbard is blasting rock for the new rock barn he intends building. Corn promises as good a crop as Holt ever produced and likewise potatoes.

H. Stanton has commenced the season with his thrasher and it is doing good work. C. R. Youngs boy, who had his lip badly cut by the kick of a horse, is about well. The Jackson ranch is about finishing the harvest of its booming crop of alfalfa, something over 200 acres. Cucumbers, sweet corn and string beans help to augment the daily fare of frisky pumpkin raisers, and the doctors smile complacently.

The rattle of the binder and the hum of the thrasher has reverberated through this valley. Some rye has been threshed and the yield is quoted about average. There is an unusual crop of sand cherries this year and the citizens are rustling them with a good deal of vigor, 6 or 8 bushels for each family would be about a fair estimate of the amount consumed about this neck of the woods.

The Best Liniment for Strains. Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: 'I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected.' For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Ray Bits. Mrs. Twyford is on the sick list this week. Myrtle De Yarman was in Atkinson Thursday.

Mrs. Ross spent Tuesday afternoon at De Yarman's. Otto Clevisch attended church here Thursday evening.

Messrs. Reed and Flazier were buying cattle in this vicinity last week. Mrs. Edd, Harding visited friends on the Eagle creek Thursday afternoon.

Little Miss Inis Harding has been quite ill, but she is better at this writing. Mrs. Lewis Stebner and Stella Ross called at Twyford's Saturday afternoon.

Two parties were picking sand cherries last week, one was successful—was the others? They did not say! Miss Ether Parker and Lawrence Kloke, of Spencer, were visitors at De Yarman's one day last week.

The Same Old Story. J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says: 'Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies.'

Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Was Speaking of Thirteen. During the graduation exercises of the class of 1902 of the Derby high school, at the Sterling opera house, last night, Miss Helen Louise Keen, the salutatorian, was making reference to the fact that the class numbered 13, and it was the 13th day of the month and a Friday, when a bolt of lightning shot across the stage, accompanied by a deafening report.

Several pupils fainted, all were more or less shocked, and the audience of 1,500 persons was thrown into consternation. Miss Keen alone was unmoved, and she calmly continued to talk about the thirteen 'hoodoo' as if nothing had happened.

Investigation showed that no one had been hurt, and the exercises were resumed. The lightning entered the building by a wire, and the only damage done was the displacement of a few bricks—Derby (Conn.) Correspondence—New York Herald.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

New York Family Story Paper

FOR 1902

Founded in 1873, the New York Family Story Paper enters its twenty-ninth year with a consciousness that its past record as the family paper of the whole country is the best guarantee of its future performance.

It contains something of interest to the whole household, from its oldest to its youngest members; and while its stories are of more absorbing interest and thrilling incidents than the average tale published in the monthly magazines, yet its columns are kept scrupulously free of anything that might offend the most fastidious.

In typographical appearance and illustration the New York Family Story Paper is the model for all similar weekly papers. Get a copy and compare it yourself with the others. Its staff of authors is the best in the character of fiction that the mass of people desire to read. Among its contributors, most of whom write exclusively for its columns, will be found such popular authors as—

- Miss Laura Jean Libbey Mrs. Charlotte May Kingsley Mrs. Lillian R. Drayton Mrs. E. Burke Collins Mrs. Charlotte M. Stanley Mrs. M. A. Kidder Miss Abi S. Jackman Miss Katherine Dangerfield

'I've been thinking there might be a wedding, after all.' by asking if I thought she had told her pa a story. 'I told her 'twas mighty like whipping the Old Boy round the stump; that she was fooling her pa, and that, in my opinion, she might as well run away and be done with it. 'That made her cry a little, but all the same she went to work and dressed up in her new spring dress—'twas a gray jacket suit and a mixy sort of green silk waist, and a hat trimmed in violets. I put on my Sunday clothes, too, and she carried a big bunch of violets he had brought her that evening, and we stole down stairs and let them in; and, as sure
