KING IS CROWNED

PLACED AT LAST ON THE HEAD OF THE RULER.

EDWARD BEARS UP GRANDLY

After Coronation Experiences but Little Fatigue—Attends Religious Services with the Queen—A Grand Gala Time.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The king was crowned at 12 o'clock on Saturday. The news of the crowning was announced by an official outside the abbey. It was repeated by signal through London and was received with cheers, which spread throughout the stands and crowds far up the street, as the bells pealed joyfully. The queen was crowned at 12:56 p. m.

Yesterday (Sunday) the festivities were continued in London. There were considerable crowds almost all day long in the vicinity of Buckingham palace and along the route of yesterday's procession viewing the decorations and watching the flow of notable personages to and from the various thanksgiving services.

In the evening the Canadian arch, which is an exceptional novelty for Sunday, was brilliantly illuminated and was a great center of attraction and served to bring an immense concourse of people into the neighborhood. In spite of the welcome announcement made last night that King Edward had borne the fatigues of coronation day well, today's bulletin concerning his health was awaited with a certain degree of anxiety. Perhaps this is the reason that his majesty's physicians issued the bulletin at the rather unusually early hour of 9:30 o'clock. Because of the early hour very few people were about when it was posted at the gates of the palace. The bulletin is as follows:

"His majesty bore the strain of the coronation ceremony perfectly well and experienced but little fatigue. The king had a good night and his condition is in every way satisfactory. No further bulletin will be issued. (Signed) TREVES LAKING.

After the posting of the bulletin there was still some doubt as to whether his majesty would drive out, but the small crowd that remained at Buckingham palace hopeful to see the sovereign, was rewarded by the appearance of the king and queen. They were accompanied by Princess Victoria, Prince Charles of Denmark, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia and the crown prince of Denmark and were attended by a large following of the royal household.

The procession drove along the Mall and St. James palace without receiving any notable demonstration from the people. Tickets to the chapel royal had been sparingly granted. The choir boys who took part in the service in the chapel were clad in quaint gowns of crimson and gold lace. The service was very simple, special prayers for the occasion, however, were read.

An almost identical service to the one held at the chapel royal of St. James was conducted at Marlborough house chapel and attended by the prince of Wales and his family and other royal personages.

The most interesting of all the services was held at St. Paul's. This was essentially a people's service in gratitude and thankfulness that the sovereign had been restored to his health and it presented a striking contrast to the sad service of supplication held there in June, on the day the coronation should have taken place.

SENATOR M'MILLAN NO MORE.

Michigan Legislator Dies at Summer Home at Manchester, Mass.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—A dispatch was received here yesterday announcing the death of Senator James McMillan of Michigan, at an early hour this morning, at his summer home at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. Death was the result of heart failure, following congestion, after an illness of a very few hours.

The news came as a great shock to his friends here, as when the senator left Washington shortly after the adjournment of congress he appeared to be in good health and looked forward with much satisfaction to a quiet and restful summer. For some years Senator McMillan has made his summer home at Manchester-by-the-Sea, having erected a very fine cottage at that place.

While no information on that point has been received here, the expectation is that his remains will be taken to Detroit, Mich., and be deposited in the family vault at Elmwood cemetery. The body of his son, Captain John H. McMillan, who served in the Spanish war and who died several months ago, rests there.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Latest Quotations from South Omaha and Kansas City.

SOUTH OMAHA. CATTLE—There was only a fair run of cattle, but for the week to date the supply is considerably in excess of the same days of last week and also of last year. Buyers took hold in good shape of all desirable grades of both killers and feeders, so that the general market was about steady with yesterday. There were only a few cars of corned steers on sale, and the same as has been the case of late, they were shorted cattle and nothing strictly choice was offered. The cow market was also about the same as it was yesterday. Supplies were not excessive and anything at all desirable met with ready sale at steady prices. The common stuff, such as sells below $3.00 was about steady. The demand for the better grades of stockers and feeders was active and the market could be quoted steady. While good, heavy cattle and prime yearlings are in active demand the common and thin stuff is neglected, and if anything was a little lower today. There were not very many range beef steers of good quality, but the market held just about steady all around and was fairly active. Cows and feeders also sold at good, steady prices where the quality was satisfactory, but common stuff was neglected.

HOGS—There was a small run of hogs. On the start the market was a dime lower than yesterday, but later in the morning it became evident that there were not enough hogs to fill packers' orders, so that in spite of the fact that Chicago was quoted 10¢/15¢ lower, this market firmed up and closed active, with half of the loss regained. The bulk of all the sales went from $7.25 to $7.30, and as high as $7.40 was paid.

How Napoleon Studied Law.

Among the Napoleon stories recently circulated is one which may be apocryphal, but is surely instructive. It is said that some one once asked the emperor how he acquired his remarkable knowledge of the civil law. He replied that when a lieutenant he had been unjustly placed under arrest for ten days, and in the room where he was confined he found a digest of the Roman law. He spent his time absorbing the contents, and when he regained his liberty his head was stored with useful knowledge in that line.

The marchioness has directed the sailing of several races at Cowes and is looked upon as an experienced yachtswoman.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11th.—Mr. Vahlberg of 222 South Peoria St., this city, had for years been an invalid with liver complaint and kidney trouble which was fast hastening him to the grave. The doctors gave him up and his friends and neighbors all declared he could not live.

His brother came from Minneapolis to see him before he died and inquired if he had tried Dodd's Kidney Pills.

On being told that this remedy had not been used he went out at once and bought a box, feeling satisfied from what he knew of Dodd's Kidney Pills and the noble work they had been doing in Minnesota, that they would save his brother's life.

The first two days Mr. Vahlberg seemed to grow worse, but after that he gradually improved under the treatment and was soon restored to complete good health.
