Lion Coffee

is 16 ounces of pure coffee to the pound.

Who knows how much coffee and how much stale eggs and glue-called glazing—there is in the coffee you buy?

Lion Coffee is all coffee—never glazing.

The sealed package keeps it fresh and pure.

Prefers "Turba Turba."

The old stage driver who drives the stage from the elevated station at Crescent street down to the Old Mill is not a college bred man, but he has an idea of Latin nevertheless. Yesterday he was driving a load of passengers to the mill, when the conversation among them turned to Santos-Dumont and his airship. One passenger remarked that there was no great danger in an airship, and prophesied that airships would be a common vehicle of travel before many years.

Too Many Small Brothers.

A girl in Salina, Mo., who was handicapped by too many brothers, was entertaining her favorite caller a few nights ago. Brother No. 1 took up his position on the front porch and stayed there. About 11 o'clock brother No. 2 came home and attempted to join in the conversation, but was met with the question, "Where have you been?" "Oh, been to see my girl." "Well, did her brothers sit around in the way all the evening?" There was an immediate disappearance of relatives.

Hugo's Self-Appreciation.

Victor Hugo had a very exalted opinion of himself. One of his intimates called on him once and found him walking in his garden, apparently thinking deeply. The visitor asked the great French poet what he was meditating upon. "I was wondering," replied the poet, "what I should say to the Creator when I met him. Can you imagine what I would say?" "Yes," answered the poet's friend, "you would say, 'My dear confere.'"

A Man with a Mission.

It is not given to all men to inaugurate a successful movement. The Rev. Francis Edward Clark is blessed in the satisfaction of having enrolled nearly 4,000 members in the Society of Christian Endeavor, which he started twenty-one years ago. And the enrollment goes on. "The roll call of nations" shows that more than a score of countries are represented in the 60,000 branches of the society. Mr. Clark has been the soul of the society since the beginning. He is a Canadian, and was born Francis Edward Symmes. His father dying when he was 2 years old and his mother when he was 8, he was adopted by his uncle, the Rev. E. W. Clark. He is a strikingly handsome man of 51, with the enthusiasm of three steel presidents.

Financial Talent Wasted.

It has been found that a Columbus (Ohio) man whose salary is $7.50 a week has been leading a double life. That man is wasting his time. He should turn his financial talent to some account. A man who can lead a double life on $7.50 a week ought to be able to give even Russell Sage pointers on the handling of money.

New Zealand Bush fires.

Autumn in New Zealand is the time of the bush fires. As soon as the hot months of summer have done their work thousands of acres of forest are set blazing, until in some districts the country lies under a pall of smoke and along the coast navigation is hindered by the huge clouds that drift out to sea. Throughout the year the bushmen, who usually undertake the work by contract with the farmers, have been busy felling and "underscrubbing." All the tangled undergrowth of creeper and sapling and tree-fern, smothered with moss and lichens and carpeted with beds of smaller ferns, delicate as seaweed—all this is ruthlessly slashed down and the trees within a certain limit and size are felled. This done, it remains only to pray for dry weather. Fires are lighted and in an hour acres of magnificent forest are going up in smoke and flame to prepare the land for cultivation.

Why King Edward Did Not Take Flying Ship Trip.

King Edward VII, as is well known, is much interested in all matters relating to flying ships, and especially is he interested in Santos-Dumont and his efforts. A few weeks before the coronation it was extensively rumored that the king had quite made up his mind to accompany the clever young Brazilian in one of his aerial flights, that he had, in fact, made all arrangements for his travel through the air. A certain well-known scientific peer asked his majesty one evening after dinner, whether the rumor concerning the royal aerial voyage was really true. "Now, Lord—" answered King Edward, laughingly, "is it likely that I would take this flying ship trip? The coronation has not yet taken place, and I can assure you that I wish to wear my earthly crown before I put on the other!"

Hint for Hand Shakers.

The woman who is doing a man for $2,000 because he crushed her hand in shaking it has presumably a good ground for action. The strong man who is always giving his friends a demonstration of his power of grip is an unmitigated nuisance. He is worse than the ass who pounds his acquaintances on the back. A grip of steel and bad breeding have at times caused amputation.

Missed Their Opportunity.

The three Pennsylvania cows that ate some dynamite that they found in a field didn't explode, but simply died from its poisonous effects. Evidently they didn't realize the full possibilities of their opportunity for spectacular effect.

Only Chinese Washerwoman.

The only Chinese washerwoman in New York is Ida Bing Ding, who does a flourishing business, having several men in her employ. When she dresses up and goes abroad she is the envy of Mott street, for her clothing is not only gaudy but rich in texture and becomingly worn. It is said she aspires to become the wife of a free-born American.

Why They Are Paid Little.

A Los Angeles paper says the reason men in semi-official positions there are paid less than in the east is that thousands of half-invalids gone to California for their health, are able to do work which the climate of the east made impossible.

Oxford College is Absorbed.

St. Mary's Hall, at Oxford, popularly known as Skimmery, has been absorbed by Oriel after an existence of nearly 600 years. The number of students had dwindled down to four. The arrangements for the transfer were made years ago, but the change was made to depend on the life of the principal of the hall, who has just died after a tenure of forty-five years.

Emigration From England.

Emigration from England to the United States continues to show a startling increase over the figures of previous years. We cannot see much in talking about the American invasion, seeing that the Britishers are running away from their own island at the rate of nearly 20,000 a month.
