

EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

As Gleaned by the Frontier Reporter on his Daily Rounds About the Town

EVERYTHING THAT OCCURED

Is Recorded Here, If Not it Escapes the Anxious and Tireless Search of Our Reporter

Wanted—Fifty yearling mules. 4-35pd Co. PERTHWATTE & SON.

Dell Akin and John Brady were down from Atkinson Monday.

B. A. Deyarman house and barn for sale. DICKSON & Co.

W. W. Bethea, was up from Ewing, Saturday greeting old friends in this city.

Attorney Dickson was attending district court in Boyd county last week.

Charles A. Robinson, an attorney from Kearney, was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

For flour, feed, millet, corn, oats oil meal, hay at the lowest price for cash, see me.—Con Keys.

For Rent—Ninety acres of farm land one-half mile northeast of this city. D. H. CRONIN.

George F. Hansen, of Blackbird, called Saturday and had his name enrolled upon The Frontier subscription list.

Ed. F. Gallagher left for Darlington, Wis., last Sunday morning being called there by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his sister.

Tyler Scriven, was up from Chambers, Monday called at this office and left the necessary coin to credit his subscription to January 1, 1904.

SEE My line of wall paper direct from factory. Don't buy from dealers when you can save 25 per cent. See me. M. F. Cronin

I have for sale one span good young work horses. Also 2 good second hand top buggles. Frank Campbell.

For Rent—My farm eight miles northwest of O'Neill. About 80 acres under cultivation. Mrs. Margaret Marsh.

H. A. Polk moved his family into town last Friday and is now comfortably located in the old Cavanaugh residence, which Mr. Polk purchased last fall.

The public schools and St. Mary's Academy are closed this week. The closing of the schools was taken as a precautionary measure to prevent the spreading of diphtheria.

Buggies, buggies, buggies—A car load of the nicest and best that ever came to O'Neill; if you want a snap now is your chance to call and get your pick.—Neil Brennan 45-1f

The citizens of Atkinson are stirred up by a genuine postoffice fight. There are five candidates already in the field and several others looking over the ground with a view to entering the race

FOR RENT—The 240 acre Carlon farm adjoining O'Neill. Running water, fine meadow and pasture. Dwelling, shade, etc. Apply at once to O. F. Biglin, O'Neill, Neb.

The Elkhorn river is on the rampage. It is reported that the county bridge across the river near Ewing has been washed away and on the low lands along the river south of town is enough water to run a steamboat.

Valdez Alaska Prospector: Jack Meals, the well known pioneer and miner of the Chesna, is back and brought his wife and many children that the school board had to put in new seats and engage a new teacher.

J. K. Johnson, of San Francisco, was in the city Monday. Mr. Johnson is a son of the late Col. B. W. Johnson, of Atkinson, and is a practicing attorney in the coast city. He says that times were never so prosperous in the cities on the coast as at the present time, which speaks well for these days of republican prosperity.

Now is the time to buy a bull for spring use. The best is the most profitable. See our herd before buying. We want your business and we are going to make prices that will induce you to buy.

The Brook Farm Co. J. R. Thomas Foreman, Ranch 12 miles Northeast of O'Neill

Why don't you use a thorough bred shorthorn bull? Is it because you cannot spare the cash? Then see us: We will take grade cattle in part payment, or make other satisfactory arrangements.

The Brook Farm Co. J. R. Thomas, Foreman Ranch 12 miles Northeast of O'Neill

Anyone who desires to have papering, painting, calcemining and frescoing done, it will be to their advantage to see me. I have had forty years experience and will guarantee work to be first-class. Leave orders for work at Corrigan's drug store or address me at Agee, Neb. 52 N. S. Thompson.

Ainsworth Journal: Mrs. F. Herre, of West Side, Iowa, arrived here Wednesday night of last week and was taken to the home of her parents on the Calamus, by Dell Mosely, arriving one day too late to witness the last sad rites of her father, John Crone. Mrs. Crone will accompany her daughter to Iowa for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keeley and family left Tuesday morning for Valdez, Alaska, where the family will reside while Mr. Keeley will go into the interior and prospect for gold along the Copper river. The Frontier will visit them each week in their northern home and keep them posted on events in this portion of the universe.

George Shiveley returned last Saturday night from Waco, Texas, where he had been recuperating the past three months. George is not very favorably impressed with the south and says no matter what vocation a man may desire to follow he is compelled to go along shoulder to shoulder with a "culled" gentleman as they occupy stations in the various walks of life, from the well fed, well paid banker to the poor hard working day laborer on the streets.

An editor wrote: "We beg the indulgence of our readers for being a day late this week. Our failure to get out on time was the result of the physical demoralization of the editor, caused by sleeping too close to the boarding house window." The cussed compositor set the last word "widow" and the proof reader failed to discover the omission of the letter "n." The editor's trunk still is at the boarding house and he hasn't had a change of shirts or socks for five weeks.

Park City, Utah, Record: Mamie, the 15-year-old daughter of John McBride, died Wednesday night from pneumonia. She was the youngest daughter and was a great favorite both with her immediate relatives and her schoolmates and companions, and she will be sadly missed. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Catholic church and was largely attended by friends of the young lady and of the family. Interment was in the city cemetery.

Effective March 13, mail will leave the O'Neill postoffice at 4 o'clock p. m. for all eastern points. It will be pouched from the O'Neill office to the Omaha and Bonesteel railway postoffice and will be sent to Norfolk on No 28 which is due here at 4:15. Mail sent on this train will reach Omaha at 10 o'clock the next morning. Mail for stations between O'Neill and Norfolk will not be sent on this train. Train 27, due here at 5:32 p. m., will bring eastern mail. This will make it possible for O'Neill residents to receive the morning Omaha papers four hours earlier than at present.

Mrs. Richard Killmurry jr., died at the home of her parents in this city last Tuesday evening at 8:30 after an illness of but four days of diphtheria, the remains being interred at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Catholic cemetery. The sudden death of this estimable lady is a very sad one and her grief stricken parents have the sympathy of the people of city. She came up from Chambers to the bedside of her brother T. J. Hurley, who died February 27, after an illness of but four or five days of what was termed tonsillitis, but, as the symptoms were the same as in this case people generally believe he had diphtheria. On March 1 her father-in-law, Richard Killmurry sr., died and she attended that funeral on Tuesday last week and was apparently in good health, but complained of a sore throat. On Thursday she was compelled to go to bed and grew rapidly worse until she passed away Tuesday evening. The family are now in quarantine and every precaution is used to prevent the spread of the disease.

Danger of Colds and Grip. The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

H. Shaw Killed

Shot by Edward Slattery while Coming to Town Last Friday Morning. Slattery will Have Preliminary Hearing Saturday.

As the result of a family feud of several years duration H. W. Shaw lies in the cold and silent grave and Edward Slattery is in the county jail charged with murder.

Last Friday morning Mr. Shaw accompanied by his son and hired man, J. T. Thompson were coming to town with three loads of baled hay. It appears that near the Slattery house the snow has drifted the roads so full that it became necessary to pull out of the road onto the Slattery land to get through. On the morning in question when Mr. Shaw came along Slattery came down from the house with a shot gun and ordered Shaw to keep off their land. Shaw and Thompson got down off their loads and started toward Slattery when the latter fired killing Shaw instantly. Thompson came to town and notified the authorities of the tragedy and shortly thereafter Coroner Trueblood summoned a jury and repaired to the scene of the crime.

The coroner's jury came back from the scene of the shooting about 6 o'clock but did not render a verdict until the following morning. Following is a copy of the report filed by the coroner with the clerk of the district court:

Be it remembered that on the 6th day of March 1903, reliable information was given to the undersized coroner of said county that the dead body of H. W. Shaw had been found about 5 miles Southwest of O'Neill in said county, and the said H. W. Shaw was supposed to have come to his death by unlawful means, therefore I issued a warrant to E. Huff a constable of said county, requiring him to summon six lawful men of said county to appear before me at the above mentioned place (5 miles Southwest of O'Neill) forthwith, then and there to hold an inquest upon the dead body of said H. W. Shaw there lying, and by what means he died, and at the same time issued subpoenas for James Thompson, Rafe Shaw and Sarah Slattery to appear at said time and place; And said constable, at the time and place mentioned in said warrant, returned the same duly served, and also that he had summoned said witnesses as required. Therefor at the time and place mentioned, said jury, to wit: David Moler, C. A. Moore, S. P. Burge, Ira Laphan, D. L. Canfield and D. Stannard appeared, and being duly impaneled and sworn, proceeded to make inquiry as to the means and by whom said H. W. Shaw came to his death and having inspected the body heard the testimony and made all needful inquiries, returned to me their inquisition in writing under their hands as follows:

"That at about the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. of above date (3-6-03) the said H. W. Shaw came to his death by the felonious discharge of a gun in the hands of Edward Slattery"

David Moler. C. A. Moore. S. P. Burge. Ira Laphan. D. L. Canfield. D. Stannard.

Slattery came to town about 11 o'clock and gave himself up to the county judge the latter releasing him upon $500 bond. Shortly after a complaint charging him with murder was sworn out and he is now in the county jail awaiting a preliminary hearing which will be held next Saturday.

Severe Attack Of Grip Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." An O'Neill Boy At The Head.

Dr. Joseph Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gallagher of this city who for the past six years has been located in St. Louis, has just been appointed to the superintendency of the new emergency hospital in that city, at a handsome salary. Dr. Gallagher's many friends here are much gratified at his continued success and the high rank he is taken in his chosen profession. The following extract is from the St. Louis Globe Democrat: "Superintendent Nietert of the City Hospital said last night that Doctor Joseph Gallagher, a senior of the hospital staff, will be in charge of the new emergency hospital on Fourteenth and O'Fallon streets which today becomes one of the city's eleemosynary institutions.

Fred Halle will be chief clerk in charge of the office and clerical force. "Doctor Gallagher has been connected with the City Hospital since the spring of 1901 and has shown such ability that he was promoted several months ago by Superintendent Nietert to the position of senior physician, in charge of the medical ward. He is a graduate of the medical department of Washington University, and stood one of the highest in the graduating class of 1901.

"Doctor Nietert said that the patients to be removed to the new emergency hospital will be the "chronics" as they are termed, whose removal will not only relieve the congested condition at the old place, but will be attended with less danger. Most of these patients are now sleeping underneath the first floor of the City Hospital, in quarters that could not by any stretch of the imagination be deemed desirable.

"Nurses from the St. Louis Training School will be assigned to the new hospital. The work of removing the patients to their new quarters will be done gradually, and will require several days."

County News Notes.

From the Ewing Advocate. No less than four Fitzsimmons-Jeffries encounters have been pulled off in our city this week and with the exception of one instance there was not an official in sight, but we might add, however, that in this one particular instance the mayor was largely in evidence. No bones were broken or serious injuries resulted from any of the mix-ups, although chairs were used in place of stuffed mitts in one case. What caused these numerous altercations we are unable to state, unless, as some claim, the unsettledness of the weather is a breeder of radical differences of opinion. It may yet be found necessary to employ a cordon of police to patrol our city.

G. S. White and J. D. Wiseman, of Vadis West Virginia, arrived in Ewing last night on an extended visit to J. K. Snyder. Mr. Wiseman is a brother of Geo. Wiseman who resides over near Orchard. These gentlemen are both old acquaintances of Colonel Snyder, and while their visit to this place is partly to renew this old acquaintanceship, yet Mr. Wiseman is looking up a location, and in case he can find the right kind of a deal will locate here. Mr. White informs us that he is here on an altogether different mission; that should he find his ideal of a woman, he is here for keeps.

A serious family mix-up is occupying the attention of the residents out near the S. H. Harris homestead west of Ewing, a portion of the facts of which will be brought out at a preliminary hearing before Judge Selah next Tuesday.

Harvey Johnston returned Wednesday evening from down near Lincoln where he has been visiting a sister the past two weeks.

Mr. Mitchell, a son of our townsman J. S. Mitchell, came up from Iowa last Wednesday for a visit at the old homestead.

Card of Thank.

The Emmet Literary Association at its regular meeting held on Friday, March 6th, passed the following resolution.

Whereas, the annual Banquet and celebration of Emmet's Birthday, on Wednesday evening was due largely to those who participated in the program,

Therefore, be it resolved that we the Emmet Literary Association, give this expression of our thanks to the Orchestra, Singers, Declaimers, all who so kindly lent their talent to make the occasion a success.

THE EMMET LITERARY ASS'N, By its President and Sec'y.

Legislative News.

Lincoln, March 9. The appropriation bills have at last come into the House, and will be the subject of discussion in committee of the whole immediately after the disposal of the revenue bill. As usual the amounts asked for in the appropriation bill are very large, and will be trimmed down somewhat by the house. The disposition toward liberality will be more pronounced if adequate provision is made for raising the money to pay the bills.

The revenue bill has been reported to the House by the standing committee with a number of amendments, the most important of which is the change in the time of the assessment from the 1st of February back to the present date. There is some disposition, however, to compromise on March 1st. The bill has been printed and placed in general circulation, and an agreement has been reached to hold night sessions in the House until it is disposed of. In the meantime the sale bill has been introduced in the senate, and will be held in abeyance pending action in the House.

A number of new bills have been introduced calling for amendments to the constitution, and it is possible that some of them may pass, and give the people another chance to vote upon them. Heretofore the trouble in elections has been that more than one-half of the voters neglected to vote on the amendments, and they have always failed to carry. A move will no doubt be made to have the propositions placed at the head of the ballots instead of at the bottom, as an experiment to see if the voters will not take more interest.

The Mortgage.

The mortgage is a self supporting institution. It always holds its own. It calls for just as many dollars when grain is cheap as when grain is dear. It is not effected by the drouth. It is not drowned out by the heavy rains. It never winter kills. Late springs and early frosts never trouble it. Potato bugs do not destroy it. It grows nights, Sundays, rainy days and even holidays. It brings a sure crop every year, sometimes twice a year. It produces cash every time. It does not have to wait for the market to advance. It is not subject to speculations of the bulls and bears on the board of trade. It is a load that galls and frets and chafes.

It is a burden that the farmer cannot shake off. It is with him morning, noon and night. It eats with him at the table. It gets under the pillow when he sleeps. It rides upon his shoulder during the day. It consumes his grain crop. It devours his cattle. It selects the finest horses and the fattest steers. It lives on the first fruit of the season. It stalks into the dairy where the busy house wife toils day and month after month and takes the nicest cheese and choicest butter. It shares the children's bread and robs them of their clothes. It stoops the toiler's back with its remorseless burden of care. It hardens his hands, benumbs his intellect, prematurely whitens his locks and oftentimes sends him and his good wife over the hill to the poor house. It is the inexorable and exacting tax master. Its whip is as merciless and cruel as the lash of the slave driver. It is a menace to liberty, a hindrance to progress, a curse to the world.—(O. T.) Leader.

The Market.

(Special market letter from Nye & Buchanan Co., Live Stock Commission Merchants South Omaha, Nebraska.)

South Omaha, Mar. 12, 1903.

Beef steers made an advance of 15 to 20c last week but lost most of it first two days this week. However, Wednesday recovered 10c again and the market now has a good healthy tone again. Principal cause of decline was the big run of 30,000 in Chicago Monday and two days' heavy run here.

We quote best beef steers $4.60 to $5.00, good $4.00 to $4.50, warmed-up $3.75 to $4.00; choice cows and heifers $3.50 to $4.00, fair to good $2.85 to $3.40; canners and cutters $1.50 to $2.50. Choice stockers and feeders $4.20 to $4.40, good $3.75 to $4.20. Bulls slow sale at $2.50 to $3.70; veal $4.00 to $6.00.

Hog receipts light. Range $7.00 to $7.45

Sheep receipts also light. Market steady to strong.

Killers $6.00-$6.50

Yearlings 5.50-6.00

Wethers 5.30-5.60

Ewes 4.25-5.10

Nye & Buchanan Co.

On Friday a decided flurry was caused by the report handed to the Senate by the committee on accounts and expenditures, severely criticizing the secretary of state because of the purchase of legislative supplies without authority, and the including of carpets, furniture, and a number of other items not ordered or used by the legislature. The bills in the hands of the committee show many overcharges and other discrepancies, and reflect much discredit on one of the employes, and decided embarrassment to the secretary of state. The committee declined to audit and pay the bills, and a full investigation is to be made. In taking hold of the matter in a fearless manner the legislature is showing a strong contrast to the unionists when they were in power and when they condoned rather than criticised the illegal or dishonest acts of their officials. It is quite probable that this session will pass a law which will prevent extravagance and peculation of public funds in this manner in the future.

The agitation over the Omaha plan to tax terminals practically subsided last week when the House by a decisive vote indefinitely postponed H. R. 330. There is some talk that a similar measure in the Senate will be revived, but the evident hopelessness of the movement will detract from its interests.

In case the session holds six days in the week from now on, the sixtieth day will come on the 30th of March. It has been usual, however, that the sessions hold more than sixty days, and the opinion is quite general that the end will not come before the 4th or 6th of April.

A Counting Contest.

The Lincoln Daily Star, Nebraska's brightest and best daily newspaper, is conducting a counting contest among its subscribers in which they are offering $150 in gold prizes. The contest is proving a very popular one on account of its simplicity, and the large prizes awarded. The conditions governing the contest are few and easy to be complied with. If you will send a postal card to the publishers asking for a sample copy containing the particulars they will send you one, and you can take part in the contest and perhaps win one of the prizes. The Lincoln Daily Star contains all the news, all the time. Four editions are published daily. Full Associated Press service over leased wire. Latest markets. Detailed legislative proceedings. Address Daily Star, Lincoln, Neb.

Removal Notice.

After March 1st. I will be located in the Martin building opposite Hotel Evans. Call and see my spring line and get prices before ordering your spring clothes.
