The Rattlesnake's Rattle.
Briefly described the rattlesnake's rattle consists of a number of hollow, horny rings, somewhat like quills in substance and interlocked with one another, while they are so elastic as to permit of a considerable amount of motion between them. These rings are not indicative of age, as has been supposed, since in some years several appear, while in others only one ring may be developed.

Kansas Working Overtime.
Two crops of strawberries and the second yield of early apples is the reported record of Kansas during the past season. What's the matter with the Sunflower State?

Blessing the Danube.
In Roumania there is a custom of publicly blessing the River Danube on Christmas day. A large cross of ice is carried before the procession.

Mountain Threatens Disaster.
Great Altels, a mountain near the Gemmi, in the Bernese Oberland, is threatening to split asunder and overwhelm the neighboring valley. In September, 1895, a great fall of ice from the Altels covered hundreds of acres of meadow land in the neighborhood of Spitalmatten.

A Compliment From Carnegie.
Robert C. Ogden related an incident a few days ago which occurred at a dinner over which he presided. Andrew Carnegie sat next to him. While the speaking was in progress, Mr. Carnegie reached over and whispered to Mr. Ogden: "I like you." "This was very gratifying," said Mr. Ogden, in telling the story, "and I wondered what was the reason for this fondness.
I was not long in doubt, for Mr. Carnegie said: 'Most toastmasters say so much. I like you because you say so little.'"—New York Times.

The Britisher Fumbled.
"Anyway," said the joker, "you can't expect anything but ire from Ireland." But when this rare stroke of humor reached the British house of commons the member said, "Naturally we must anticipate grievances from the Emerald Isle," and he wondered why they didn't laugh.—Toronto Star.

No Escape From Trouble.
An interesting light on the subject of government ownership of railways comes from Victoria, Australia, where the 10,000 employes of the government railway, defeated in an attempt to elect legislators who would raise their pay and shorten their hours, are threatening to strike. Evidently there is no royal road to industrial peace.

Aged Inmates of Poorhouse.
In Sulcoates workhouse, Hull England, there are sixteen inmates whose united ages amount to 1,218 years.

Our Superiority in Coal.
Britain's coal measures cover 9,000 square miles, against the United States' 222,500 square miles.

Unique Pica for Work.
Loafer—Any chance of a job o' work 'ere, mister? Foreman—No. We're not wanting any more hands now.
Loafer—Well, the little bit o' work I'd do wouldn't make no difference!— Punch.

RULES FOR SUCCESS.
A prominent merchant gives the following advice to boys beginning life:
"My policy in life has been to stick to what I set out to do. I never rolled around from one thing to another. To boys who want to accumulate money, I would offer the following suggestions:
"Get a plan in your head.
"Stick to that plan.
"Indulge no bad habits.
"Avoid the company of those who do indulge in bad habits.
"Cultivate your own abilities.
"Help yourself.
"Rely upon yourself.
"Study common sense."

Arriving at a Decision.
Although Senator Elkins of West Virginia does not often attend the races nowadays, it was different during his early manhood. One day he and a chum slipped off together from school and on the way to the track came across their professor, who said in surprise: "Young gentlemen, what does this mean? You should be at your lessons." Elkins said: "Sir, we wanted to go to lessons and also to the races, so we tossed for it and it came down for the races." "What did you throw up?" "We threw a lump of coal up. If it stayed up we went to school; if it came down we went to the races, and here we are, sir."

Recommends "Volcano Cellars." Prof. T. A. Jagger, Jr., Harvard, who has been making investigations of the eruption of Mont Pelee, believes that people of volcanic countries can escape destruction by building cellars or chambers of masonry in which they can seek shelter when the eruptions occur.

The Liberty Cap.
The red liberty cap was really the headgear of the galley slave. The were hailed as victims of despotism.

Timbers of oak keep the old homestead standing through the years. It pays to use the right stuff.
"Men of oak" are men in rugged health, men whose the foundation for a sturdy con-
