EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

As Gleaned by the Frontier Reporter on his Daily Rounds About the Town

EVERYTHING THAT OCCURRED

Is Recorded Here, If Not it Escaped the Anxious and Tireless Search of Our Reporter

It still blows.

Ed F. Gallagher is in Omaha this week.

W. E. Scott, of Atkinson, was in the city Wednesday.

T. J. Foley, of Omaha, was in the city Wednesday.

George Kraft, of Stuart, was in the city Wednesday.

District court adjourned Tuesday until Monday June 1.

N. D. Jackson, of Neligh, is in the city today on legal business.

See those new photo mountings at Corbetts. They are beauties. 43

Dick Kilmurry left Monday evening for Cody, Wyoming, with a view of locating.

Will Townsend and Bert Hollenbeck were down from Atkinson Saturday.

Attorneys Chapman and Searl were down from Atkinson Monday attending court.

Doctor Corbett will be in his Dental office and Gallery from the 23 to 30th of each month.

John A. Robertson, one of Stuart's progressive cattlemen, had business at the hub today.

Miss Florence Mullen came up from Page last evening for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. William Laviollette, left Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives in Omaha.

Cyril Erychleb, the prominent Spencer merchant, was in the city the first of the week.

H. J. Abrams, of Omaha, was in the city for a few hours Monday visiting old friends.

Conard Kramer, of Stuart, is in the city today and renewed his subscription to The Frontier.

Miss Anna Murphy closed a very successful term of school in district No. 100 last Friday.

The coal man has been forced to the rear and the ice man is now at the front of the procession.

G. A. McCutchan and Jas. Davis left this morning for a trip to the south end of the county.

John Stewart came back Wednesday evening from an extended trip through Keya Paha county.

Rev. Amos Fetzer will deliver a memorial sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Frank Dishner was visiting relatives in Columbus the first of the week, returning Wednesday afternoon.

FOR SALE—A few full blooded Hereford bulls.

tf. Cowperthwaite & Son.

Cashier O'Donnell, of the O'Neill National, made a business trip to Boyd county the first of the week.

For Sale—One Jones five ton wagon scale complete. Call on or address Malloy Bros. Emmet, Neb. 45-3

For Rent—After May 15, the house occupied by A. J. Hammond will be for rent. 44-1f Dickson & Co.

WANTED—A good girl for general house work. Enquire of Mrs. A. J. Hammond. 47-2

S. G. Blackkald, of Naper, and Miss Grace Berry, of Meek, were united in marriage by Judge Morgan on May 11.

Dan Coffey, left for Fremont Tuesday morning where he will take a business course in the normal at that place.

Miss Anna Brennan returned to her home in South Omaha Monday morning after a two weeks visit with relatives here.

Miss Rosa Hudspeth, the versatile editress of the Stuart Ledger, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters last Saturday.

N. Grass and R. H. Murray, two of the most prominent and progressive farmers of Iowa township, were in the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong of Bedford, Indiana, are in the city visiting Mrs. Armstrongs parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Norvill.

Otto Tappert and A. Nyland, of Norfolk, two of the most popular traveling men along the Elkhorn were in the city Wednesday.

Miss Maggie O'Neill, who has been visiting relatives in this city the past week, returned to her home in Council Bluffs this morning.

Hugh Cassidy, arrived from Chicago Friday evening to attend the funeral of his brother, John, who was buried in this city last Sunday.

A Washington dispatch in the Sunday daily paper stated that Peter Greeley, of Phoenix, has had his pension increased to $40 per month.

Charley McKinney left for Bonesteel this morning after a short visit with friends. He reports Bonesteel still booming, regardless of reports to the contrary.

John Lorge, brother of Mrs. D. H. Cronin, came up from Randolph last Thursday evening to attend the funeral of Baby Cronin, returning home Saturday morning.

Buggies, buggies, buggies—A car load of the nicest and best that ever came to O'Neill; if you want a snap now is your chance to call and get your pick.—Neil Brennan 45-1f

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. King, left Tuesday morning for Leavenworth, Wash., where they expect to make their home with their daughter until Mr. King succeeds in finding a suitable location.

National Bank Examiner John Rush, of Omaha, was in the city Wednesday and Thursday examining into the standing of O'Neill's two national banks. It is needless to add that he found everything in first-class shape.

Peter Kelley and Jes. Mellor, made a trip to Boyd county Tuesday. The report was brought to town by different farmers that Pete and Jess stopped enroute several times and played a game of hand ball, using the buggy top for a wall.

Miss Lenore Murphy entertained a number of her friends last Tuesday evening at her home northeast of this city. All reports, a very pleasant time. Carom and dancing were the principal games of the evening. A dainty luncheon was served at 12 o'clock.

F. A. Broodwell, of Omaha, clerk of the district court of Douglas county, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters Monday. Frank is a prince of good fellows, even though he is a democrat, and one of the most popular men in Douglas county.

Mrs. A. Cassidy and family desires The Frontier to extend their thanks to their friends and neighbors and to the Modern Woodmen, of Inman, for their many acts of kindness during the sickness, death and burial of their beloved son and brother.

The Brook Farm Co., have Bulls for sale and their Dames have weighed 2100 hundred. Brother stockman come and buy one of these bulls and grow 1800 hundred lb steers with the same feed you grow 1000 and 1200 lb ones. J. R. Thomson Foreman.

William Meals, left over the Great Northern Tuesday morning for Valdez, Alaska, to which city his parents moved some three months ago. Willies many O'Neill friends hope that fame and fortune will smile upon him in the land of the midnight sun.

District court convened Monday with Judge Westover on the bench. The trial of Edward Slattery, charged with the murder of H. W. Shaw, was to come on for trial but on request of the County attorney the case was continued until June 1, and the jury was dismissed until that date.

Anyone who desires to have paper-pering, painting, calceining and frescoing done, it will be to their advantage to see me. I have had over forty years experience and will guarantee work to be first-class. Leave orders for work at Corrigan's drug store or address me at Agee, Neb. 35-2 N. S. Thompson.

Sam Barnard returned from his fishing trip Wednesday. Sam says there are a lot of fish in the Elkhorn but it takes patience to catch them, and, as his supply was rather limited, he was not very successful.

Last winter when we had to buy coal to keep warm the coal barons punched the price skyward. Now we have to buy ice to keep cool and these cold-hearted dealers have raised the price a few degrees. Verily, man's journey with time is not over a bed of roses.

All societies in O'Neill are requested to participate in the decoration day exercises on May 30. A local speaker will deliver an address at the court house and a procession will be formed and march to the cemetery where the graves of the heroic dead will be suitably decorated. A meeting of our citizens will be held in the office of T. V. Golden on Friday evening, May 22, to perfect arrangements.

A special term of the district court, Judge Harrington, presiding was held last Friday. Andrew Nelson, who was arrested at Ewing last week on complaint of his daughter, who charged him with incest, appeared before the court and plead guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentiary, and on the fourth day of May, each year—the date upon which the last offense was committed—in solitary confinement. He will be taken to Lincoln the latter part of the week.

A deal was consummated the first of week whereby Ryan & Milligan became the owners of the hay and cattle business of L. C. Wade, at Inman. They expect to increase the capacity of the hay barn at that place about 1000 tons and are also figuring on doubling the capacity of the barn here. This firm has been very successful since their organization some three years ago and their appearance upon the Inman market will stimulate the hay business in that village.

O'Neill democrats held a meeting in the office of Cowperthwaite & Son last Saturday and organized a democratic club. William Fallon was elected chairman and Jas. F. O'Donnell, secretary. They are getting in shape to put up a good strong bluff to the next populist county convention and will, so we understand, demand an equal division of the offices. Whether they will succeed or not depends upon the amount of force the O'Neill land syndicate will place behind them.

Dr. W. H. Mullen arrived home from Chicago last evening where a couple of weeks ago, he graduated from the dental department of the Northwestern University. He is looking up a location and when a satisfactory one is secured will settle down to the practise of his profession. His brother, George, who graduated at the same time, is visiting relatives in Illinois and is expected home the latter part of the week. The boys are both active, progressive hustlers and The Frontier predicts will soon become leading lights in their profession.

The twelve year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Conklin died last Monday afternoon after a couple of months illness, of a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church Wednesday, being conducted by Rev. Fetzer, and the remains were interred in the Protestant cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of the people of O'Neill in their bereavement.

Man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He came into the world without his consent, goes out against his will, and the trip between the eternities is exceedingly rocky. When he is little the big girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is a chump, but if raises a check he is a thief and a fraud and is shunned. If he is poor he is a poor manager; if he is rich he is dishonest. If he is in politics you can't tell where to place him, and is no good to his country; if he does an act of charity, its for policy; if he don't give to charity he is a stingy man and lives only for himself; if he dies young there is a great future before him; if he lives to an old age he missed his calling.

John Cassidy, son of Mrs. A. Cassidy, died at the home of his mother, about six miles east of this city last Thursday. Deceased was born in Chicago, Ill., in January 1876, and was 27 years old at the time of his death, which resulted from Brights disease, he having suffered from rheumatism and that disease the past year and a half. Deceased came to this county in 1891 and has resided here with his parents since that date. He was an honest and industrious young man and his untimely death is mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His parents, two brothers, Hugh and Thomas, and four sisters, Mrs. S. M. Davis, Mrs. Mat Kirnen and the Misses Agnes and Ellen are left to mourn his demise and to them The Frontier extends its sympathy in their bereavement.

The following from an exchange fully explains the situation of the farm hand today: "Wanted—On a small farm, a hired man between 20 and 30. Hours: 8 to 5 in summer; 8 to 4 in winter. Employer does his own milking and takes care of the horses. Trolley passes door. Free delivery; telephone to village; long distance telephone to New York; excellent literary and progressive euchre facilities; hired men's club; use of tennis grounds; golf privileges; superior table, French cooking; billiard and pool table in carriage house; Wednesday and Saturday afternoons off November 1 to March 15; checkers, dominoes, quilts; $35 a month; safe deposit box; use of automobile twice a week; employer can give best of references." The hired man has a right to be mighty particular.

The Market.

South Omaha, May 21, 1903.

There were 30,000 cattle in Chicago and a 10 to 15 lower market. We had only 1800 here and a steady market.

Tuesday found us following Chicago's decline, with 5000 cattle on sale, and Wednesday's receipts were liberal also and the market continued to decline. Prices are all of 30 to 40 lower than ten days ago.

We quote best beef steers $4.60 to $4.75, fair $4.30 to $4.55, warmed-up $4.00 to $4.30; choice cows and heifers $3.75 to $4.00, fair to good $3.25 to $3.65, canners and cutters $1.50 to $3.00. Good light stockers and feeders are selling from $4.40 to $4.60, fair $4.00 to $4.25, stocker heifers $3.00 to $3.25. Bulls $3.00 to $4.00; veal $4.50 to $6.00.

Hog receipts heavy. Range $6.00 to $6.35. We expect a lower market in June.

Sheep receipts light. Market about steady.

Lambs, choice, woolled,	$7.00—$7.25
Shorn,	6.00—6.50
Yearlings	5.50—6.00
Wethers	5.00—5.50
Ewes	3.50—4.50

Nye & Buchanan Co.
