The Inman News puts it "ex-Governor Dietrich."

It requires a real patriot to accept a government job to which there are no perquisites attached.

Missouri has a running mate for President Roosevelt in the person of Cyrus P. Walbridge of St. Louis, who will have to hustle if he outstrips John L. Webster.

The young and energetic king of Spain expresses a desire to visit the United States. Come along, Alfonso; your royal highness will be properly entertained.

Wreckage by land and sea abates none with the new year. A sunken ship in the Straits of Juan de Fuca, off Washington coast, with the loss of fifty lives and a wreck on the Rock Island near Topeka, Kan., with seventeen killed, are among the latest.

According to reports from Washington, the government contemplates the expenditure of some $500,000,000 on public roads, of which sum $308,000 is provided in the bill for Nebraska. "Tis a good work and more appropriate than sticking millions into an army and navy."

In the Senator Dietrich trial the court held that the accused was not a senator at the time the contract was made with the government in leasing a building for the Hastings postoffice. The senatorial prisoner was discharged and he goes to Washington to assume his legislative duties an acquitted man in the eyes of the law. At a critical moment in the trial, counsel for the senator raised the question as to whether his client was a senator at the time of the alleged shady transactions and the court decided he was not. Thus ended Nebraska's senatorial sensation without the calling of a single witness, and the wind knocked out of the prosecution. Senator Dietrich now says he will call upon the United States senate to make a full and unbiased investigation of the allegations which still seem inadequately exploded.

Norfolk News: Congressman Kindred of the big Sixth bids fair to make his presence felt in the national legislature during his term of office. He is a hard worker and is getting next to things as they are done there with remarkable facility. His constituency is already beginning to feel that they have an able representative in the judge, and before his term is closed the entire state may take pride in the fact that he is one of the delegation from here. Even if his present record is not improved upon, his district can do no better than to return him for another term at the earliest opportunity. He is of the sort that Nebraska needs in congress and is certainly a magnificent improvement over former representatives of the Sixth district in recent years.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Holt county, Nebraska.—Gentlemen: Your petitioner, E. L. Brooks, of Knox county, Nebraska, represents to you that during the year 1888 he was a citizen and resident of the village of Atkinson, Nebraska, and was engaged in the general merchandise business. That his stock consisted mostly of second-hand merchandise, a great portion of which was damaged and shelf worn. That the enter value of said merchandise did not at any time exceed the value of $2000. That the assessor of Atkinson township for the year 1888 either through error or accident assessed said stock for the sum of $1520, that said assessment was grossly unjust and excessive and said stock should not have been assessed for more than the sum of $400 as compared with the assessment made that year of the other stocks of goods in said village. That at the time your petitioner had no experience in business matters and knew nothing of the laws regulating taxation in the state and took no steps to secure a proper assessment of said property. That petitioner removed permanently from Holt county, during the year 1888 and never since had a residence therein. That the taxes levied against him for said year is the sum of $96.48 and while the same is unjust and oppressive, still your petitioner is anxious and willing to make a just and equitable settlement of the same and now offers to confess judgment for $50 and cost of suit, the same to be in full settlement of said taxes. Petitioner prays your honorable body to enter an order instructing the county attorney to commence suit in this county for the recovery of the amount of said taxes and upon an offer being filed by your petitioners to confess judgment for $50 and cost of suit, that said county attorney shall accept said offer and fully release and satisfy said judgment upon the payment of said amount, and that upon the payment of the said sum of $50 to the county treasurer he shall strike from the tax list of said county said taxes assessed against your petitioner for the year 1888.

E. L. Books.

By L. C. Chapman, his Attorney.

The following resolution was read: Now on this—day of January, 1904, E. L. Brooks of Knox county, Neb., by his attorney L. C. Chapman of O'Neill, Neb., filed his petition in writing praying for relief from a grossly excessive and erroneous assessment for the year 1888, made upon certain personal property then owned by said Brooks and situated in the village of Atkinson in said county, and offering to confess judgment of the sum of $50 and cost of suit the same to be in full settlement of said taxes; and it appearing to the board from the evidence produced that said assessment was erroneous, unjust and excessive and it further appearing to the board that the said

Brooks has not been a resident of this county for more than fifteen years and that he has no property in this county wherewith to satisfy said taxes and it appearing further that the interest of this county will be better subserved by accepting the offer made by him rather than litigate the matter in another county.

Therefore be it resolved that the county attorney be instructed to commence suit in this county for the recovery of the amount of the taxes due from said Brooks and upon an offer being filed by said Brooks to confess judgment for the sum of $50 and cost of suit that the county attorney accept said offer and fully release and satisfy said judgment upon the payment of said amount, and upon the payment of the sum of $50 to the county treasurer said treasurer shall strike from the tax list of said county the taxes against said Brooks for the year 1888.
