Supplying War News

The manager of the local branch office of Edwards, Wood & Co., brokers, informs us that since Japan and Russia have come to blows the office here will give regular bulletins as to the progress of hostilities in the Orient. The dissemination of general news is not new with this firm. They have made a practice of it from the first as everyone who frequents their office is well aware. A great many men make it a point to visit their office for late bits of news. This feature combined with the continuous quotations of the markets forms an attractive feature of Edwards, Wood & Co's, office. Everyone is welcome to visit their local office during leisure hours, it is not an exclusive place in any sense and no one who visits them is under the slightest obligation to patronize them.

Notice to Dog Owners.

After March 1 parties owning dogs must keep them off of the public business streets. After that date all dogs found running at large will be shot.—Bennett Martin, Marshal.

Mann's are preparing for a grand spring opening on Saturday, February 27. The balcony of their store will be cleared and thrown open for a reception room and the public generally will be invited to come in and partake of their hospitality. Hot coffee will be served from 1 to 6 o'clock.

One of the most pleasant and successful social events of the season was a ball last Friday evening at the opera-house given by the Knights of Columbus. Sixty couples were in attendance and a very enjoyable time was had by all. The dancers were banqueted at Hotel Evans.

The people in the vicinity of Dorsey were treated to an entertainment last Saturday evening at the Woodmen hall, given by Apple Creek Camp No. 4346, Modern Woodmen of America. The main feature of the program were performances on the snare drum of difficult and interesting pieces, recitations and songs by Major R. H. Hendershot and his son J. C. Hendershot, who were engaged especially for the occasion. Besides these, were recitations by local talent and music by the Dorsey string band. The people of Dorsey heard something novel, and if any one doubts that Apple Creek camp has a real live goat let them ask the clerk.

The latest and one of the best candidates for public favor in the musical comedy line is "A Runaway Match" which comes to the opera-house Tuesday, February 23. It is one of the brightest, cleverest and daintiest pieces of the kind ever afforded to the American public. Now a musical comedy is not complete with out sextet. The special feature of "A Runaway Match" this season is Nancy Brown sextette. Nancy Brown is one of the most popular songs of the day, having been sung all summer in the city productions; also a male quartette, a mixed quartette and a number of other bright and telling specialties.

O'Neill society has suddenly broke loose from a Rip van Winkle hibernation and for a fortnight there has been a giddy whirl of dancing parties and other society events, the whole coming to a grand and final climax on Monday evening of this week, when rival leap year parties were instigated by diverging forces among the young folk and successfully carried out in opposite ends of town. One combination charted the opera-house and the other Golden's hall. The grand march at the opera-house affair opened at 9:30 with thirty couples. At 1 o'clock the L. L. C.'s served an elegant lunch on small tables arranged in the hall. The dance broke up at 3:30. Participants in each report a joyous time and the guests regret that a long Lenten season will pass before there is prospects for other such occasions.

King-Mann Wedding.

Mollie Saturday Mail: The many friends of Clyde Nelson King, advertising manager for the Moline Plow Co., and popular member of the Moline club, have been congratulating him today upon his marriage to Miss Martha Elizabeth Mann of Chicago. The wedding took place Thursday in Chicago but no one here knew of it until the arrival of the announcement cards today and the return of Mr. and Mrs. King.

The wedding was attended by relatives of the bride and the only guests from Moline were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stephens. The ceremony took place at 6 p. m. Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mann, the bride and groom being attended by Mrs. Mann as matron of honor and Joe Mann. Following the ritual a wedding dinner was served and the bride and groom went to the Auditorium annex, where they spent Friday, returning to Moline Friday evening. Mr. King has a host of friends here who will welcome his bride to Moline society circles. Until April 1 they will reside at 1619 Sixth avenue, but after that date will begin housekeeping in one of the Stephens residences south of the city hospital grounds.

His office associates planned for a lively celebration next Monday on the occasion of Mr. King's return but he surprised them by appearing this morning and the bunting and ribbons and fireworks must wait now for the next one.

D. Clem Deaver departed Tuesday for Arizona to look after some mining interests in the vicinity of Florence. He was expecting to be joined at Omaha by E. S. Eves and two or three Omaha men who are interested in the mine. M. F. Harrington of O'Neill was also expecting to accompany the party but professional business prevented, he having to look after the interests of H. O. Jackson in a case in the federal court of Iowa over the purchase of some cattle. Mr. Deaver says they have what gives every indications of a rich copper mine in the vicinity of Florence which his brother-in-law has been looking after for some time and the present trip is to make plans for further development. As far as developed ore has been secured in abundant quantities but sufficient depth has not yet been attained to ascertain what the supply will be. A number of O'Neill citizens have stock in the mines.
