A new hardwood floor in the hallway of the court-house is a recent improvement. The tables in the various offices are also being recovered.

Station Agent Adams of the Northwestern has a shinning new uniform with glittering buttons, a style adopted by the Northwestern for their agents.

P. A. Barrows of Albion, an old time newspaper man, but more recently deputy county clerk of Boone county, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters Tuesday.

The supervisor grind is about completed. The Frontier will have one or two more installments to complete the last session. The board adjourned last week until in April.

Jim Brennan returned Monday evening from Hot Springs, Ark., where he was called by the serious illness of his brother Mike. He left his brother on a fair way to recovery.

My annual spring opening will occur on March 12, when the ladies of O'Neill are invited to call and see the splendid selection of millinery goods I have this season.—Mrs. Nichols.

William Clevisch was in from the north Friday. Bill says he is about tired of hard work and is figuring on disposing of his farm, moving to town and joining the ranks of the retired farmers.

A farewell party was given Mrs. Silas Smith Tuesday evening by her friends. Mrs. Smith left Wednesday morning for Muskogee, Ind. Ter., where she has accepted a position in a transfer office.

The high wind last Wednesday smashed several window glass for R. H. Mills. A board was lifted by the violence of the wind and carried for about a block and plunged into a window in Henry's house.

H. H. Claibourne, known in O'Neill years ago as "Puss," and who was associated with his father here in the publication of the Holt county People, has recently had a round in federal court at Omaha over alleged purjury in that court in a United States postal station case. Mr. Claibourne is now a reporter on the Bee staff. The federal jury disagreed in his case.

Fire threatened Mrs. Selah's residence in the north part of town Sunday. The walls close to the range were charred from excessive heat but the danger was discovered in time to prevent a conflagration.

Head Connel Talbot, of the Modren Woodmen of America, will lecture in O'Neill on March 22. Woodmen throughout Holt county are invited and all others who desire to hear the advantages of woodcraft expounded by this brilliant orator.

Miss Margaret Hall entertained the L. L. C.'s last Monday evening, Miss Sue Gillispie won the prize which was a souvenir spoon, after which a light lunch was served. Thoses present were Misses Skirving, Gillespie, Evans, Stolp, Smith, Gordon, Graham and Hall.

The case of the state against Benjamin Woodruff for killing a dog belonging to J. H. Peeler attracted considerable attention in county court this week. Mullen and Dickson prosecuted and Whelan defended. At the conclusion of the hearing his honor took the case under advisement. In the meantime the court discovered it did not have jurisdiction in the case. The lad was bound over to district court.

The republican county central committee met Monday and after discussion of the matter of holding a convention for the selection of delegates a resolution was adopted that the committee select the delegation. The Holt county delegation consists of fourteen members and goes to the convention instructed for Judge Kinkaid for a re-nomination. A convention will be called later to select the delegates to the state and senatorial conventions.

A prairie fire south of town did considerable damage Friday last. The fire started at the school-house about eighty rods from the home of Mrs. Mary Cavanaugh. In the morning the teacher emptied the ashes from the stove outside not knowing there was fire in them. Fire caught in the long grass and with a heavy wind from the south the flames were carried with a flash in the direction of Mrs. Cavanaugh's home. The surrounding neighborhood responded promptly and saved Mrs. Cavanaugh from being burned out. She lost seven stacks of hay, however. Messrs Pribel and Shoemaker also lost a quantity of hay each.

Miss Ruth Evans entertained the L. L. C.'s last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Stolp, Miss Nellie Skirving won the prize which was a very pretty souvenir spoon. During the evening lunch was served. Miss Stolp departed Tuesday morning for her home in Missouri. The L. L. C.'s regret very much to loss Miss Stolp from their club.

A. P. Hoover, the horse man, is minus an eye since last Saturday—that is, he has the eye yet but the sight is gone. Suddenly and without warning the eye went blind. Mr. Hoover says he was engaged in some amusement with some children when what appeared to be a squirming, waggling object resembling a snake passed in front of his right eye. He made a grab to catch hold of the object and found nothing there. He then discovered the sight was gone from that eye. He accounts for the misfortune in the bursting of a blood vessel.

Treasurer Cronin Mandamused
The State of Nebraska on the relation of the Inman State Bank of Inman, Nebraska, relator, vs D. J. Cronin, county treasurer of Holt county, Nebraska, respondent is the title of a case filed in the district court of Holt county last Monday.

The petition alleges that the relator is a banking corporation duly organized under the laws of the state of Nebraska and that it had on the first day of January, 1904, and now has, a paid up capital stock of $6,000.

The petition alleges further that the respondent is the duly elected, qualified and acting county treasurer of Holt county, Nebraska, and is charged with the safe keeping and depositing of the public money of Holt county in the manner provided by law.

The petition further alleges that the relator filed a bond for $6,000 with the county clerk of Holt county for the safe keeping of all money deposited therein as a county depository, and that said bond was duly approved on January 19, 1904, by the county board of Holt county, said bank being then named as a depository of public funds.

The petition further alleges that respondent had on deposit in the banks of Holt county March 1, 1904, the sum of $70,037.88 divided among the banks as follows:

Ewing State Bank	$ 3155 17
Farmers Bank of Page	4519 13
Atkinson State Bank	4728 22
The Citizens Bank of Stuart	6158 94
First National Bank of Atkinson	3737 42
Elkhorn Valley Bank	11370 00
O'Neill National Bank	13723 23
Chambers State Bank	3155 18
First National Bank, O'Neill	11676 54
First National Bank of Stuart	7759 66
Total	70,037 88

The petition alleges further that it has not at this time nor has it at any time since the approval of its bond before mentioned and its selection as county depository had any of the money of the county of Holt in relator's bank and that there is none of the public funds of Holt county, Nebraska now on deposit in its bank as by law provided, and your relator alleges that it was the duty of the respondent specially enjoined and imposed upon him by law to deposit and have on deposit with your relator on the first day of March, 1904, and at this time, its prorata share of said $70,037.88, that being the amount on deposit in said banks, and that it was the duty of respondent herein to have deposited and to have on deposit with your relator on March 1, 1904, and at this time, the sum of $2,143.28 and with the other banks as follows and no more:

Ewing State Bank	$ 1786 65
Farmers Bank of Page	1786 65
Atkinson State Bank	3673 30
The Citizens Bank of Stuart	8063 25
First National Bank, Atkinson	8863 25
Elkhorn Valley Bank	6389 85
O'Neill National Bank	8032 25
Chambers State Bank	1786 65
First National Bank, O'Neill	17866 54
First National Bank, Stuart	6863 25

The petition further alleges that relator has been unlawfully and intentionally discriminated against by the respondent in the depositing of the county funds and that the respondent has not complied with the laws of the state of Nebraska, in relation to the depositing of the public funds of said county and that the respondent has unlawfully and willfully disregarded his duties as well as his oath of office, and contrary to law has been depositing the moneys of the county in banks in excess of the amount that said banks were entitled to receive, thus depriving the relator of its just share of said money; that in some instances respondent has deposited more of the county money than fifty per cent of the capital stock of said bank. This the relator alleges is a direct violation of law and it prays for a mandamus to compel the respondent to deposit and keep on deposit in its bank its prorata share of all money in his custody or that may come into his custody as county treasurer of Holt county, Nebraska.

The case comes on for hearing tomorrow before Judge Harrington.

Just as we go to press we learn that a message was received from Cody, Wyo., announcing the death in that city this morning of Mrs. John E. Kearns. The remains will be brought to this city for interment. The funeral will probably be held Sunday.

I have 100 acres of good cultivated land for rent, on easy terms, adjoining town on the west.—D. A. Doyle
