Read It Through.
"T'would Spoil This Story to Tell It in the Headlines.

To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "o'er true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon, of Melfa Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was."
For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Portland Oregonian: The spectacle of the people of Russia, led by the czar, czarina and commander-in-chief of the army, prostrate at the confessional, in the hope of securing divine favor in war, is one that at this distance is more ludicrous than solemn. A partial God, one who can be propiti-ated by offerings, or swayed by prayer and adoration—the traditional "God of battles"—is out of date among people who do their own thinking.

Wakeful Children.
For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N.
Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

The readers of the Ord Quiz were last week startled by the announcement in glaring black type. "Dance at the Methodist church next Friday evening." Following this in small type the reader was informed that Enslow would speak on the dance and its injuries. Some of the preachers understand advertising much better than some of the merchants.

So Sweet and Pleasing in Taste!
Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my many friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or a cold; and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at P. C. Corrigan.

A fire at Lynch last Friday resulted in the following losses: T. J. Coldwell, barn building, $1,400; insurance $500.
S. W. Lightner, lumber yard, $13,000; insurance $5,000. G. A. Orr, horses, buggies, etc., $800; no insurance.
Nineteen head of horses belonging to Mr. Orr were burned to death.

Cures Sciatic Rheumatism.
Mrs. A. E. Simpson, 509 Craig St., Knoxville, Tenn., writes, June 10th, 1899: "I have been trying the baths of Hot Springs, Ark., for sciatic rheumatism, but I get more relief from Ballard's Snow Liniment than any medicine or anything I have ever tried. Enclosed find postoffice order for $1.00. Send me a large bottle by Southern Express." For sale by P. C.
Corrigan.

Colds Are Dangerous.
How often you hear it remarked:
"It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take.
For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Climatic Cures.
The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitation night sweat.
Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly.
Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup.
