

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XXIV.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1904.

NUMBER 38.

P. J. McMANUS has returned from the markets

We've made special provision for you, with the finest assortment of plain and fancy shirts you ever had a chance to take your pick from.

They're Cluett and Monarch shirts—none better made; the Cluett full dress shirt will suit you. There's money to be saved in buying them.

The swellest line of boys' suits you ever saw.

A boy's satinette 2-piece suit $1 25
Boys' cotton warp cassimere 2-piece suit 1 75
Boys' fancy cassimere suits 5 50
Swell line buster browns, all colors 4 50 5 00
Swell line blue serge trimmed 4 50
Youth's suits, ages 12 to 20, blue serge $3 and $9
Youth's suits, ages 12 to 20, cassimere $4 and $8

This line is worthy of your investigation, and defy competition.

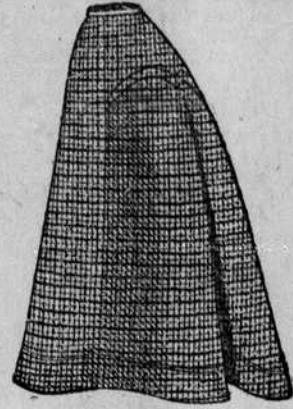

MEN'S SHOES—It is quite an art to be able to have your trade always say, "Well, I want another pair of those Pingree shoes; they're the only shoe that gives me comfort, look well and give me a year's wear." If you have never worn my Pingree made shoes come and get in line with the fellow that is satisfied. I carry all styles and sizes, and you will be convinced that there was a shoemaker where they were made.

H. S. & M. suits, sizes 34 to 42. This is the best line of clothing made in the country and I have just received a large stock of Spring suits, prices ranging from $10 to $20, and you can depend on getting the best suit for the money you ever wore.

Supplement Brand

New dress goods in all the latest cloths now in display, all colors in etimines voiles, twine cloths, crepe cloth. A very swell line of wash goods, consisting of the latest silk tissue in all colors, mercerized etimines, silk crepe. Some very beautiful white goods for graduating suits; also Persian lawns, dimities, India lawns. This is a very swell stock to select your Easter dress from. Come early and get your choice.

SKIRTS—I have a new and nobby line of skirts in the latest styles and cloths—prices from $2 to $10; silk skirts from $6.50 to $16.50—a swell line.

CORSETS—The W B Corset means the best. I carry the line complete. This cut represents a garment that is a favorite of the trade at $1.00. I also have this one in a better grade at $1.50. Tape girde, 65c; summer corsets, 50c; Chicago waists, $1.00; Chicago waists, miss, 75c; EZ waists, 25c.

LADIES' TAILOR SUITS—Now is the time to get in line for your spring suit. My ladies' suit department is now fully equipped with a new and nobby line of suits. It will pay you to come and get what you want in this line as I show the largest stock of tailored garments west of Omaha and will guarantee my prices as low as in the larger cities.

LADIES' SHOES—I carry the largest stock of ladies' fine shoes in this market. You can always find the latest styles and best values. The new oxfords are very nobby. Do not overlook my line when you want a pair.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The Meligh house and barn to rent. Inquire of Dickson & Co. 38-1f

Senator and Mrs. Kearns were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dickson while in the city.

Tom Mullen went down the Northwestern Tuesday to be gone a month on a picture selling tour.

Mrs. Selah departed Monday for Grafton, Neb., where she was called by the serious illness of her father.

R. H. Mills and wife went to Meadow Grove Sunday, being called there by the death of a niece of Mr. Mill's.

Horses For Sale—I have several teams of good heavy work horses for sale. Call on or write to Ed Welton Swan, Neb. 38-4-pd

Miss Lizzie McNichols took the west bound passenger, Friday evening for Wood Lake, Neb., where she is engaged to teach a four months term of school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Golden departed yesterday over the Northwestern for southern Iowa, Mrs. Golden having received the sad intelligence of the death of her father.

The sale advertised by Mrs. Della Shaw has been indefinitely postponed. The sale was to have been held on March 22 and was one of the largest advertised for some time.

H. Bradley was up from near Inman Friday last and had bills printed for a sale of horses, sheep, cattle and hogs at his place three miles northwest of Inman on March 24.

C. L. Turner and family of Sioux City arrived in O'Neill Saturday last. Mrs. Turner is a daughter of I. R. Smith and is here on account of the illness of her father. Mrs. Tenborg is also here from Spear Fish, S. D.

Wanted—Young man wishes work in the country from April 1 to September 1. Address "A," O'Neill, Neb., stating wages. 37-2

District court convenes on March 21. Owing to the fact that there are no important cases the jury drawn for the March term has been excused from duty and there will be no jury trials at the coming setting of the court.

The Frontier learns that Patrick Fahy, who will be remembered by all the older citizens of this community, died last September at Waukegan, Wis. Mr. Fahy was one of our early settlers and at one time had extensive real estate holdings here.

I have for sale at a bargain a fine suburban home, house of nine rooms with wind mill, two wells, granary, young orchard, plenty of small fruit, seven acres of ground, one mile from center of town, all bottom land and first class. If you want this see T. V. Golden. 38-2

Sheriff Hall expressed a spotted bird dog to A. D. Howe of Norfolk yesterday, it being a dog that had been stolen from Mr. Howe some months ago and recently traced up and secured by the sheriff. Sheriff Hall says a reward of $25 offered by the Norfolk man hung over the head of the chap who stole the dog.

The Frontier regrets to learn of a long and painful illness which I. R. Smith is experiencing. Mr. Smith has been confined to his home for the past eight weeks from an abscess on the side of his face, which has been paired and trimmed and cut away by the surgeon's knife, causing great pain and suffering. He is, however, some better, and we trust will soon be enjoying the bloom of health again.

The latest move toward the Chambers transportation line is a large and enthusiastic meeting held at Chambers the past week. The official proceedings resulted in the appointment of a committee of eleven to confer with O'Neill citizens and fix a date and place for holding a general meeting to do something tangible toward the construction of the proposed line.

House for rent. Enquire of Dickson & Co. 37-1f

Registered Hereford bulls and cows, for sale. J. M. Caldwell, 4 miles north of O'Neill. 37-1

Owing to the sickness of Mr. Saunders The Frontier is one day late this week.

Misses Ruth Evans and Bee McCafferty attended the play at Spencer today.

John Biglin, Jim Kane, Joe Mann and Mike Horskey attended the play at Spencer today.

Head Counsel Talbot, of the Modern Woodmen of America, will lecture in O'Neill on March 22. Woodmen throughout Holt county are invited and all others who desire to hear the advantages of woodcraft expounded by this brilliant orator.

D. A. Doyle will sell hand picked Michigan beans at 5c per pound or $2.75 per bushell. Oil caked meal, old process, $1.90 per hundred. A full patent flour, every sack guaranteed, $1.20 per sack. A strate grade, $1.10 per sack. Four hundred bushell of seed speltz for sale. Highest cash price paid for corn. First door south of post office. 38-2

In the Maudamus proceedings against County Treasurer Cronin brought by the State Bank of Inman, which was taken up and passed upon by Judge Harrington last Friday, an order was issued by the court that the treasurer deposit the amount of county money in the Inman bank provided for or appear on Monday, March 21, in court and show cause why he does not do so.

A large audience greeted Edward G. Maggi on Monday evening to here his lecture on "Imagination as Inspiration." The speaker's oratory was captivating, his manner pleasing and he held the perfect attention of the audience. It is not too much to say it was one of the most appreciated lectures ever given in the city, and a rare treat to all. Mr. Maggi is not merely a platform speaker but has the rare combination of an orator and scholar. A hearty welcome is assured him if he should return to O'Neill.

Obituary.
Died, at her home in Cody, Wyoming, March 10, 1904, Nellie Fitzpatrick Kearns, beloved wife of John E. Kearns, of acute Brights disease, aged 29 years 9 months and 6 days.

Nellie Fitzpatrick was born in Louisville, Kentucky, July 4, 1873, in which city she grew to womanhood and recived her education, being a graduate of the Academy of Mercy, of that city, one of the most noted educational institutions in the south.

In 1896 she moved with her parents to Chicago, in which city she was married to John E. Kearns on June 14, 1900. After their marriage they lived for a year in Salt Lake City, where Mr. Kearns had extensive business interests. Leaving Salt Lake they came to this city where they remained for one year. About a year and a half ago they moved to Cody, Wyoming.

The deceased had a charming personality and winsome ways. By her amiability, sweetness of manner and disposition she charmed all her acquaintances and bound them to her with the bonds of true friendship. Of her it might truly be said that her friends were only limited by her acquaintance, and in O'Neill where she was known, loved and respected by our people, the expressions of sorrow upon her sudden demise—in the spring-time of life, survived by a loving husband and an idolized son,—were many and sincere.

The remains were brought to this city Sunday morning and were interred in the Catholic cemetery Monday, the funeral being held from the Catholic church, where a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. M. F. Cassidy, and was largely attended. The casket was covered with flowers, tributes from friends in various parts of the country. Flowers were sent in honor of the deceased by the City Council of Cody, of which Mr. Kearns is mayor; a cross of flowers by the ladies of Cody, and a wreath by Col. Cody. Flowers were also sent by Mrs. Wilson, Park City, Utah; by Senator and Mrs. Kearns and Mr. and Mrs. Westcott, of Salt Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sullivan, of Lincoln; and Mrs. Testman of this place.

Besides their many friends in O'Neill there was present at the funeral Senator Kearns and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Westcott, of Salt Lake, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick and daughter, parents and sister of the deceased, and Miss Magee, of Washington, D. C.

The Frontier joins the many friends of the family in extending its heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing husband, little son, aged parents and sisters of the deceased in their bereavement, well-knowing that words of tongue or pen can do but little to assuage the grief of the sorrowing ones, but it is a comfort to know that during life she made many friends who sincerely mourn with them.
