

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

The home of V. V. Hays on the west shore of Goose Lake, where the bodies of the two drowned men were taken last week, was completely destroyed by fire Monday evening. We learn that the fire was started from the flame of a gasoline lamp coming in contact with some clothing hanging in the stairway while Mrs. Hays was carrying it down the stairs. The fire was not noticed until some time afterwards. Hearing a roaring sound, Mr. Adam's daughter, who was staying with Mrs. Hays, went out to see what caused the noise when she found the upper part of the house all in flames. Mr. Hays with some neighbors were burning fire guards some distance away and before anything could be done, the house and about all its contents were a mass of ruins. There was no insurance on house or contents.—The Advocate.

Rector of St. Luke's, Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1904.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample, and took about three doses of medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsent remedy. Respectfully yours, E. A. Langfeldt, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church. To Chamberlain's Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Eyes as a Sign of Intellect.
Generally the special point of difference between unimportant and remarkable people lies in their eyes, in the clear, steady, piercing gaze which is able to subdue or terrify the beholder, writes Lady Violet Greville in the Graphic. Sir Richard Burton's look could never be forgotten; neither, I imagine, could Napoleon's or Victor Hugo's or that of any other great man. The eye is the window of the brain, and through it shines the intelligence.

Revolution Imminent.
A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the Kidneys and Bowels, stimulate the Liver, and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction Guaranteed by P. C. Corrigan Druggist.

Finding an Excuse.
An irascible old colonel who used to play golf at Sandwich, which is on the river Stour, had a habit, common with many, of blaming everybody but himself for his bad strokes. Finally one day, becoming badly bunkered, he first took mighty vengeance on the turf with his club; then, glaring around in expectation of the usually friendly comments and nobody saying anything, he blurted out, "How can you expect a man to play decent golf on these cursed links with ships passing up and down the channel?"—London Mail.

A Continual Strain
Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its healthdestroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy body functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Expected Acquisitions.
"You don't belong to one of the oldest families, do you?" said the supercilious woman.
"No," answered Mrs. Cumrox. "But after we get the girls married we expect to have several of the oldest families belonging to us."—Washington Star.

Fight Will Be Bitter.
Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by P. C. Corrigan Druggist Price 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

Poor, but Polite.
"Want some money, do ye?" said the kind old lady. "Now, I wonder of ye deserve it. What would you do with a penny if I giv it to ye?"
