EWING.
G. A. Raker, the former editor of this paper, now editor and proprietor of the Indian Journal, Eufaula, Ind. Terr., accompanied by his wife and son, arrived in Ewing last Friday afternoon, intending to spend the holidays with relatives and friends at this place. They speak of their new home as being a more desirable place to live than hereabouts, as the climate is more mild. From their healthy appearance, we should judge they have found the sunny south well suited to their highest ambitions.—The Advocate.

ATKINSON.
A. O. Perry received a telegram last Tuesday from Atchison, Kan., that his father, whose home is at that place was not expected to live. Mr. Perry left on the early morning train Wednesday, with the hope of reaching there in time to be with him during the last hours of his illness.

Denny Hunt of Dustin spent Christmas in Atkinson with his family. Denny received through the mail a Christmas present in the shape of a check which represents a neat little sum, all because he had the nerve to back his opinion based on statements published in the Graphic.

State Journal: Friday, October 28, was the eightieth anniversary of the birthday of Judge William Bowen, of 1751 north 28th street. In the evening a large number of his neighbors and the Sunday school class to which he belongs at Grace church called to offer their congratulations. Brief remarks suitable to the occasion were made by Rev. D. L. Thomas and J. C. Pentzer, and then A. G. Chapman on behalf of all present presented Judge Bowen with a fine gold headed ebony cane. To all this he replied in an appreciative and feeling speech. Refreshments were served Judge Bowen gets his title from having been county judge of Holt some years ago. He is hale active. His father lived to be the age of ninety-four.—The Graphic.

STUART
Mike Flannigan is visiting parents in Minneapolis.

Ernest Zink came home from Hooper, Saturday to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Haskin of Anoka visited relatives in Stuart this week.

Geo. F. Reichert is contesting the claim abandoned by Chas. Lee near Pony Lake.

J. L. Cahill went to Omaha Tuesday to attend the State Teachers' association.

Mr. Purdy of Atkinson was here the first of the week looking up a location for a photograph gallery in Stuart.

Mrs. Chittick has been very ill for a day or two. A counsel of physicians was held Wednesday. Dr. Gilligan of O'Neill and Drs. Hunt and Colburn pronounced the trouble appendicitis. Dr. Allison was brought by telegram from Omaha last night and assisted Dr. Hunt and Dr. Colburn in an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Chittick is doing as well as could be expected.

A number of single ladies served a Christmas dinner at Miss Agnes Ripps. The menu consisted of turkey and all its rich accompaniments, prepared by the ladies separately. Outsiders say everything was lovely and the goose flew away. This closes an uneventful leap year 1904. The harpoons are laid away till A. D. 1908.

The bachelors of Stuart ate Christmas dinner at the home of Henry Brockmans, unopposed over. Chef Flannigan prepared the menu. It consisted of turkey, quail on toast, oysters on half shell, beverages and lovely biscuits mixed by artistic hands. The dinner was elegant, but ladies' smiles and wiles would have been a great destroyer of dispesia and accelerated the sluggish motion of the overcrowded heart.—The Ledger.

A Very Close Call.
"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was rocked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by P. C. Corrigan druggist price 50 cents.

Bought Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Sent it to Friends.
Mr. F. W. J. Fletcher, a druggist in Victoria, Australia, says: "A customer of mine, was so pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which she had used for her children when suffering from colds and croup, that during a fortnight's time she obtained at my shop, nine bottles, which she sent to her friends in different parts of the state, telling them to give it a trial." For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Found a Cure for Indigestion.
I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now—Geo. Emory, Roek Mills, Ala. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

Domestic Troubles.
It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c, at P. C. Corrigan Drug Store.

Wonderful Nerve.
Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c, at P. C. Corrigan. Druggist.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by P. C. Corrigan.

They Were All Right.
He was a typical backwoods farmer. His first visit to a city restaurant, however, had taken away none of the appetite he had at home, where everything was placed in large dishes on the center of the table and each one helped himself. The waiter had piled the food around the plate in the customary little dishes, which the farmer cleaned up in turn. Settling back in his chair, he hailed the passing waiter:
"Hey, there, young man! Your samples are all right. Bring on the rest of the stuff."—Judge.

The Business Man
is rare indeed who does not realize the advantage keeping a bank account. Yet while aware of the benefits many men hesitate to open account, because they think their transactions are not large enough. They are in error. The banking system is for the man of small as well as large affairs. The O'Neill National Bank is at the service of every one. It will open an account just as willingly with the small merchant as with the largest manufacturer. If you have been hesitating, don't do it any longer. Start an account to-day, even if it is with only five dollars.

CONTEST NOTICE.
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, O'Neill, Neb., December 10, 1904.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Lewis C. Chapman contestant, against homestead entry No. 1029 made February 3, 1903, for the SW 1/4 NE 1/4 SW 1/4 and NE 1/4 SW 1/4, section 6, township 28 N range 9 W by Harry I. Horton, in which it is alleged that said Harry I. Horton never established a residence on said tract of land, and has wholly abandoned the same for more than six months last past, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged.
Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegations at 10 o'clock a. m. on February 7, 1905, before the Register and Receiver at the United States land office in O'Neill, Nebraska.
The said contestant, having in a proper affidavit filed December 10, 1904, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be giving by due and proper publication.
S. J. WEEKES, Register.

NOTICE.
To John O'Kalla, alias John O'Hala, non-resident defendant.
The above named defendant will take notice that on the 12th day of December, 1904, the plaintiff, J. T. Wachowski, commenced an action in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against you, the object and prayer of which is to recover of and from you a judgment, for the sum of $200.15 with interest thereon, which amount is now due and payable to the plaintiff from the defendant on a certain judgment rendered in Justice Court, Cook county, Illinois, on the 27th day of November, 1903, for the sum of $200 and costs, $6.15. A transcript of said judgment having been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, Cook county, Illinois, on the 29th day of November, 1904.
Plaintiff alleges in said petition that no part of said judgment has been paid or in any manner satisfied and that there is due him the above sum.
Defendant will further take notice that the plaintiff filed in said cause, on the same day, an affidavit for writ of attachment against the defendant and that on said day a writ of attachment was issued said cause for said sum of $200.15 and that the sheriff by virtue thereof levied upon the following described real estate of the defendant, to-wit: The east half of section 22, township 30, range 13, west of 6th P. M. in Holt county, Nebraska, to satisfy the above amount and costs, plaintiff alleging in said petition that the defendant, John O'Kalla and John O'Hala are the one and the same person against whom said judgment was entered in said Cook county, Illinois, in Justice Court.
Defendant will take notice that the plaintiff will ask judgment and an order that the above described real estate will be sold to satisfy the same.
You are required to answer said petition on or before the 30th day of January, 1905, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the office of R. R. DICKSON, Attorney for plaintiff.

Late Beginning.
Sir Walter Scott began to write his celebrated novels at forty. Milton began "Paradise Lost" at fifty. When "East Lynne" appeared its author, Mrs. Henry Wood, was forty-five. Cromwell was forty-one when he began his public career. The year of the hegira was the fifty-third of Mohammed, and Marlborough reached his independent command at the same age. In spiritual examples Abraham was seventy-five when called out of Charan, and Moses was eighty when he stood before Pharaoh as the champion of Israel.
