Why delay in coming to Brennan's to get your garden seeds; we have a new fresh and clean stock of Nebraska's own seeds, also Iowa, Northern New York and Michigan seeds, a large variety of each. The best is always cheapest. Neil Brennan. 35-2

A very pleasant and enjoyable cotillion party was given in Hotel Evans dining room last Saturday evening in honor of J. P. Mann, who had been out from Chicago for a week. The dining room was brilliantly lighted and with freshly papered walls and shining floors the guests spent a most delightful evening in the gaiety of dance to inspiring music.

Exquisite weather was furnished for the Johring sale, which was one of the largest ever held in this section, netting Mr. Johring, so The Frontier understands, close to $6,000. The crowd of bidders was unusually large, which establishes and affirms the old truth that it pays to advertise. Mr. Johring was not afraid to put a few dollars into the right kind of sale bills and other advertising, and the result was a big crowd of bidders.

The best of everything is none too good for the people of this county in matters of good garden seeds. "Brennan" makes a specialty of keeping the best. We have Sioux City and Nebraska seeds in bulk and package, don't get deceived by having people say that their's are "just as good." A counterfeiter will tell you that you can pass his dollar just as good as a good dollar, but it will get caught. You should not be deceived for the best is always the cheapest. Neil Brennan. 36-2

A letter from Lieutenant C. A. Meals says upon his request he has been transferred from the Eighteenth infantry to the Twelfth, the Eighteenth having returned to the United States and he desired to remain in the Philippines. He has been assigned to company G of the Twelfth and on January 1 began the duties of post quartermaster, commissary post treasurer and ordnance officer. Lieutenant Meals says he is getting along well and expects to remain in the Philippines for at least a year yet.

O. F. Biglin, John Carton, H. A. Polk and P. F. Thompson yesterday went to the northeast part of the county to look up the McElhany section of land on which the Elkhorn Valley bank holds a second mortgage of $10,000. Receiver Biglin expressed fear that the depositors would realize very little if anything on this security as there is a first mortgage against the property of some ten or twelve thousand. The visit of the receiver with the three depositors to the land is to ascertain something of its value.

Any one in O'Neill wanting house plants or bedding plants, ferns, palms, petunias, oleanders, orange trees and kinds of out door plants and flowers for a color effect, novelties in outdoor culture, etc., ornamental gardening, landscape engineering, and for beautiful lawn designs address John William Peterson, O'Neill, box 148, agent Jewel Nursery Co., Lake City, Minn., the largest growers of strictly hardy fruit and ornamental nursery stock in the world; established 1868, twelve hundred acres, and a capital stock of $100,000. 36-2pd

Last Saturday's Sioux City Tribune contained the picture of C. J. Milligan, of the firm of Ryan & Milligan of this city, as one of the "cowboys" who will ride a prancing mustang in the inaugural parade at Washington on March 4. Cowboy Milligan sent over to his partner in O'Neill for a pair of fringed and flapping shaps for the occasion and has probably been in training by riding steers around the Sioux City stock yards. A bunch of horses went through on the Northwestern Tuesday for the cow men to ride in the parade.

The O'Neill Dramatic company presented "Sea Drift" Tuesday afternoon and evening to large and enthusiastic audiences. The cast was a strong one and each actor seemed particularly well fitted for the part. Miss Bee McCafferty, as Mother Carew, was especially strong, rendering her part with a strength and force rarely found in an amateur. By her very clever interpretation of this difficult role Miss McCafferty demonstrated that she possesses histrionic ability of no mean order. Miss Mae Campbell, as Mat Sea Drift, fitted the part as if it was written for her. Mike Horriskey, as Monk, the crafty villain, and John Biglin, as Crips, an old coast wrecker, were all that could be desired and won the plaudits of their friends for their clever interpretation of their difficult roles. John McBride, as Veasey, an English dude, Frank Campbell, as the artist detective, Vincent Golden, as the coast guard, J. McCarthy, as Ted, Mat's Chum, and Robert Magrill as the Irish servant, each cleverly enacted their roles, showing they had the talent that would entitle them to heavier parts.

Space is requested for the following obituary. The deceased was the mother of Will Gray, living northwest of town. She recently died at Monon, Ind.:

Miss Letha J. Harrington was born April 24, 1826 near Bowling Green, Ky., and afterwards removed with her parents to Springfield, Mo. Here she was married to Mr. John Gray, Dec. 1840, and to whom were born 3 sons and 5 daughters. They and their children removed to White county, Ind., in the spring of 1861. Her husband and 2 sons enlisted in the army in defence of the country, her husband losing his life when in the service of his country. Mrs. Gray removed with her family to what was then known as Bradford, now Monon, and when there was married to Jackson K. Grady in 1869 and on Nov. 13, 1901, Mr. Grady passed away. Mrs. Grady died Feb. 11, 1905 being 78 years, 10 months and 4 days of age. She leaves 3 sons and 3 daughters, grand-children and great grand-children to mourn her loss. Mrs. Grady united with the Methodist Episcopal church in 1856, and bringing her letter from Missouri she united with the M. E. church in Monon and remained a member until her death. Funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church Sunday, Feb. 12 1905, at 2 p. m., Rev. D. A. Rodgers officiating.

Tomsik Against Tomsik.

District court, Judge Harrington presiding, has been in session since Monday without a jury hearing a case from Atkinson to set aside a deed to the southeast quarter of section 34, township 30, range 15, and two lots in the village of Atkinson.

The action is brought by John Tomsick, through Attorney M. F. Harrington, and is against Anna and Anton Tomsick, son and daughter-in-law of the plaintiff. The plaintiff's petition alleges that in 1898 he executed a deed to the quarter section of land, on which himself and wife and one daughter made their home, to Anna Tomsick after a verbal agreement that he and his wife, both aged and infirm, be clothed and cared for by their son Anton, they all to reside together on the farm. Subsequently the old lady died and John Tomsick continued to reside with his son Anton until 1902, when he alleges he was forced to leave the place and was refused the necessities of life by his son and daughter-in-law. He further alleges that the deed to the lots in Atkinson is fraudulent, that cattle and hogs which was his own personal property to the amount of $600 were sold and the proceeds applied on a mortgage of $700 against the farm which according to the agreement when the deed was executed was to have been paid by Anton. He further alleges that when driven from the home of Anna and Anton he made his home with two other sons, who are also active in the suit to have the deed set aside.

The defendant's answer, through Attorney R. R. Dickson, denies all material allegations. It alleges that the plaintiff left their home and refused support from them on his own volition; that they cleared the farm of mortgage and taxes aggregating some $1200 when foreclosure was threatened and the father was unable to pay, and that they had not denied him proper support.

The case is being strongly contested and many witnesses have been subpoenaed from the west end of the county.

A Trunk Mystery.

Butte Gazette: About two months ago Billy Short found the trail of something that had been dragged from the bank of the Niobrara along down the river on this side. Following the trail for over a mile he found at the mouth of a canyon in the brush a large trunk fastened upon a couple of boards with a strap nailed on the outfit to pull it with. He thought it probably belonged to someone who was moving it from across the river and paid no attention to the circumstance. Yesterday a couple of boys who were out hunting discovered the trunk and notified Short. They brought it to the ranch and upon opening found it contained a lot of good clothing, a pair of gold-rimmed glasses, a bible and other books. A package of letters addressed to Ernest J. Price, Mound City, Ill., was also found in the trunk, but were not read by the finders.

The theory is advanced that this man Price was taking his trunk to the railroad and after crossing the river went back for something he had forgotten and had fallen in an air-hole and drowned.

Steps are being taken to find out who he was and where he is, if living.

Proper treatment of Pneumonia. Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be born in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." For sale by P. C. Corrigan.

The North-Western Line.

One of the most interesting series of articles on the subject of the great railroads of the country that has appeared recently, is that from the pen of Frank H. Spearman, recently published in the Saturday Evening Post, and since printed in book form by Scribners. The chapter descriptive of the Chicago & North-Western Ry. has been published by the passenger department of that line in pamphlet form for general distribution, and will be sent to any address on receipt of 2 cents for postage. W. B. Kniskern, P. T. M., Chicago. 36-4

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by P. C. Corrigan, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.
