At the basket ball match on Tuesday one of the best games of the season was played. The game was characterized by the swiftness and accuracy of the players, the ball passing very quickly from goal to goal. Team work is rapidly improving. Score was 15 to 16 in favor of the first team. Perperations are being made for a matched game soon.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Lyman Waterman tells us he is creating a heavy demand for Holt county land. Within the past two months he has sold some 5,000 acres. Last week he sold the neat little chunk of 2,000 acres.

Judge Kinkaid is home after a busy winter in congress. The judge is looking well after his winter's work and he finds himself about as busy now as any time receiving his many friends who are calling upon him.

Mrs. G. C. Hazelet went to Omaha Monday to join her husband. The boys left this morning for Guthrie Center, Iowa, where they will visit their grandmother for a time before joining their parents at Omaha, when all will return to Alaska.

A complaint has been filed in county court against Edwin Kirwin by M. M. Sullivan which charges that on or about February 7 last Kirwin took from the person of Sullivan a watch, chain and charm, valued at $50, the same being done "without threats of force or violence."

Spencer Advocate: Roy Townsend, the bridge builder and contractor, was in town Monday with his uncle A. W. Townsend on their way to Herrick, S. D. When it comes to the honor as to carrying out the conditions of a contract Roy has a reputation to be proud of. He is a business man.

The next thing billed in the show line is "Old Dan Tuckers," by the Sherman & Morrisey company, which will be at the opera-house the 21st. The managers say of their entertainment: "It will fresco melancholy faces with smiles, chase the blues back to indigo and make you feel that life is worth living."

The Frontier expected to be out early Thursday but this morning we found a card in our mail from the house that supplies the papers we print on saying that owing to a broken folding machine our papers would be delayed a day. Hence we had to wait till the paper came before we could print.

Local sportsmen have evolved a new method of decoying and deceiving wild ducks. By means of white sheets spread over the hunters they are able to make successful "sneaks" over the snow unobserved by the long-neck birds. Those who have tried it find it a capital way to hunt when the ground is covered with snow.

Minor Mention

E. R. Adams had business in Norfolk today.

Farmers of this community are making considerable improvements in buildings judging from the amount of lumber being hauled out.

While it is unpleasant underfoot with the great amount of slush and water, the present conditions can but result in great benefit in the way of getting the ground in condition to produce.

Mrs. R. Saunders received word Monday of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. C. C. Seward, at Green City, Mo. The word came from Mrs. Saunders' mother, Mrs. G. W. Meals of Lompoc, California, who now is at Green City, and who will return to California via of O'Neill for a visit with her daughter and family.

Lincoln Star: Norris U. Bowen this morning tossed a little bomb of surprise into the divorce proceedings between himself and wife. He said she was seeking a decree for no other purpose than to marry a man named Coleman. No further identification than the name is given in the amended answer filed by Bowen. The husband has the children. One of them is the daughter Helen, whom he took from the mothers' home last Saturday. Yesterday Mrs. Laura B. Bowen asked the court for an order to command the husband to produce the baby, since she said he was unfit to care for a 5-year-old child that needed its mother. In his amended answer today Bowen says he has the girl and the boy and that he should keep them. He says the mother is an improper person for their custody. It is in support of this allegation that he says his wife wilfully deserted his home last September. It is her intention, he avers, to marry if she gets the necessary liberty in a decree for divorce. He asks that the children be declared his own without restriction.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by P. C. Corrigan.
