

Ayer's

Your doctor will tell you that thin, pale, weak, nervous children become strong and well by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Small doses, for a few days.

Sarsaparilla

The change is very prompt and very marked. Ask your doctor why it is. He has our formula and will explain.

"When 12 years old, for many months no one thought I could live because of thin blood. But, in a few weeks, Ayer's Sarsaparilla completely restored me to health."
Mrs. E. BUCKMINSTER, Vineland, N. J.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

The Children

Biliousness, constipation prevent recovery. Cure these with Ayer's Pills.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boeche's German Syrup would put a stop to it once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and re-freshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. At all druggists.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by P. C. Corrigan, Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

STUART
There is some talk of getting a series of literary and musical entertainments in Stuart in the dim future.

The M. W. A. of Stuart gave a lodge social Tuesday evening to a large number of guests in the banquet hall. An elegant supper was served at Mrs. Lemunyan's.

The new town board held their first meeting at the town hall Tuesday evening. A druggist's permit was granted to R. E. Chittick. The matter of granting saloon licenses was postponed indefinitely.

Maud Baley was in Stuart Sunday. Miss Bailey is a Stuart girl who has demonstrated what diligence, economy and labor can do. She has taught school at Atkinson this year, making a record for herself as a teacher, and at the same time has conducted a successful millinery store. Miss Bailey's Stuart friends are glad to learn of her success.—The Ledger.

ATKINSON.
George Sturdevant graduated with high honors at the dental college at Omaha last Friday and received his diploma.

Mrs. Thos. Richard departed for Sac City, Iowa, Thursday morning, having received the sad news that her father was very sick.

Julius John of Hammond was in Atkinson Wednesday and took out 1000 jack pines, which he intends to set out on his ranch for a wind break.

Mose Campbell has laid a cement sidewalk in front of his residence property, which very much improves the appearance of that part of town.

The family of M. Gus arrived from Chicago Wednesday, and will take up their abode on a farm Mr. Gus purchased a short time ago, a mile from town.

John Torpy received the sad news of the death of his nephew, Wm. Powers, of Bellwood, Neb. He and his wife departed for there Wednesday morning to attend the funeral.

B. E. Sturdevant returned from the state Woodmen meeting at Columbus, Wednesday. Mr. Sturdevant was elected one of the state delegates from this district to the Head Camp, which convenes at Milwaukee, Wis., June 20, 1905.—The Graphic.

EWING.

Ogda Wood left Wednesday morning for Tipton, Iowa, where he will join a traveling troupe and play in the orchestra.

The nine hundred pound fire bell was hauled near the power house yesterday, and will be elevated on a tower in the near future.

Rev. Ritchie of North Bend, and Rev. Dunlap of Orchard, installed Rev. H. B. Tyler as pastor of the U. P. church at Ewing, on Thursday.

A society was organized in Ewing last Monday, to be known as Ewing's Literary association. A regular set of officers were elected, making it a permanent organization. Its object will be to procure a course of entertainments to be held in Ewing during the season of 1905 and 1906.

A son of James Leahy received a painful injury on Tuesday, while turning a separator. His shirt sleeve was caught in the cogs while the machine was running at full speed, his arm drawn in and nearly all the flesh torn off from the elbow to the hand. The machine had to be broken before he could be released. Medical aid was procured as soon as the boy could be brought to town, and from the last reports he was doing as well as could be expected.—The Advocate.

FOR BOTH

One disease of thinness in children is scrofula; in adults, consumption. Both have poor blood; both need more fat. These diseases thrive on leanness. Fat is the best means of overcoming them; cod liver oil makes the best and healthiest fat and is the easiest and most effective form of cod liver oil. Here's a natural order of things that shows why Scott's Emulsion is of so much value in all cases of scrofula and consumption. More fat, more weight, more nourishment, that's why.

A Continual Strain

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy body functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

A Poor Recipe.

"Don't talk to me about the recipes in that magazine," said Mrs. Lane, with great energy. "Wasn't that the very magazine that advised me to put on that sooty solution and leave the tablecloth out overnight to take off those yellow stains?"
"I'm inclined to think it may have been," said Mrs. Lane's sister, with due meekness. "I sent you a number of them in the spring, I remember."
"Well, and what happened?" asked Mrs. Lane, with rising wrath.
"Didn't the stains disappear?" asked her sister.
"Disappeared!" said Mrs. Lane in a withering tone. "It was the tablecloth that disappeared. I don't know anything about the stains."

TEACHING THE HORSE.

Will Learn Anything His Muscles Can Perform.

Expert horsemen believe that a horse can be taught to do anything that it is possible for an animal so formed and to be utterly fearless. Thus we know of horses rushing into battle with a fearlessness that is magnificent, although in the beginning of their lives they may have been foolishly timid, shying at everything unusual that happened to be seen in their travels.

In order to teach a horse fearlessness he must be accustomed to all sorts of sights and sounds. He must come to know that because something that he sees or hears is unusual it does not follow that it is harmful, for it is the unusual things that frighten him. The horse is an animal of one idea at a time and is not able to discriminate, so say the men who have made a study of the horse. While he will travel along quietly close by the roar of a train, he may tremble at the flutter of a piece of loose paper flying in the wind. It is not the frightfulness of the object that seems to alarm him, but the unfamiliarity of it. Horse trainers say that the mistakes made in "breaking" and training a colt is that it is too often done in the seclusion of some country road instead of amid the sights and sounds that the animal must necessarily become familiar with later.

As soon as the horse becomes familiar with anything and has learned to believe that it will not hurt him he will stand quietly or trot along peacefully, even though all sorts of noises and queer sights are about him. Thus the artillery horse will stand amid the roar of cannons, being used to the noise and not knowing that the sound predicts anguish and death. It is well to accustom a horse to unusual sounds as soon as possible after he is trained for riding or driving. It renders him safe and docile, even though he be a spirited animal. A certain trainer of horses said that an ideal school for horses would contain thrashing machines, pile drivers, steam drills, electric, steam and elevated cars, a band of martial music and a gang of quarrymen blasting rock. A horse that was drilled among such a bedlam as this would indeed prove immune to strange noises. The gentle family horse, petted by man and child, is not always trained to all this, yet he often makes a useful and faithful animal, loved by his owner and evidently making some return of affection.—Detroit Tribune.

COMPENSATION.

All Things Are to Be Had if One Will But Pay the Equivalent.

Life consists almost wholly of buying, selling, paying. There are no gifts, nothing that does not call for an equivalent. If we cannot pay for gifts in kind we must pay in gratitude or service or we shall rank as moral bankrupts.

If I would have a good situation I must pay for it not only in labor, but in promptness, intelligence, faithfulness and good manners. If I would have good service I must pay not only in money, but in consideration, recognition, appreciation, fairness. I can hold no one to me if I misuse him.

All things are to be had for the buying. Would you have friends? Then pay the price. The price of friendship is to be worthy of friendship. The price of glory is to do something glorious. The price of shame is to do something shameful.

Friendship, glory, honor, admiration, courage, infamy, contempt, hatred, art all in the market place for sale at a price. We are buying and selling these things constantly as we will. Even beauty is for sale. Plain women can gain beauty by cultivating grace, animation, pleasant speech, intelligence, helpfulness, courage or good will. Beauty is not in the features alone; it is in the soul also.

Good will buys good will, friendliness buys friendship, confidence buys confidence, service rewards service, and hate pays for hate, suspicion for suspicion, treachery for treachery, contempt for ingratitude, slovenliness, laziness and lying.

We plant a shrub, a rosebush, an orchard, with the expectation that they will pay us back. We build roads, mend harness and patch the roof with the same expectation. We will trust even these unconscious things to pay their debts.

Some of our investments are good and some are bad. The good qualities we acquire—moderation, industry, courtesy, order, patience, candor—are sound investments. Our evil institutions and habits are bad investments, involving us in losses. We become debtors to them, and they are exacting creditors, forcing payment in full in money and labor and sometimes in blood, agony, tears, humiliation or shame.—From "Balance: The Fundamental Verity," by Orlando J. Smith.

They Were All Right.

He was a typical backwoods farmer. His first visit to a city restaurant, however, had taken away none of the appetite he had at home, where everything was placed in large dishes on the center of the table and each one helped himself. The waiter had piled the food around the plate in the customary little dishes, which the farmer cleaned up in turn. Settling back in his chair, he hailed the passing waiter:
"Hey, there, young man! Your samples are all right. Bring on the rest of the stuff."—Judge.

A watch's variation.

As to the sympathetic vagaries of watches a correspondent writes: "I discovered some years ago that it was the metal buckle of my braces that caused the irregularities of my own particular watch. I therefore now make a rule of putting my spectacle case on the inside of my watch pocket, thus cutting off the connection."—London Chronicle.

ASPARAGUS
A sparagus is so easily grown and such a large quantity is produced on a small amount of ground that every grandpa should contain y bed. A bed 10 foot square requiring 50 plants will give an abundant supply of an ordinary family. April and May is the best time to plant. We have the largest and best flavored variety.

DELICIOUS STRAWBERRIES

Most everybody likes strawberries and they are the most easily grown of any kind of fruit, as well as the most healthful and delicious and they bear a full crop of fruit the next year after planting. From 300 to 500 plants make a good sized bed planted one foot by three feet. We have the biggest self-fertilizing kinds.

SWEET PRUNE PLUM

September 1, 1903, three bushels of plums were picked from one five year old tree in E. D. Hammond's orchard of Sweet Prune plums. The tree commenced to bear two years after planting and is bearing every year. It is the only Prune Plum that has been a success with me and I have tried many kinds. It stood the dry years, 1893 and 1894, and the hard winter of 1899 and bore fruit the following season. It is a grand success for North-
