hair food. It feeds, nourishes. The hair stops falling, grows long and heavy, and all dandruff disappears.

My hair was coming out terribly. I was almost afraid to comb it. But Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly stopped the falling, and also restored the natural color.

for

Poor Hair

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Bochee's German Syrup would put a stop to it once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and re-freshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. At all druggists.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at P. C. Corrigan's drug store.

A Continual Strain

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy body functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Some people seem overly anxious to know what our name really is. Now the fact is we are not ashamed of our name; it's a very good name, being presented to us a good many years ago by our "other half;" neither are we ashamed of the products of our pen. But if it is to gratify vulgar curiosity which prompts folks to be inquisitive we beg to be excused from gratifying the same. If it is kindly interest in our behalf, we will point those interested to our editor who if he deems it necessary will enlighten the inquirer.

The most enjoyable event of the season occurred on Wednesday evening, June 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hunter of Hainsville, the occasion being the marriage of Kate, their oldest daughter, to Albert Theirolf of Star. Early in the evening the guests began to assemble and were met at the door by Miss Cleda Hunter. The spacious rooms were filled to overflowing. The house was decorated with both cut and potted plants. At about 8:30 o'clock the strains of the wedding march sounded, the organ being presided over by Miss Mamie Peterson. All eyes were turned toward the stair door and were soon rewarded by seeing the bride and groom, with Mr. Ona Theirolf as best man and Miss Morna Wertz as bridesmaid, appear and march to the large double doors connecting the dining room and parlor. The bride was dressed in pure white trimmed in lace and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. The groom wore the usual black suit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Rosencrans of Dorsey. After the two were made one, a two course supper was served, 104 people being present. Dancing was indulged until the wee small hours of morning. The presents were numerous and costly. Those present from a distance were: Mrs. Joseph Moffett, of Iowa, Mrs. Roy Townsend, O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Downey, O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Osborn, Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Gross and family of Ruth, Howard McFarland, Dorsey, Mr. and Evens and family, Mr. and Mrs. Powell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry, of Minneola. The bride has been raised to womanhood in this vicinity and is a poplar and accomplished young lady. The groom is the son of H. Theirolf of Star ranch and is well known as a young man of moral habits and good business ability. They will make their home 4 mile north of Star postoffice. A partial list of presents is as follows: 2 rocking chairs, 1 center table, 1 rug, 2 lamps, 1 bed spread, 1 pr. pillowshams, 2 table cloths, 2 dozen napkins, 2 dozen tea spoons, 1 dozen silver knives and forks, 5 center sets, 1 pair vases, 1 berry set, 5 or 6 cake plates, 3 fruit dishes, 1 table cover and other things too numerous to mention. The well wishes of the whole community go with them.

CHAMBERS

Jacob Walters and wife left Tuesday, for Morden, Manitoba, to visit their son and old home.

Tuesday Z. Prothero, the cream hauler for the Amelia creamery, had to take two wagons to haul all the cream collected, to Amelia. Another route has been established running east and west just north of the Southfork, Charles Martin, hauler. Another route has been started from the southwest, Clark Hough, hauler.

A happy company of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Charles Scherier, in Harold, on Tuesday last, the event being a birthday party given for his his mother. An impromptu program was arranged and rendered, which added much to the enjoyment of all present. It only needed the abundance abundance of good things which were provided to eat to cause each one who had the pleasure of being present to declare that Charley and sister, Miss Nettie, were royal entertainers, and sincerely wish for Mrs. Scherier a long continuance of happy birthdays.—The Bugle

ATKINSON.

Ed Kilmury is at Omaha this week in attendance at the undertakers convention.

Mrs. A. C. Crossman left for Iowa City Monday morning to be in attendance at the graduation of Mr. Crossman's niece.

W. H. Hendrix and wife departed for David City, on Wednesday, in response to a telegram notifying them of the death of Mrs. Hendrix' brother, Joseph Cooper.

Mrs. Nancy Titus of Papillion, Sarpy county, Neb., daughter of S. J. Stites, was up visiting with her mother and other relatives after an absence of seventeen years. Mrs. Titus expressed herself as being well pleased with this country and the good time she enjoyed while here on her visit. She thinks that her husband and herself will locate in this part of the country this fall.

On Tuesday afternoon while George Shiffler was on his road home southwest of Ewing, in some manner his team upset his wagon throwing the box on him, breaking three of his ribs and otherwise injuring him. He was brought to town by W. C. Townsend and Ralph Butler, who took him to C. O. Seder's hotel, where he was cared for. It has only been a few years since the old gentleman had his leg broken, and being in the seventies, this accident will no doubt cause him to be confined to his bed for some time.—The Advocate.
