The Ideal Editor.

You hear talk of the "ideal newspaper." It is, says an exchange, like the flower that never withers, the bird that never alights, the land where sunlight never fades-it only exists in the imagination of the sucker whom we are told the elements consume. Writing from the standpoint of a country editor, if you have ever been in his shoes you know he is the repository of the secrets of the community, none of which he has ever divulged. He must publish a paper chuck full of local news whether anything happens or not. His judicial mind must be far superior to the district judge and give him pointers in instructing the jury. He must discourse with equal fluency upon the trust question and Farmer Jones' Jersey calf, china painting and polandchina hogs, preserved peaches and the perseverance of saints, foreign wars and local strikes, justification by faith and justification by type, the doctrine of election, the election returns, the doings of the last synod and the details of prize fights. The receipts of church socials and the squabble in the town council must be equally familiar to the versatile mind.

With all this he must wait on the delinquent subscribers, discount the patent medicine fakes, stand off his wash bill, always go well dressed, pay his printer on Saturday night, whether a cent has come in or not: write free puffs, teach the city administration how to run the city and be content with $2 a year for printing the proceedings when it is worth $250; never ask for any honors, but help others to get them; boom the local statesman who owes three years' subscription-in short be all things to all men, make no mistake in dates, take the cussings of the community and never cuss back. This is the ideal editor and his paper is a daisy. We never saw one.

Slow Up, or Before You Know It You May Be Off the Track. The limited goes sixty miles an hour.

In the smoker men joke and play cards and tell risque stories. The day coaches are crowded and comfortless. The heavy sleepers as they sway to and fro make only a gentle rocking for the people who chat and read and nap. Crash! Engine and cars and flesh and blood are ground up together in a shapeless, horrid mass. Off the track! So goes humanity's train. Here is a boy who got to running on a fast schedule. He began by pilfering from his father's till. As he grew older he made faster time. Down grade he goes, and soon comes the crash. Newsboys cry a murder and a suicide. The crowd halts for a moment. His friends murmur, "I never thought he was so bad!" A young man is off the track! A young girl thinks her mother is too slow for these record breaking times. Mother is "old fashioned." The girl goes to places her mother has warned her she should not frequent. The bloom is brushed from the fruit. • • • One day a brazen, drunken creature, cursing and shricking, is loaded into the patrol wagon. A woman is off the track!

A man gets in a hurry to be rich. His father went slowly, carefully, successfully. But father's methods will not do. What's the use of moiling and toiling when a quicker way may well do the business? So-and-se has speculated successfully. Surely I am as labrewd as he. • • • A pistol shot. A in is off the track!
