In the Gentleman's magazine, an old English publication, for 1750, appears the following: "On Wed. 29 (August) at seven in the morning was decided at Newmarket a remarkable wager for 1,000 guineas ($5,000) laid by Theobald Taaf, esq., against the Earl of March and Lord Egilpton, who were to provide Taaf, esq., against the Earl of March and Lord Eglinton, who were to provide a 4 wheel carriage with a man in it to be drawn by 4 horses 19 miles an hour; it was performed in 53 minutes and 27 seconds." Each of the horses was ridden by a jockey, and only harnessed to the carriage by loose straps. Between the hind wheels sat another jockey who guided the carriage by moving who guided the carriage by moving handle like that of the modern bi-

Ting Chien Chen and Ying Hysing Wen are the names of two Chinese who have entered West Point. There are thirty-six military schools in China, and from these particularly intelligent students have been selected to study the art of war in the military schools of the principal nations of the world. Three thousand are studying in Japan. In order to permit these Chinese studying at West Point congress had to pass a law, which it did at the recommendation of the president and the request of to law, which it did at the recommendation of the president and the request of the Chinese government. Dr. William Osler recently recited a quaint cure for gout. "First pick a handkerchief from the pocket of a spinster who never wished to wed; second, wash the handkerchief in an honest miller's pond; third, dry it on the hedge of a person who never was covetous; fourth, send it to the shop of a physician who never killed a patient; fifth, mark it with a lawyer's ink who hever cheated a client, and, sixth, apply it, hot, to the gout-tormented part. A speedy cure must follow."

Persons who live in the smaller cities are used to seeing conductors of trolley cars flag railroad crossings, but the sight is unusual in New York. There are only regular flagmen. They are at Broadway and Seventh avenue on Fifty-third street, through which a car runs occasionally from Sixth to Ninth avenue. At these points the conductor runs ahead of his car in truly rural style.

Samples of the papaya, or Mexican pawpaw, have been sent to American paper makers to be tested for its adaptability for the manufacture of high grades of paper. To judge from its appearance, it seems probable that no decorticating machinery would be required in its treatment, as the fibrous material is devoid of woody elements to all appearances.

Plattsmouth, Neb., Aug. 30.—Friday evening, while the crowds on the streets were enjoying the carnival, Mrs. S. L. Downing of Mills county, Ia., who has for some time been in search of her 17-year-old daughter, who recently eloped with an old man named Hiram Smith, finally ran onto the couple near the minstrel show tent, at the foot of Main street, and a little scene followed. The mother of the girl has from the first been opposed to the girl marrying Smith, who is over 50 years old, and when she met him Friday there was an endless flow of angry words and a stern command for Smith to make himself scarce or she would call the rolling self scarce or she would call the police to the scene. The young lady and her lover tried to explain and argued with the woman for some time, but this only increased the mother's anger. She wanted her daughter to return home. wanted her daughter to return home, and this the girl finally consented to and this the girl many consented to do after securing her mother's promise that no effort would be made to prosecute Smith.

The couple claimed that they had not be a supply talked a show eloped, but had merely joined a show troupe. Mrs. Downing and daughter eft for home Saturday.
