Gustavus Nordin, a Swede, has just made a trip from Stockholm to Paris in a tiny cance. He arrived in first class condition. The hardy Norseman says that he was originally a confectioner, but, having injured his digestion by sweetstuffs and pastry, he resolved to nourish himself on bread, fruit, milk and honey. He first tried raw vege-tables but they did not agree with him. His principal sustemance for the last three years has consisted of apples, nuts, almonds, figs and bread, with wa-ter, milk and honey. He started out from Stockholm in August.

The first man to stereotype a news-paper was Charles Craske, formerly of St. Marks avenue, who died the other day in Woodbridge, N. J., at the age of eighty-three. He did this great thing in 1852, at the suggestion of Horace Greeley, and the result, of course, was a great though gradual change in newspaper printing, for it was years before it was the general practice. Mr. Craske had carried on the craft of stereotyping and electrotyping in New York for more than fifty years, his company being in Pearl street.

A great revolution seems to be taking place in the West End of London. Rich place in the West End of London. Rich people are gradually giving up their houses. Prices, which ruled abnormal-ly high a few years ago, have gone down considerably, until a perfect slump reigns in the estate agencies. Owing to the unrest which pervades all society, people never settle any-where now.

What becomes of the 300,000,000 tons What becomes of the 300,000,000 tons of coal a year now produced in the United States? Railroads, iron and steel mills and manufactories are the largest consumers. The annual coal bill of the Pennsylvania railroad sys-tem is $18,000,000. The domestic demand increases every year. Coke calls for 40,000,000 tons of coal this year.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 15 .- The Rev. Geo. G. Ware, of Lead, S. D., must stand trial on a charge of conspiring with Frank Lambert and Harry Welch to defraud the government out of the public lands situated in Hooker county, Nebraska Judge Munger overruled the motion to quash the indictments brought against Ware, and the government rep-resented by Special District Attorney S. R. Rush, gained first blood in what promises to be one of the most inter-esting and important cases ever heard in the United States court in this city. Not a point of the motion to quash, made in behalf of Mr. Ware, was sus-tained by Judge Munger. The expected plea of abatement by Ware was not presented and Attorney Mahoney announced that his client, Mr. Ware, desired to enter a plea of not guilty to each and every count in the two indictments. Mr. Rush moved to consolidate the two indictments, which was done, and the court ordered the jury drawn.

While Mr. Ware is busy with his troubles in the federal court he has also to face a backfire at Lead, S. D., where his pulpit is said to be endangered as a result of the indictments against him. Many prominent members of Mr. Ware's church are urging his dismissal, saving that the indictments, whether or not they result in conviction, have made it impossible for him to retain his charge. Up to the present time, how-ever, Mr. Ware has proved too strong for his enemies.

WON'T TAKE CARDS.

Western Federation of Miners Turner Down by United Workers!

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—The con-vention of the United Mine Workers of America today continued consideration of resolutions. One of the most imor resolutions. One of the most im-portant taken up was a resolution fa-voring the acceptance of transfer cards from Western Federation miners in lieu of an initiation fee. It was claimed on behalf of the reso-lution that the refusal of the United Mine Workers to accent cards of West-

Mine Workers to accept cards of Westem Federation men worked great hard-ship to western miners on account of the frequency with which they changed camps. One of those to support the resolution was Delegate Germer of Iowa

The proposition to accept the cards of the Western Federation miners was lost by a decisive vote.

Richard Carle Wins $4,000 at Roulette

in Three Days. New York, Jan. 20.-Richard Carle, an actor, whose company closed its engage-ment here last week, took away with him something more substantial than merely pleasant memories of Broadway in the shape of $4,000 won at roulette, which he played in O'Brien's gampling house, in Thirty-sixth street, a few doors east of Sixth avenue. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday he watched the ball go 'round, and when he left the place he was never less than $1,000 winner. eH used no system. When he showed any partiality in his play it was usually in favor of Nos. 28, 11 and 17, with with a parting bet each day on No. 23. Red was his favorite color, and it "turned up" for him with surprising regularity.
