

NEW GOODS

Yes, our new Spring Goods have arrived, and shelves, floor and counters are loaded with new goods. Our lines this year far surpass any previous year's goods. They are by far more stylish, prettier colors and nicer materials. We have a line of Gingham this season that will speak for themselves. To see them is to buy them, for they consist of good patterns and a large assortment to select from. Among the new Dress Goods are the following:

FANCY AND PLAIN SILK SUITINGS, POPLIN CLOTH, SERGE, NOVELTY SUITINGS, WOOL BASTISTE, FANCY MOHAIRS, GREY SUITINGS, 2,000 yds NEW GINGHAMS, CHAMBRAYS, CALICO, MUSLIN AND NEW UNDERWEAR OF ALL KINDS.

Our line of shirt waists is better than ever before, consisting of the latest styles issued by Dame Fashion. New silk under skirts, all colors; dress skirts, ladies' spring cravenette coats. Our line of muslin underwear defies competition in any way, every garment of it is new as we carried over none from last year. In Novelties we have a very well selected line of collars, fancy ribbons, belts, hand bags, dress trimmings and buttons, side and back combs, shirt waist sets, etc. We have added a line of new rugs to our stock and have some good patterns. Come in and see our goods. WE WILL BE PLEASED TO SHOW THEM TO YOU.

Coleridge Blade: Thomas Fleener of O'Neill arrived last Monday at the home of Isaac Fleener. He is visiting his relatives around and in Coleridge. He leaves for his home tomorrow.

W. F. Ford, living three miles southeast of Inman, was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday. The price of hogs on the O'Neill market, $5.60, induced him to come up again Wednesday, when he brought a load of hogs.

Judge Malene tell us that he is informed from Washington that a bill providing his mother a widow's pension has been favorably reported on. When allowed the pension will date back some three years.

E. S. Gilmour was at Ewing over Sunday. E. S. says its getting rather monotonous to be without a home at home and he will eliminate the weekly trips to Ewing as soon as he can get a place here to locate his family.

T. V. Golden, J. F. O'Donnell, J. F. Dishner, A. F. Mullen, Dr. Flynn, J. A. Donohoe and Rev. Father Cassidy are a party of O'Neill Knights of Columbus who went to Des Moines, Ia., Tuesday to take the fourth degree of the order.

Elliott Thompson came up from Omaha to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Cain, which occurred last Saturday. Mr. Thompson moved to Omaha eight years ago and had not been back since until called here on a sad and unexpected mission.

Mrs. Dykeman, an old lady living in the vicinity of the convent, met with an accident Saturday last whereby she sustained a broken rib. She was standing in front of a horse and buggy when the horse moved forward and the end of a thill struck her in the side.

D. Clem Deaver was in town Monday, having come in from the west that morning. Mr. Deaver is visiting the various government land offices in the state securing the numbers of land open for homestead entry, the same to be used in connection with the information bureau recently opened in Omaha by the Burlington railroad.

Col. Neil Brennan's name has been mentioned in connection with the mayor's office and his friends would like to see him a candidate at the coming spring election. Col. Brennan has been identified with the city's business interests continuously for a longer period than any other business man in town and he has always taken a personal pride and interest in the town's development and he no doubt would manifest the same interest in an official capacity.

Wanted—To rent, a farm of one section or more having at least 125 acres of farm land. Give all particulars in first letter as to buildings, water, pasture, hay and school facilities. Address, J. Dickinson, Amelia, Neb. 35-1

William E. Younkin and wife arrived in the city Saturday last from Marceline, Mo., for a visit at the home of Mr. Younkin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Younkin. Mr. Younkin is employed in the office of the Santa Fe railroad at Marceline. He returned home Monday, his wife remaining for a more extended visit.

Henry Howard, the efficient court-house janitor, went to Page Monday, leaving Bert Harding in charge of the janitor work. Henry's continued absence for several days creates a suspicion in the minds of some of the force about the court-house that there is something of more than ordinary importance keeping him away. Bert has made himself a good fellow by scrubbing the hallway and staircases.

This item from Atkinson appeared in the Norfolk News Monday: Charles Johnson, a young man working ten miles in the country, started to town yesterday morning on foot and became ill en route. He finally became so seriously afflicted that he fell by the roadside and might have died there but for the timely arrival of Mrs. Nightingale, who, with her son, drove into town by that road, which is one not much used. The young man is a member of the M. W. A. here and has no relatives near. The lodge is caring for him and he is now improving. He was in great distress when picked up from the road.

The members of the O'Neill W. C. T. U. were most pleasantly entertained by Mrs. L. C. Champman at her home on the afternoon of Feb. 14th. The subject consider was mercy and relief under the leadership of Mrs. Howe, superintendent of the department. A good, instructive program was carried out. Short sketches from noted writers were read. Also a paper by Mrs. Kelley on the work of mercy and relief by the church. This was followed by a general discussion of the local needs along this line. It was the expression of the members of the union that the meetings are beneficial in arousing thought which must ultimately be productive of good results.

Lynch Journal: William Taylor was taken to Butte Wednesday evening and brought before the board and adjudged a fit subject for the inebriate asylum and was taken to Lincoln yesterday morning. It is sad to see one so young having to be dealt with thus but it is far better for him and would be a Godsent to a number of other youths in our land if they were dealt with thus.

The ice season at the Gatz packing house ended in a strike last Saturday. Trouble arose between the men and the boss, the former finally undertaking to block further operations by going on a strike. They took possession of the ice house to prevent the teamsters from putting the ice in the building. This raised the ice of Mrs. Gatz, who had been acting as paymaster, and she appeared on the scene with a sixshooter and threatened to clean out the whole bunch. Nobody had to dodge bullets, however, and Mr. Gatz now has his ice safely packed away.

The following were taken into the local order of the Knights of Columbus at the initiation last Sunday: Thomas F. Nolan, Arthur F. Menish, George M. Berry, James F. Coday, Arthur J. Kane of Chadron: The initiatory took place at the court-house at 1 p. m. In the evening a banquet was spread at the opera-house and a number of toasts responded to after adequate treatment of an appetizing menu, the inimical John Harmon acting as toastmaster.

The local markets yesterday were: Hogs, $5.50; corn, 35c; oats, 25c; rye, 42c; wheat, 65c; butter, 18c; eggs, 8c; potatoes, 50c; hay, baled, $3.75 to $4; hay, loose, $2.50 to $3.

Mrs. A. Baker entertained a number of her lady friends last Thursday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent at cards and other amusements and luncheon served.

B. A. Powell was in from Minneola yesterday with hogs for the market, which he sold at $5.65 per hundred. Mr. Powell called and renewed for The Frontier while in town.

The Knights of Columbus are planning to build an opera-house in the near future on the corner opposite Pfund's store. The plans have not yet been fully developed but members of the order say it is a sure go.

There is no use hunting a winter resort when you have spring weather right here at home. The present winter has been the most remarkable in many years, with scarcely a week passing with the ground frozen.

The wife of Charles Shoemaker died Monday after a short illness, at her home in the Dry Creek country. The funeral was held today at the Catholic church in this city, being very largely attended. The Knights of Columbus, of which the deceased's husband is a member, attended in a body and provided some beautiful floral decorations.

Among the improvements for O'Neill in the near future is a new two-story brick 45x60 feet on Douglas street east of the Fidelity bank, between the Cress building and the Poe meat market. Mrs. J. A. Naylor of Thompsonville, Conn., a sister of George Weingartner, who has been here for several months passed, has completed the arrangements here for putting up such a building and expects her husband here soon from Connecticut with the plans for the building, when work will be commenced thereon. Mr. Weingartner, who gives us the information, informs us that the building will be a modern structure with pressed brick and plate glass front and will be finished for a store room below and offices overhead. Mr. Weingartner, who formerly was in the restaurant business here, is now handling real estate. He predicts a bright future for O'Neill. Mr. and Mrs. Naylor will make their home here.
