The Misses Nellie Brown and Maud Clyde are here from Pender, Neb., visiting their parents and friends.

Mrs. Michael Johnson and children of O'Neill, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Brown, last week.

Ira Willey met with a bad accident last week in taking a pistol from his pocket. The weapon was discharged, sending a bullet in his finger.

Mrs. H. A. Rakow started Thursday morning on the passenger train for Lamont, Ia., with two children, for a visit with her mother.—The Reporter.

EWEING

For the good of those suffering with eczema or other such trouble, I wish to say, my wife had something of that kind and after using the doctor's remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything she had tried. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.

ATKINSON

Earl Stilson received a letter from his father at Denver, saying that Mrs. Stilson was improving and they were on their way to Colorado Springs.

R. O. Clifford and Mr. and Mrs. M. Bennett went to Texas the first of the week, with the object of making some investments in real estate.

A trade has been consummated where by J. G. Murphy becomes sole owner of the Atkinson Mills, a division having been made last Tuesday to that effect between him and Frank Rehberg, his partner, Mr. Rehberg getting possession of all the real estate formerly owned by the firm.

Last Monday the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Boettcher met with a serious accident while out in the hay field. He was playing around the stacker and accidentally got his fingers caught in the pulley, severely crushing them. It is thought that two of them will have to be amputated.

Last Monday Mrs. Mose Campbell discovered smoke coming out of the upper story window of W. Dickerson's residence. Upon investigation it was found that the children had set fire to the bed which was nearly consumed when discovered. A few pails of water put a stop to the blaze which would soon have gained a headway and destroyed his home.

Last Monday, the 23d of July, occurred the marriage of Hiram Stearns and Martha Gordon, both of this county. This was intended to be a surprise to their friends so they went to Butte to have the ceremony performed, thus to throw the neighbors off the scent, but it was of no avail; it leaked out and Tuesday night they were treated to an old fashioned charivari. The groom is 64 years of age and the bride is 46 years.

Chas. Baumann returned Monday afternoon from his trip to the Pacific coast. He went there with the intention of investigation, but after due deliberation and looking around in Washington and Oregon he concluded there was nothing to be made. Mr. Baumann says he is perfectly contented to stay, having found no place to compare with this part of Holt county. John Seger, who accompanied him, stopped off in Omaha, but is expected to arrive home tomorrow.—The Graphic.

CHAMBERS

Geo. Herzog's little son, who was kicked by a horse some time ago, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Henry Shaw of O'Neill is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tibbitts, west of town.

Mrs. W. L. Mann, of Kankakee, Ill., arrived today on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. S. Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Fouts have rented the Higgins house and will soon move from O'Neill.

Rev. Gilfill left Tuesday for St. James, Neb., for a weeks visit to his parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Arthur Horan left for her home in Valparaiso Saturday, after a few week's visit with friends and relatives in Chambers and Harold.

Mrs. W. Calkins is so far recovered from her operation that she is able to be out again. Mrs. Calkins is with her sister at Minneapolis.

Miss Janie Trainer left this morning for Sioux City where she was called by a telegram to the bedside of her mother, who is seriously ill in a hospital in that city.—The Bugle.

STUART

Miss Althea Brayton gave an informal 6 o'clock dinner to the following young ladies last evening: Miss Ruth Myers, Newport; Helen Hudspeth, Omaha; Elva Douglas, Bassett; Lena and Charlotte Fike, Omaha; Misses Echo Shank and Maud Planck, Stuart.

The dancing party given Friday evening at the opera house by Miss Echo Shank was one of the most delightful social functions of the season. More than twenty couples were present, including a number from O'Neill, Atkinson, Newport and Bassett. An orchestra from Atkinson furnished the music, and at midnight a pretty luncheon was served at the home of Miss Shank, who received many compliments as princess of entertainers.

The McGrew-Poindexter case that was tried in Justice Isenhart's court Saturday was a long-drawn out affair, the court adjourning several days and sitting in session till late at night. County Attorney Mullen represented Mr. Poindexter and Attorney Donohue Mr. McGrew. The case was one of forcible detention, Mr. McGrew bringing suit against the defendant for not fulfilling his contract, after signing a contract to cultivate the McGrew farm. Mr. McGrew won his case. The case will be carried up to the district court.—The Ledger.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.
