

THE G. O. P. CONVENTION

Gathering Names Ticket and Selects Delegations.

ADOPT ROOSEVELTIAN PLATFORM

Kinkaid Endorsed for Congress and Gilligan for State Senator, Each to Select Delegates.

The Ticket.

For county attorney, W. E. Scott of Atkinson For representatives, S. W. Green of Ewing and D. M. Stuart of Stuart.

Platform and Resolutions.

We, the republicans of Holt county, in convention assembled, heartily and cordially endorse the administration of President Roosevelt, and we commend him as a fearless champion of the welfare of the people. He has, without fear or favor, uncovered and punished those guilty of malfeasance in public service; he has fearlessly assailed the violators of the federal statute; he has promoted friendly relations with the other nations of the earth and gained for us the front rank in the world's diplomacy; he has encouraged wise and helpful legislation, has shown his determination to continue to promote the protection of home industries, commercial expansion and other national policies that have helped the American people enjoy prosperity and progress without parallel in the annals of national development.

We are in hearty sympathy with the great battle being fought by the republican party in behalf of the people against the evils of rebating, favoritism and discrimination in interstate commerce.

We are in favor of the proper state legislation for protecting the people of the state against like evils within the state in interstate commerce.

We favor the enactment of a law electing United States senators by a direct vote of the people, and until such law is enacted we favor the nomination of a candidate for United States senator by the state convention and instruct the delegates to the state convention to vote for the nomination of a candidate for United States senator.

We endorse the national anti-pass law as enacted by congress and favor the passage of a similar law by the legislature of the state.

We favor the constitutional amendment providing for the election of three railroad commissioners by the people and that the legislature confer upon them the power to prohibit rebates and discriminations of all kinds in passenger and freight traffic.

We heartily endorse Hon. M. P. Kinkaid, our present congressman, and for his able and efficient services in congress we commend him to the people of the Sixth congressional district for reelection and authorize him to select the delegates from this county to the congressional convention of this district and that the delegates so selected be the accredited delegates of that convention.

For the able services rendered to the people of the Thirteenth senatorial district by Senator John P. Gilligan in the last legislature, we heartily recommend him to the people of this senatorial district as his own successor and authorize him to select the delegates to the senatorial convention of this district, and that the delegates so selected by him be the accredited delegates to that convention.

We endorse the able and business administration of our present republican state legislature and county officials.

We condemn the Union Pacific and Burlington railroads for their refusal to pay their taxes and endorse the action of the legal department of the state in their efforts to force collection.

We call the attention of the tax payers of the county to the facial and pretended prosecution of bank wreckers by the present county attorney and believe that his refusal to prosecute such criminals should be condemned by all honest and law abiding citizens of this county, and we pledge the nominee of this convention for the office of county attorney to make a vigorous prosecution of such bank wreckers, embezzlers and forgers, as the present incumbent has failed to do so, and we further pledge him to a strict enforcement of the criminal laws of the state.

Work of the Convention.

The republican county convention held at the court house last Saturday was one of the most harmonious and enthusiastic ever held in the county. On account of the funeral of Miss Kate Mann, the convention did not meet until 11:45 a. m., when the temporary organization was perfected by selecting Dr. J. L. McDonald of Atkinson chairman and W. N. Coats of Stuart as secretary. Upon motion the following committees were then appointed:

Credentials, W. E. Scott, G. H. Benson, J. N. Sturdevant; permanent organization, J. A. Wood, R. J. Marsh and R. E. Chittick; order of business, L. E. Skidmore, J. Kraft, F. Kiernon; platform and resolutions, R. R. Dickson, D. H. Cronin, Dell Akin, F. D. Smith, G. H. Benson, C. D. Keyes, R. A. Haskin.

The convention then adjourned until 1 o'clock.

After reconvening the report of the committee on credentials was received and adopted. The committee on permanent organization reported that the temporary organization be made permanent, which report was adopted.

The order of business as outlined in the call was adopted as the order of business of the convention.

The convention took occasion to express appreciation of the services of F. W. Phillips as chairman of the county central committee the past two years. Upon motion Mr. Phillips was unanimously reelected as chairman of the committee and authorized to select a secretary. The following were announced as the county committee:

Atkinson, Dell Akin; Chambers, W. Grimes; Cleveland, —; Conley, Will Calkins; Deloit, Ernest Craker; Dustin, —; Emmet, A. C. Purnell; Ewing, E. L. Davies; Fairview, —; Francis, L. Grustead; Grattan, M. F. Cronin; Green Valley, —; Inman, George Davis; Iowa, —; Lake, —; McClure, —; Paddock, E. J. Longworth; Pleasantview, —; Rock Falls, C. O. Wilkerson; Sand Creek, Victor Johnson; Saratoga, —; Scott, John Carson; Sheridan, W. T. Hays; Sheridan, Thomas Simonson; Steel Creek, C. F. Mackalner; Stuart, W. N. Coats; Swan, —; Verdigrée, C. W. Deuel; Willowdale, C. W. Tullis; Wyoming, O. C. Samons; O'Neill—1st ward, Dr. E. T. Wilson; 2d ward, R. J. Marsh; 3d ward, R. H. Mills.

Nominations for county attorney being then in order, J. M. Hunter of Willowdale presented the name of R. R. Dickson before the convention and insisted on the convention nominating him whether he wanted it or not. The applause which greeted the mention of Mr. Dickson's name was sufficient evidence that the convention to a man was for his nomination. Mr. Dickson took the floor and while thanking the delegates for their expression of good will said it was impossible for him to accept the nomination. It was then, upon motion, decided to take an informal ballot for a candidate for county attorney by call of townships. This was done and W. E. Scott of Atkinson having received a majority of the votes cast, the ballot was declared formal and Mr. Scott was the nominee of the convention.

S. W. Green of Ewing and D. M. Stuart of Stuart were then placed in nomination for representatives by acclamation, there being no other candidates.

A committee consisting of C. E. Hall, F. L. Barclay, Dell Akin, L. E. Skidmore, G. H. Benson, R. J. Marsh, and E. Brady were appointed to select a list of twelve delegates to attend the state convention. The list as reported and accepted by the convention was as follows:

Dell Akin, chairman, C. E. Hall, S. J. Weekes, Dr. Gilligan, J. Rocke, B. E. Sturdevant, J. F. Brady, John Sturdevant, F. L. Barclay, L. P. Sornson, O. O. Snyder.

Congressman Kinkaid selected the following as the congressional delegation: Jacob Rocke, D. H. Cronin, B. E. Sturdevant, F. L. Barclay, Dell Akin, G. H. Benson, O. O. Snyder, J. F. Brady, S. J. Weekes, J. M. Hunter, R. R. Dickson and Dr. Gilligan.

Andy's mother lives in Seattle, her husband being in Alaska, where the family expected to move but could not do so on account of Andy's health.

FUNERAL OF MISS MANN

Held Last Saturday and Was Largely Attended By Sowering Friends.

Catherine C. Mann, whose death occurred on August 16, was born in the state of Illinois on June 16, 1859. She was thus forty-seven years, two months and four days old at the time of her death. For nearly a quarter of a century Miss Mann was one of the most prominent and highly esteemed women of this community. The family came to this city from Wisconsin in 1884 and probably have as wide a circle of acquaintances as any family in the county. During the early years of the deceased's residence in the city she was a teacher in the O'Neill schools. The writer was then a school boy and received some of his first lessons in school discipline and instruction in the rudiments of learning from Miss Mann, who had the confidence and esteem of every pupil in her room. As a teacher she had marked success and had she followed that profession would no doubt have risen to prominence in educational work.

She resigned her position in the O'Neill schools to take up a business career. In this she also achieved a marked success. For the past eighteen or twenty years she had been engaged in the mercantile business, and had been associated with her brothers, J. P. and Joe Mann, in the mercantile business here and at Spencer and Atkinson. For several years passed she had been in active management of the general store of J. P. Mann & Co. in O'Neill.

She was always regarded as a woman of strict integrity and was held in the highest esteem by those who had business dealings or social intercourse with her. The funeral was held Saturday morning at the Catholic church, a requiem mass being celebrated by Very Rev. Father Cassidy, who spoke feelingly of the life and peaceful death of the deceased, and her confidence in God, who, if pleased to call her from this world, she was ready and willing to go, exemplifying the great faith of the Christian under all circumstances and in which even death has no terrors.

The large concourse of people that assembled to pay her tribute was an excellent testimonial of the very high regard in which she was held. The stores were all closed during the funeral. The pall bearers were J. P. Gallagher, P. J. McManus, John Melvin, Peter Ward, Daniel Ward, Arthur Duffy; while Edward and Donald Gallagher, nephews of the deceased, acted as flower bearers.

Capt. Walker arrived in the city Monday from Tennessee where he has been in the soldiers' home for several months. The captain says they have a beautiful place for the old soldiers in the mountains near Johnson. He will remain in O'Neill for a few weeks and expects later to go to the soldiers home at Hot Springs, S. D.

An O'Neill party consisting of Judge Harrington, C. B. Scott, P. J. McManus, Frank Biglin, Ed Alberts, John Thomas, Tom Enright, James O'Donnell, Harry Dowling, Hugh McKenna, Thomas McPharlin, John McManus, jr., and George McLeod went to Neligh Wednesday to attend the opening day of the races. Mr. McLeod's horse, White Wing, is in the Neligh races. It was also at the Norfolk races, where it won third money.

The silver medal contest given in Golden's Hall last Saturday evening proved to be a pleasing, as well as an instructive entertainment. The first prize, a silver medal, was awarded Ethel Jarvis of Atkinson. The second second, a beautiful book, by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, was given Katherine Doyle, the remainder of the class, each receiving a small souvenir, in appreciation of their earnest efforts. The entire class did honor not only to themselves, but to their instructors and in behalf of the County Union we wish to express our thanks to T. V. Golden for his excellent work in drilling the young ladies of O'Neill, which we are sure those who showed their interest by their presence, can bear testimony to same.

BROWN FOR SENATOR

Wins Place On Sixth Ballot at Republican Convention.

SHELDON OF CASS FOR GOVERNOR

Kinkaid Renominated for Congress at Kearney Convention, Which Does Quick Work.

Attorney General Norris Brown was nominated for United States senator by the republican state convention which met in Lincoln Wednesday.

Sheldon of Cass county was nominated for governor on the second ballot. The balance of the ticket is: Lieutenant governor, M. R. Hopewell of Burt; secretary of state, G. C. Junkin of Gosper; auditor, E. M. Searle; treasurer, L. J. Brain of Boone; attorney general, W. T. Thompson of Hall; railway commissioners, M. J. Winnett, Lancaster, Robert Cowell, Douglas, and J. A. Williams of Pierce; land commissioner, H. M. Eaton; superintendent, J. L. McBrien.

Judge Kinkaid was renominated for congress at Kearney Monday. Mr. Cronin, who attended the convention, writes from Lincoln: "The convention met at 8 a. m. and in twenty-four minutes had adjourned after organizing, passing resolutions, nominating a congressman and selecting a congressional committee."

About Pianos.

"What's in a name? A rose is as sweet by another." So it is with a piano. In buying a piano of G. W. Smith you do not pay two or three middle men's profits, you get the benefit of the advantage he has in buying direct from reliable and established factories on a spot cash basis. He is the only dealer in Northern Nebraska that does business on that basis. He handles and will give you the choice of twenty fine makes of pianos on such a basis. He will tell you just what a piano is that you are buying and sell as cheap on time as for cash. And right here he would offer a word of advice to parties contemplating the purchase of a piano; do not wait till cold weather to put in your instrument, do not figure on a Christmas present. The piano that is in place during the settled weather will withstand the climatic changes better and add years of good service to its life. If you buy a piano insist on the dealer tuning it every three months the first year and every four months the second year, twice the third year. Remember too that he does not advertise a lot of trash from $15 up in order to simply find out who is figuring on buying a piano. He will sell you new instruments cash or time for $150.
