

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Gallagher-McEniry Nuptials Were Celebrated Yesterday.

A very pretty wedding occurred at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning, when Mr. J. P. Gallagher and Miss W. McEniry were joined in wedlock.

The bridal party made a very attractive picture as they marched up the aisle to the strains of the wedding march and took their places at the altar.

The bride was attended by Miss Mamie Cullen, the groomsmen being Dr. J. F. Gallagher of St. Louis, brother of the groom. Messrs. M. F. Meer and P. J. O'Donnell acted as ushers.

The bride and bridesmaid were both attired in white. The bride's dress was a creation of exquisite white lace over white silk. She wore a veil and wreath and carried a bunch of roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of white lace net over white silk and carried roses.

The groom and best man were attired in black.

After the ceremony the bridal party, consisting of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Harrington, where an elaborate and sumptuous breakfast was served. The wedding party then accompanied the bride and groom to the Northwestern depot and saw them off on their wedding trip. They will go to Chicago for a brief honeymoon and then return to O'Neill and go to house keeping on East Douglas street, Mr. Gallagher having bought the Dell Baker property there and fitted up a comfortable home for himself and bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher are in every respect a worthy and highly esteemed couple. Mr. Gallagher has grown to manhood among us and risen from a country boy on the farm to one of our substantial and enterprising merchants. He engaged in the mercantile business for himself several years ago, after serving as a clerk for a number of years, and has built up a fine business, and is known by all as an honorable business man with exemplary habits.

His bride is a sister of Mrs. M. F. Harrington and formerly lived in Canada, though she has been here long enough to be claimed by O'Neill people. She is a woman of refinement and more than ordinary good sense, and is in every particular worthy the hand of her husband.

Meeting Dates.

W. E. Scott, republican candidate for county attorney, will speak at the following places:

- October 12, Ewing.
- October 13, Page.
- October 15, Scottville.
- October 16, Paddock town hall.
- October 17, Peter Greely school-house.

Shot His Sister.

Mary Malloy, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Malloy, living near Emmet, was shot in the breast last Saturday with a revolver in the hands of her brother. The affair was purely accidental. No serious result is anticipated, though the bullet has not yet been located by the attending physician, Dr. J. P. Gilligan of this city.

The revolver with which the girl was shot belongs to a nephew of Mr. Malloy who is out from Omaha visiting at the home of his uncle. The girl's brother was examining the weapon when it was accidentally discharged and the bullet struck his sister who was standing near by.

The ball did not penetrate the vitals, but took an upward course through the flesh. Dr. Gilligan says the wound will not prove serious unless some unforeseen complications set in.

Court Ordered Adjourned.

Judge Harrington has issued the following order concerning the next term of court:

It is hereby ordered that the regular term of the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, which has heretofore been ordered to convene on the 3d day of December, 1906, be, and the same hereby is, adjourned until December 10, 1906, and the petit jurors drawn and summoned for said term are hereby excused from service until December 11, 1906.

The clerk of the court will start to make up the docket for the December term the latter part of this month.

In Divorce Court.

Judge Harrington has entered decrees dissolving the bonds of matrimony for the following: Owen M. Thayer from Polly A. Thayer, plaintiff paying costs; Blanche G. Sweigart from Omar Sweigart, plaintiff paying costs; Mary E. Desjarlais from George J. Desjarlais, defendant paying costs.

James O. Swogger asks for divorce from Mary Etta Swogger on the grounds of "extreme cruelty." They were married at Nebraska City in 1904.

Matrimonial.

Several couples have taken the marriage vows the past week. William Boies and Anna M. Thayer, both of Stafford, were married at the county judge's office on the 6th.

Wednesday morning Thomas Mullally of Ponca, Neb., took to his home a bride from this county in the person of Miss Eleanor Barrett. The same day George W. Hudson and Edith Sarchet, both of Dorsey, were joined in wedlock by Judge Malone.

Teachers Examination.

Teacher's examination will be held October 19th and 20th, at Ewing, Stuart and O'Neill.

INJURED BY A FALL.

Walt Horiskey Boards Train and Is Picked Up Senseless.

Walter Horiskey met with a distressing accident last Sunday night about nine o'clock at the Northwestern yards and that he is still alive may be considered fortunate.

In company with R. M. Lumpkin and Rueben Knap he was at the depot when a stock train came through. The train slackened speed as it passed the station and Walter climbed onto the side ladder of a car to ride a short distance. Just about at the switch east of the depot he jumped off or fell off, striking on his head on a rail of the side track. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and lay helpless on the track when picked up by his companions.

He was found seriously hurt and a buggy was procured and he was taken home, Drs. P. J. Flynn and E. T. Wilson being summoned. His forehead was cut open to the bone and a terrible gash on the side of his face. The physicians dressed the wounds, sewing the torn flesh together. The patient talked incoherently but did not regain consciousness for over two hours. When he came to himself he could give no account of how he was hurt or how he got off of the car, remembering only that he had climbed onto the same.

THINKS IT GOOD THING

Local Merchant's Opinion of Kinkaid Homestead Law.

The view the sensible business man takes of the Kinkaid section homestead act was well illustrated by what a prominent O'Neill merchant said the other day.

"The section homestead act is a benefit to all of us," said he. "Just to cite you one instance, down near my ranch in the southwest part of the county a man came in there two years ago and settled on a Kinkaid homestead and you would be surprised at the improvements he has made. He has a nice bunch of cattle and is milking twenty-five or thirty cows. He has opened up a flourishing place that is certainly a benefit to any community, and he would not be there at all were it not for the Kinkaid homestead act."

"This man," he continued, "never comes to town but what he spends around twenty-five dollars, and if it isn't a benefit to settle up the country with that kind of men I would like to know what you call it. And he is only one of hundreds of others who have come into the country since the enactment of the Kinkaid homestead law, who would not be here at all if it were not for that law."

W. E. Scott, Frank Phillips, Sam Green and D. M. Stuart hold a meeting at Inman tonight in the interest of their respective candidacies. They expect to hold meetings all over the county and are propounding some hard nuts to crack. They are all familiar with the records of the fusion leaders in this county and are giving it to the voters direct. Mr. Scott is especially active in condemning the course of the fusion county attorney and opening the eyes of the tax payers by showing them what it has cost them.

BUYING A PIANO

The buying of a piano at this present time is a matter of much less importance than formerly for the public knows the good makes by reputation. Prices have been reduced to a point where it is quite possible for every family to have one in their home. Too much stress we believe, is laid on by many as to the dollars to be invested. While it is true that economy is practiced in all affairs of life, yet, on the other hand, in the matter of education that "penny wise and pound foolish" principle should not prevail. Music is no longer considered a mere accomplishment of the rich, but has become a part of modern education. The placing of a piano in a home emphasizes the fact that the family has reached the point of higher education, higher culture, and is developing a taste for those things that make life more enjoyable. Chickering & Sons, Kimball, Kranich & Bach, Cable Nelson, Ivers & Pond, Schaff, Schubert and others of the good makes can be bought at our studio at a lower price than in the city.

T. E. HALLDORSON.

will visit friends and relatives here a couple of weeks.

Coad Slaymaker, who has been out on the western coast for some time, returned Saturday. He says that Holt county is good enough for him.

Sam Becker sold his fine ranch of 800 acres last Monday to John Shrunck, of Antelope county, for $12,000. We understand Mr. Becker is to give immediate possession.

J. T. Prouty and wife, who have been touring the east for the past three months, returned to their home in Atkinson Friday night. Mr. Prouty says he had an enjoyable time but was glad to get back to old Holt again.

Frank W. Phillips, candidate for state senator, drove in from Chambers Saturday and took the afternoon train for Stuart. He says the outlook for republican success in Holt county was never better than it is this fall and predicts a good safe majority for the state and county tickets.—The Graphic.

STUART

Conductor Fairbanks and wife of Norfolk have been spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Alderman.

Young George Norton shot his thumb off accidentally and what was left was amputated by Dr. Colburn.

Will Hiscox quietly sold his place near town the other day, without the aid of commission or land men to Herman Kaup of West Point. One of the many buyers making this town, saw the place and on his own judgment took it up at a good price.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blondin will leave Monday for Hubbel, Thayer county, to take possession of their new Iowa farm. The Stuart people regret their departure for they are the kind of people who are of real use in the upbuilding of the country and the support of a town. They have the best wishes of their Holt county friends.

R. Hudspeth brought in another crowd of Iowa land buyers the latter part of last week. A number of wealthy farmers are purchasing farms and hay lands for their sons, who want a bigger and wider scope for their opportunities and who think they see in our fine grazing and agricultural country chances that have long passed in the states east of us. Let the solid settler continue to come. There is room for more.—The Ledger.

Charles Stracke lost a valuable horse Monday. The horse was hitched to a wagon near the railroad track and became frightened at the noon freight and broke loose from the wagon and ran in front of the train, jumping the cattle guard at the crossing and was run down by the train before it could stop.

The body of Mrs. J. S. Fort of Saline, Kansas, arrived here last Saturday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Minnie Conrad and son. The burial occurred from W. N. Coats' undertaking department, Sunday at 1 o'clock p. m. Mrs. Fort died at Saline, Kansas, where she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Conrad, September 27th, at the age of 78 years.

The Citizens bank are in receipt of an electric steel vault lining which will be installed soon. This lining has proven to be an absolute preventative against burglary, for the smartest burglar cannot get a pin hole through the electric steel lining without making enough noise to wake every body in town. It has two bronze gongs which can be heard for a long distance.—The Advocate.
