

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.

The above named defendants and each of them will take notice that on the 11th day of September, 1906, that Elizabeth Sarson as plaintiff, commenced an action in the district court of Holt County, Nebraska, against you and your codefendants, Berlin Investment Company, Berlin Company, Albert F. Mayne, Margarite Hughes, Elizabeth B. Worley, Charles L. Saunders, administrator of the estate of Richard S. Berlin, deceased, and Alexander H. M. in Holt County, Nebraska, said mortgage being given to secure his promissory note of $700 bearing date November 24, 1900, due in three years after date with interest at 7 per cent.

Plaintiff alleges in said petition that she is the owner of said note and the mortgage securing the same and that there is due thereon the sum of $859.25 with interest at 7 per cent from August 24, 1906, and the further sum of $75 taxes paid by plaintiff to protect her mortgaged security.

LOCAL MATTERS.

is out of commission but the Meadville bridge is still used though condemned. The two latter bridges are between Brown and Keya Paha counties.

The 2-cent passenger rate has become effect on both roads doing business at O'Neill. The Great Northern was the first to lead out in compliance with the law, the 2-cent rate for local passage becoming effective on that road at 12:01 a. m. Wednesday. The rate went into effect on the Northwestern at 12 o'clock midnight last night. Under this rate the fare to Omaha is now $3.84 and to Lincoln $4.15. There is no change in the rate to Sioux City over the Great Northern, that being inter-state traffic and therefore not amenable to state legislation. The fare to Sioux City is $4.10 under the 3-cent rate and remains the same. However, the rate to South Sioux City, Neb., just across the river from Sioux City, is $2.53, and passengers for Sioux City can purchase a ticket to South Sioux City and pay 30 cents to cross over or take a street car. Under the new rate half fare permits are no longer issued and a flat 2-cent rate is made to everybody.

The trial of the injunction suit against R. E. Chittick on the matter of issuing a permanent injunction against him turning over to J. C. Har-nish $40 trust warrants held by him was taken up in district court Tuesday, Judge Harrington presiding. M. F. Harrington and J. A. Donohoe appeared for the plaintiff and R. R. Dickson and County Attorney Mullen for the defense. Mr. Chittick and County Clerk Simar were the only witnesses examined. Mr. Chittick was kept on the stand for about an hour. His testimony, both on direct and cross examination, was to the effect that trust funds had been used from July 1, 1906, to October 2, 1906, to take up general fund warrants by order of members of the county board although a formally drawn order was not received from the board by Mr. Chittick until October 2, 1906; that the same system had been in use in the treasurer's office for many years past and that it was done to save interest to the county and no objection had been found to the system until recently. Court adjourned in the evening with the arguments yet to be made.

Binkerd-Pine Wedding.

Lynch Journal: Mr. J. B. Binkerd and Miss Winnifred Pine of Dorsey were married last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Pine, the bride's parents, in the presence of twenty-two guests, Rev. F. E. Hammond of Lynch officiating. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 and immediately following the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room and made merry over a bountiful supper.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pine and is quite popular at Dorsey where she has grown to womanhood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Binkerd and has many friends in Lynch, having lived here for a year.

An important milestone is marked, another family circle has been formed in love and happiness under most favorable conditions and we join their many friends in hope that these conditions will continue to bless them through life.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wunderlich, of Boone, Ia., an uncle of the groom, and Mrs. Clara Springmeyer of Omaha, an aunt of the bride.

The Markets

South Omaha, Mar. 7.—Special market letter from Nye & Buchanan. The cattle market has possibly improved a little since a week ago on weighty steers and desirable kinds of butcher stock but the range of values is notably unchanged. Trading is still very dull and draggy and we do not look for much activity until the close of the Lenten season but still have confidence in the future of the market. The stocker and feeder trade is quiet with prices unchanged.

We quote—
Choice steers.....$5 15@5 75
Fair to good.....4 50@4 10
Common down to.....4 00
Cows and heifers.....3 50@4 25
Fair to good.....2 80@3 40
Canners & cutters.....2 00@2 75
Veal calves.....4 50@6 50
Bulls.....2 25@4 00
Good to choice feeders.....4 25@5 00
Fair to good grades.....3 60@4 10
Stock steers.....3 25@4 25
Stock heifers.....2 25@3 00

The hog market has had quite a jolt and is very weak. Range $6.70 to $6.80.

Sheep and lambs are still rather dull and weak but we look for better prices.

Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.

Marriage by Proxy.

In Holland, says a Scotch paper, marriage by proxy is allowed. This is the so called "marriage by the glove" and is usually put in practice by a Dutchman who is sojourning abroad and, wanting a wife, is too poor or too far off to return home for one. In such a case he writes home to a lawyer, who selects one conformable to the requirements of his client. If the gentleman approves he next sends the lawyer a soiled left hand glove and a power of attorney, which settles the business. A friend marries the woman by proxy, and she is thereafter promptly shipped off to her new home.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters remain un-called for in the O'Neill postoffice for the week ending March 2, 1907:

Wm. F. Fehr, H. J. Kelley, Fred O. Leonard, N. B. Sweitzer, Miss Minnie Magburger.

In calling for the above please say "advertised." If not called for in two weeks will be sent to dead letter office D. H. Cronin, Postmaster.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's cough remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by Gilligan & Stout.

Card of Thanks.

Feeling deeply indebted to the kind friends who administered to and watched over our son and brother during his sickness and death and for their kind words of sympathy we desire to express our thanks and that their kindness will never be forgotten.

Mrs. Thos. Welch, and Family.

Cause of Stomach Troubles.

When a man has trouble with his stomach you may know that he is eating more than he should or of some article of food or drink not suited to his age or occupation, or that his bowels are habitually constipated. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to regulate the bowels and improve the digestion and see if the trouble does not disappear. Ask for a free sample. Sold by Gilligan & Stout.

The most successful treatment for a sprain is use of hot footbaths for fifteen minutes three times a day. Follow each bath with massage for fifteen minutes, then apply snugly a rubber bandage from toes up to as high as ankle and have patient walk. Ballet dancers use this method with such success that they are seldom incapacitated for work longer than a week.—Medical Record.

Notice.

There will be a meeting at the Joyce school house on March 14, 1907, for the purpose of discussing a telephone line. All those interested will please attend. Committee.
