RURAL WRITINGS

Items from the country are solicited for this department. Mail or send them in as early in the week as possible; items received later than Wednesday can not be used at all and it is preferred that they be in not later than Tuesday. Always send your name with items, that we may know who they are from. Name of sender not for publication. See that your writing is legible, especially names and places, leaving plenty of space between the lines for correction. Be careful that what you tell about actually occurred.]

Ray Items.

Small grane looks quite smgl yet. John Plessel and Otto Clevish had business in this section the first of the week.

Jim Harding and H. Twyford attended the Heeb sale. Jim bought some fine hogs.

Clark Gaughenbaugh, magnor of the ditch company ranch, bought two hundred and fifty fine cattle over to their new ranch near the Eagle Creek.

Henry Twyford and family spent a pleasant Sunday at C. H. Bigler last Sunday.

ATKINSON

Howard Miller, of Battle Creek, with a few Omaha friends were out on the Eagle after trout Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Mabel Funk, nee Bokhof, arrived Saturday night to make a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bokhof.

Mrs. Black, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Stilson, a few days, returned to her home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Frank J. Keirman returned Saturday from an extended outing along the Pacific coast and Idaho. She and Mrs. J. F. Sherman, who accompanied her, report a beneficial trip.

L. E. Hike, our station agent, and wife left for the western coast Wednesday morning to enjoy a well earned vacation. They will visit the most important points in California, Oregon and Washington before returning.—Graphic.

One of Atkinson's eligible men left for New England a few weeks ago, after fitting up his cosy residence in the south part of town. He afterwards sent to his friends a wedding notice, telling of the marriage of Jed Landen, a Nebraska stockbuyer, to Miss Lenora Rockwell of Burlington, Vermont. Miss Rockwell had been an old sweetheart of Mr. Landen's. The newly married couple arrived home Tuesday afternoon.

W. M. Dickerson received word this week of the death of Neil McIlravia at Ketchikan, Alaska, the 16th of April. The deceased was one of the oldest Atkinson settlers and was at one time in the furniture business with Mr. Dickerson. He is well known among the older residents. His wife is the oldest daughter of E. H. Thompson of O'Neill. He had been in Alaska for a number of years and was engaged in the lumber business.—The Ledger.

STUART

The many friends of Miss Irene Freeman, who has been dangerously ill, will be glad to hear that she is improving in health and her recovery is now considered assured.

Mrs. Brayton was called to Colfax, Iowa last week by a telegram stating that her brother had been injured by falling under a train, and had a leg amputated in the hospital there.

Pat Ratigan started Wednesday morning for a visit with his friends in Jacksonville, Ill. Mr. Ratigan expects to go from there to Ireland for

COMING TO O'NEILL, NEBRASKA

The eminent physician on chronic diseases will visit our city,
Friday, May 3, 1907
And will be at Hotel Evans until 5 p. m., one day only.

Dr. Potter, president of the staff of the Boston Electro Medical Institute, is making a tour of the state. He will give consultation, examination and all the medicines necessary to complete a cure FREE.

Cures DEAFNESS by an entirely new process. Treats all curable cases of catarrh, throat and lung diseases, eye and ear, stomach, liver and kidneys, gravel, rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, nervous and heart disease, epilepsy, Bright's disease and disease of the bladder and female organs, blood and skin diseases. Liquor and tobacco habit, big neck, stammering cured. Piles, fistula and rupture cured without detention from business. Eyes, nose and throat. Glasses fitted, granulated lids, cataracts, crossed eyes straightened without pain.

If you are improving under your family physician do not take up your valuable time. The rich and the poor are treated alike. Idlers and curiosity seekers will please stay away. Our time is valuable.

Remember NOT A PENNY will be charged for the medicine required to make a cure of all those taking treatment this trip. Office hour 9 a. m. Positively married ladies must be accompanied by their husbands. Remember the date, Friday, May 3, at Hotel Evans, O'Neill, Neb.

a few months visit. He has two brothers and two sisters living in Ireland who he has not seen for forty-five years.

Rev. and Mr. Lee Daily of Ceresco, Neb., arrived on the passenger last evening. They will visit Mrs. Daily's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berry of Dustin, and other relatives in that neighborhood for about a month, after which they will spend the summer traveling and camping, for the benefit of Mrs. Daily's health.—Advocate.

EWING

D. Brion received the sad news of the death of his aged brother, John Brion, of Nauvoo, Ky., this week.

Mrs. E. E. Chase received a phone from Orchard Sunday night informing her of the dangerous illness of her mother, Mrs. John Closson. At this writing her condition is much improved.

R. P. Hart and family who moved to Brownville, Neb., a short time ago, moved back to Ewing this week.

Mrs. May Fowler, nee Campbell, of Sioux City, Io., accompanied by her three children, visited with her brother-in law, A. L. Shannon, of Ewing last Saturday.—Advocate.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found it at Last. Found what? Why that Chamberlain's salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongley, Rootville, Pa. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The farewelled tendered Mrs. Kline and Mrs. J. S. Harrington April 17, at the home of Mrs. Bright by the W. C. T. U. was a very pleasant affair, and while we are sorry to have them leave send our prayers and good wishes after them where ever they may go.

The reception tendered Mr. Anna Simmons, state W. C. T. U. lecturer, at the Odd Fellows hall Monday evening was a pleasant success. The lecture Tuesday evening was not as well attended as we would have liked but feel that those that were there were well paid for coming. Mrs. Simmons is an earnest sincere talker and handled her subject with ease.

The members of the Union are earnestly requested to bring their year books with them to the meeting at Mrs. Bowen's May 1.

Richard S. Evans, state organizer of the Loyal Temperance Legion, will be with us, we hope, in the near future.

RUINS OF ST. PAUL'S.

Origin of Macaulay's Phrase in an Eighteenth Century Poem.

It has long been understood that the real inventor of Macaulay's famous New Zealander was Horace Walpole, who, in a letter to Mason, written in 1774, said: "At last some curious traveler from Lima will visit England and give a description of the ruins of St. Paul's, like the editions of Balbes and Palmyra." But Mr. Bertram Dobell writes to the London Academy giving the idea an earlier date. He finds it embodied in this old title page:

Poems by a young Nobleman, of Distinguished Abilities, lately deceased; particularly, The State of England, and the once flourishing City of London. In a letter from an American Traveler, Dated from the Ruinous Portico of St. Paul's, in the year 1730, to a Friend settled in Boston, the Metropolis of the Western Empire. Also Sundry Fugitive Pieces, principally wrote whilst upon his Travels on the Continent. [Motto from Juvenal.] London, 1730.

Mr. Dobell explains that, though the book is dated 1730, the poem in it on London is dated March 21, 1771. He attributes it to the prodigiate second Lord Lyttelton. Here is one of his extracts from the composition:

And now thro' broken paths and rugged ways,
Uncultivated regions, we advanc'd
Towards fam'd Augusta's towers, on the Thames
(Whose clear broad stream glides smoothly thro' the vale)

Embank'd, and stretching o'er the level plain,
For many a mile her gilded spires were seen,
While Britain yet was free—alas! how chang'd,
How fallen from that envy'd height;

She rul'd the subject nations, and beheld
The Spaniard crouch beneath her spear and all
The Gallic lilies crimson'd o'er with blood.

Extinguish'd are their glories, and her sun
That once enlighten'd Europe with his beams,
Sunk in the West is set, and ne'er again
Shall o'er Britannia spread his orient rays!

These were my thoughts whilst thro' a falling heap
Of shapeless ruins far and wide diffus'd
Paul's great Cathedral, from her solid base,
High towering to the sky, by heav'n's command

Amidst the universal waste preserv'd
Struck my astonish'd view.
On this fair object my fix'd eye was kept
In pleasing meditation, whilst my guide,
A poor emaciate Briton, led me on
Through streets, and squares, and falling palaces,

(Where here and there a habitat was seen)
To where stood once amongst the peopled town
Th' Exchange of London.

WHOLE OR HALF TRUTHS.

Better be single in peace than married in war.
The rock of success isn't located in a field of roses.

The fellow who objects to discipline needs it the most.
You can inherit ability, but you've got to hustle for experience.

The optimist has an easy time of it. He smiles while others work.
It doesn't cost anything to say "good morning" even if it's raining.

Some folks ought to take their consciences out once in awhile for exercise.
Silence isn't always golden. The talker with something to say is worth a dozen keep stills.

The optimist who thinks that folks are civilized should yell "Fire!" to a crowded house and watch results.—From "Gumption," by N. C. Fowler, Jr.

A Shopgirl's Fines.

It was not a very cheerful memorandum and the shopgirl's look was not very cheerful either as, on pay night, she brought it home to her mother.

It was a memorandum of the fines that had taken a good slice out of her wages, and it ran:

Standing on chair ..... $0.10
Leaving less than one yard on ribbon roll ..... .05
Permitting patron to depart unserved ..... .10
Lateness ..... .05
Gum chewing ..... .10
Error in addition ..... .05
Writing indistinct duplicate ..... .10
Error in address ..... .10

Total ..... $0.55
"There are 100 rules posted up in our little shop," said the girl bitterly, "and an infraction of any one of them is finable."—New York Press.

Good Listeners.

In conversing with one's friends nothing is so chilling as an apparent lack of attention and sympathy. It might be added that nothing is more vulgar were not the listener's indifference common to the majority of our most cultured people. If when one is addressed she will remember to incline the body slightly forward an attitude of rapt attention will soon be unconsciously assumed and, whether really worthy of it or not, new recruits gained for the always popular, as rare, class known as "good listeners."

A Tough Problem.

The following letter received at this office has been referred to the Lancaster Literary society: "I married a widower and went to live in the home where he had lived with his first wife. I find a number of her clothes in a closet—to wit, one brown dress skirt, two petticoats, three pairs of stockings, one pair of slippers and a black silk waist. How shall I dispose of them in a way that will be satisfactory to her relatives and the neighbors?"—Athens Globe.

This Institute in order to introduce their new Medical Discoveries and X-radium System, sends at its own expense these eminent specialists to give to those who call on the above date, consultation, examination, advice and all medicine required to complete a cure, absolutely free.

These specialists will diagnose your case and give you the benefit of their medical knowledge. There is no experimenting or guess work. You will be told whether you can be cured or not. If your case is curable, they will treat you; if incurable they will give you such advice as may prolong your life.

Their treatment gives quick relief and positively cures. Being prepared to suit each individual case the human system is thoroughly cleansed of the disease in a natural and direct manner and improvement is noticed at once; even the worst cases are treated without any inconvenience to the patient or the pursuing of his daily vocation. If you are improving under your family physician do not come and take up their valuable time. They wish to give each one plenty of time, but cannot listen to long stories not pertaining to your case.

They have discarded the old remedies used for ages by the medical world and which it would be folly to depend upon any longer for they do not cure, as thousands die depending on them for relief.

The fact that these Specialists have discovered entirely new treatments and natural cures, gives them control of the Nervous System, Heart, Stomach, Lungs, Kidneys, Catarrh, Consumption, Epilepsy, Deafness, Male and Female Weaknesses, Cancers, Tumors, Piles and other Chronic Diseases.

They treat deafness by an entirely new method and hearing in many cases is restored at once. Catarrh in all its varied forms cured so it will never return. If you have weak lungs or consumption do not fail to be examined.

All cases treated can and will be cured, no difference who you have seen or treated with heretofore. Thousands who have given up all hope of being cured, now have an opportunity to consult specialists of reputation.

Don't fail to call as a visit costs you nothing and may save your life.

If you suspect kidney trouble, bring a two ounce bottle of your urine for chemical and microscopical analysis.

REMEMBER:—The free offer is during this visit only and will not be given again. Persons commencing any treatment after this trip will be required to pay, but not one cent will be asked of those commencing treatment during this visit for any medicine necessary to effect a cure; also a positive guarantee to cure will be given to patients accepted under their system of treatment. Those having long standing and complicated diseases, who have failed to get cured and become discouraged, are especially invited to call as thousands who have given up all hopes can testify to permanent cures obtained.

NOTICE:—Married Ladies without their Husbands and Minors without their Fathers, will positively not be admitted to consultation.

Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 7:30 P. M.
