

THE O'NEILL FRONTIER

D. H. CRONIN, Publisher. O'NEILL, NEBRASKA

Ruyard Kipling undoubtedly got his wit from his maternal grandfather, the Rev. George B. Macdonald, a Wesleyan clergyman. In the days when young Macdonald was courting the lady whom he afterward married, the father-in-law to be—an aged Methodist with extremely strict notions in regard to the proprieties—was injudicious enough on one occasion to enter the parlor without giving any warning of his approach. The consequences were that he found the sweethearts occupying a high chair. Deeply shocked by this spectacle, the old man solemnly said: "Mr. Macdonald, when I courted Mrs. Brown she sat on one side of the room and I on the other." Macdonald's reply was: "This is the way I should have done if I had been courting Mrs. Brown."

Raasay Island, in the Inner Hebrides, which lies between the mainland of Scotland and the Isle of Skye, has failed to find a purchaser at the auction price of $225,000 placed upon it. Its name is the Scandinavian for "the place of the roe deer," and the shootings, with the mansion house and grounds at the southern end, constitute the chief value of the island. Near the northern end are the ruins of Brochel castle, the residence of its ancient lairds, the McLeods. In Celtic lore Raasay has a place and in English literature it is mentioned in Samuel Johnson's "Journey to the Western Island of Scotland."

The board of education has under consideration a scheme of compulsory education of children, by which 100 primary schools will be established in each province, one in each district and one in each village. The same board is of opinion that all children reaching a certain age should be forced to enter the schools, otherwise their parents are to be punished. It is also proposed that the provincial director of education shall attend the school once in every two years and hold examinations says the Shanghai Mercury.

"We fishermen," said Havelock Morton, California's famous fly-caster, "are continually being accused of intemperance. The accusation is false. No intemperate man could ever cast a fly. Yet a friend of mine had the effrontery to declare that while out walking in the country he had met an angler beside a brook and had said to the man: 'How can you tell the good places from the bad when you come to a stream?' 'By the bottles,' the man answered. 'Wherever the most empty bottles are scattered is the best place.'"

Dr. Mary Stone, who is the head of an American hospital in Klukiang, central China, lately returned to this country to be operated upon for appendicitis. She has recovered, is now in New York and will return to China in the fall. She graduated from Ann Arbor ten years ago and is said to be the only educated physician in a province containing 5,000,000 people. Last year she personally treated more than 14,000 patients.

The late Maurice Grau, after the work he did, should have retired with a half-million—but he didn't. It is the same old story, again. He was a twenty-one years' service, will retire from the grand opera at Paris in December, is also not in the list of Paris millionaires and millionaires in Paris count their millions in francs only. There is more money, the Mystery Courier thinks, in running a vaudeville theater.

The oldest living human being of whom we have records is Mrs. Mary Wood, of Hillsboro, Ore. She is 120 years old. She was born in Knoxville, Tenn., May 20, 1787, which the records at Knoxville still show. When she was sixty-five years old she rode the entire distance across the continent from her old home in Tennessee to her present home in Oregon.

On recommendation of the commissary-general of the army, the rations of the troops serving in Alaska will be 16 ounces of bacon, or, when desired, 16 ounces of salt pork or 21 ounces of salt beef; 24 ounces of fresh vegetables, instead of 16 ounces; 3 1/2 ounces of desiccated vegetables, instead of 2 1/2 ounces; and 8-25 ounce of candies, instead of 6-25 ounce.

Staten Island drivers who have their business in New York wish to do part of their day's work in the time they spend daily on the ferry, and to this end the Richmond Borough Realty association has been considering the plan of having girl stenographers on the Staten Island ferries.

Potato growers in North Wales are warned by the board of agriculture and fisheries to destroy at once any plants infected with the disease known as "black scab." It is a disease of recent introduction and passes in the spring to the highly dangerous summer stage.

A Georgia professor wrote an arithmetic that contained such tough problems that nobody could solve them. One teacher wrote, asking for a key. The professor replied on a postal card: "Dear Sir: It has no key. It's a stem-wind."

ORDER ISSUES TO COMPEL NEBRASKA ROADS TO OBEY LAW

Attorney General Thompson Steals March on Them a la Hadley.

Lincoln, Neb., June 19.—Railroad attorneys are much chagrined over the march stolen on them Saturday night by Attorney General Thompson. Mr. Thompson followed the example of Hadley, of Missouri, and now has an order of the supreme court restraining the Burlington, the Union Pacific, the Rock Island and the Missouri Pacific from disobeying the maximum freight rate law, the 2 cent fare law and the anti-pass law and defying the orders of the state railroad commission. The Northwestern, which announced some weeks since, that it would comply with the law, was not included.

Mr. Thompson is quite certain that the federal courts of Nebraska will not interfere and precipitate any such conflict of authority as is presented in Missouri. Neither one of the federal judges for Nebraska is of the ex-railroad attorney type as personified by Judge Smith McPherson.

State Courts in Control. The attorney general believes that the state courts having assumed full jurisdiction of the subject matter will be allowed to deal with it entirely, unless the railroad legal representatives can devise some way of avoiding the effect of this coup.

The commodity rate bill does not go into effect until July 5, but the others have been in force for several months. The commodities covered therein are live stock, potatoes, grain or grain products, fruit, coal, lumber and building material, and the rate as prescribed is 65 per cent. of that in force January 1 last. The order of the court is in the form of a prohibition that the railroads must not charge a greater rate than 2 cents a mile for passengers or more than 85 per cent. of the rate in force on the commodities named on January 1, 1907. The prayer of the petition is that the threatened acts being unlawful and contrary to equity and good conscience, it is asked that the companies be enjoined, there being no remedy at law and the people of the state being certain to suffer irreparable damage if the wrongs are permitted to be perpetrated.

MOTHER SEES BABY STRANGLED TO DEATH. Neligh, Neb., June 19.—The 3-year-old son of C. B. Horax was strangled to death at the home of his parents on the Willow, twelve miles northeast of Neligh.

As near as reports can be obtained, it appears that the little fellow was leading a horse to water and had thoughtlessly wrapped the rope around his neck. When the mother went to look for her son she saw him dragging after the running horse. She immediately ran and followed a short distance, when the rope had untwisted itself from the child's neck.

Word was at once telephoned to Plainview for a doctor, who responded as soon as possible, but the spark of life had fled before the mother reached her son.

WANTS LUMBER TRUST PROSECUTED EVERYWHERE. Lincoln, Neb., June 19.—Attorney General Thompson, of Nebraska, will ask Attorney General Donahue, of the national government, to take action looking toward the dissolution of the alleged lumber trusts of America. Whether the state of Nebraska wins or loses in its present contention against the Nebraska Lumber Dealers' association will make no difference to Mr. Thompson.

Destroying the Nebraska association will be but the hacking off of one branch of a great tree that personifies the alleged lumber trust of this country.

FISHERMAN HAS FIT AND DROWNS IN RIVER. Kearney, June 19.—A special to the Daily Hub from Watertown, says that J. W. Stubbs, one of the best fishermen northwest of there, was accidentally drowned in Wood river Thursday afternoon. Stubbs left his home about 2 o'clock to go fishing and about 4 o'clock his body was discovered in the river by two of T. J. Quail's boys, who gave the alarm.

The body was recovered by T. J. Quail and Sam Veal who reside near there. Coroner Norcross, of Mialler, was notified and arrived soon thereafter and held an inquest. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning. The dead man was subject to epileptic fits and it is supposed that he had fallen into the water during an epileptic attack or it may have been purely accidental. This is the second fishing accident occurring in the county this week.

Nelson, Neb., June 19.—Lawrence Archer, of this place, and Lyle Boyd, of Hastings, were drowned while bathing in a lake recently built on the Squier ranch, a mile north of town. Where the boys were last seen to go down there was about twenty feet of water, and all efforts to find the bodies seemed futile. The dam was dynamited, and after the water was lowered several feet the bodies were found. Archer was the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Archer. Boyd was a drug clerk in the employ of Knapp & Davies, of Nelson. He leaves a widowed mother and two younger brothers as Hastings.

Valentine, Neb., June 19.—Clyde Black, an 18-year-old boy, was drowned in the mill pond south of this city Sunday. Together with a crowd of other boys he started to swim across the pond, and after a quarter of a mile, being a poor swimmer he became exhausted when almost across. He had been under the water over three hours before his body was found.

"NEWSBOYS' FRIEND" FOUND DEAD IN BED. Omaha, Neb., June 19.—Colonel Alexander Hogland, the "newsboys' friend," was found dead in bed in the Murray hotel this morning.

Hogland was chiefly known as the author of the Curfew law, although his work among the newsboys has been carried on for many years. While at his home in Louisville, Ky., he spent much time traveling around the country in the interest of the boys.

BODY WRIT ISSUES FOR CHILD-WIFE OF E. HYATT; PA IS MAD

When Young Man Returned With Bride His Father-in-Law Beat Him Up.

Kearney, Neb., June 17.—Elmer R. Hyatt, a youth of 19 years, has asked the district court to restore to him his child-wife, who is but 16, who he alleges is held prisoner in the home of her parents against her wishes.

The suit is brought in the name of Hyatt's father, as next friend of the young man, and is directed against C. M. Sheely and his wife, who are the parents of the young woman. Hyatt and Miss Sheely eloped to Lexington recently where they were married. On their return Sheely met the couple at the station in anything but a forgiving mood. He administered a good thrashing to the unfortunate young man and took his daughter home with him, where he has detained her ever since. It is said that he is about to send her to a convent in Chicago. The court issued an order for the parents to produce the body of Maude Sheely-Hyatt in court, where the case will be heard on its merits. Both the Hyatt and Sheely families are prominent members of Kearney society and the proceedings have caused a sensation.

MORMONS TO ERECT A SHAFT FOR MISSING 15. Niobrara, Neb., June 17.—A party of Mormons of Provo, Utah, have been here for two days locating the old fort and graves of fifteen of their members who died while in winter quarters near the mouth of the Niobrara river in 1846-7.

The party consisted of Messrs. Jesse and Samuel Knight, Prof. G. H. Burnhall, of the Mormon university, J. W. and Mrs. Townsend, of Crete, Neb., and the Misses Jennie B. Knight and Inas K. Allen. The location of the old fort was found, but the graves were not located. It was decided to place a monument on the site of the old fort and a half acre of the land was purchased for the purpose. Jesse Knight, whose father was one of the number to succumb to pneumonia in the winter of 1846, is to erect the monument at a cost of at least $1,000. Mr. Knight is a wealthy miner and capitalist, having the majority stock in a $1,000,000 sugar factory in Alberta and 255,000 acres of land there.

PUTS STATE CONTROL AHEAD OF THE NATIONAL. Niobrara, Neb., June 17.—A special to the Star from Palmyria, Neb., says: "Railway Commissioner J. A. Williams today attacked the policy of President Roosevelt in regard to the national regulation of railroads. In an address at the Old Settlers' reunion at Palmyria, expressing the opinion of the majority of the members of the Nebraska commission, he declared in favor of state control against national regulation. Commissioner H. T. Clarke agrees with Mr. Williams, but Chairman Winnett, of the Nebraska commission agrees with the president.

Meanwhile preparations continue quietly by the packers in anticipation of a strike. Retail dealers are notified no deliveries of meat will be assured after next Saturday.

The packing firms announced that they have made plans in the event of a strike to ship a meat train through the branch houses and compel dealers to haul the supplies themselves. It is said a strike would mean the abolishment of the free delivery system by the packing concerns.

George Shafer Found Dead by Son—Mrs. Rooney Believed to Be Suicide.

Lincoln, Neb., June 15.—George Shafer, a laborer, turned four gas jets on his residence last night and this morning he was found dead in bed by a son.

Shafer has been the storm center of considerable domestic troubles. The cause of which arose, according to his story, from his not taking all of his earnings of $1,100, and leaving town for a while.

Mrs. John Rooney died this morning from a cut in her throat made Monday night. Her family contend she fell against a window, but the officers think she inflicted the wound herself. She has been despondent from ill health.

NEBRASKA TO DEMAND 3 PER CENT. FOR STATE BANKS. Lincoln, Neb., June 15.—State Treasurer Brian has decided to boost the rate of interest on state deposits in the banks after July 1 from 2 to 3 per cent.

Notices to this effect are now being mailed to all depository institutions with a request that they reply stating whether they will be willing to retain the money that they now have and pay the higher interest upon it.

The action of the treasurer is prompted by the strong demand throughout Nebraska for deposits from the public treasury. He anticipates that some of the banks may protest over the increased rate of interest, but he has faith that there will be little if any difficulty in keeping every dollar of the state cash out at 3 per cent. All banks pay 3 to 4 per cent. on time deposits and 3 on running deposits.

Seventy-six banks in Nebraska have on deposit state funds in the sum of $322,000. It is declared that if the state had twice this amount of money to deposit it would not be able to supply the requests that have been made for it.

The aggregate interest received by the state on its bank deposits for the last biennium was $16,700. Had 3 per cent. been collected instead of 2, the amount would have reached $90,000 more.

SMALL BOY MURDERS HIS MOTHER BECAUSE SHE WHIPPED HIM

Terrible Act of 11-Year-Old Son of Mrs. Thomas McCoy ---Admits Crime.

Bassett, Neb., June 14.—The cold blooded murder of a mother by her 11-year-old son was developed by the coroner's inquest at Bassett over the body of Mrs. Thomas McCoy. What was at first supposed to have been an accidental death was found to be a frightful tragedy. The mother-murder was committed by her little son because she had punished him the day before. In custody of Sheriff Marsh at Bassett, the little murderer is just beginning to realize something of the seriousness of the situation resulting from his crime.

When Mrs. McCoy whipped her 11-year-old, he told her that he would "fix her." The next day he secured a revolver from the house, unbeknownst to anyone, and stole out into the field where his mother, a widow, was engaged with other children in planting seeds. Stealing up behind his mother, this youthful murderer fired a 38-caliber bullet into her brain from a distance of six feet. The ball of lead plowed through her head and lodged in the forehead.

Not content with the one murderous bullet, the little fellow aimed again, pulled the trigger a second time and sent a second bullet into his dying mother. The ball entered her thigh. The first bullet was fatal.

First Called an Accident. At first the shooting was given out as an accident. On being brought before the jury the boy admitted that he murdered his mother. He said that his mother had punished him severely on several occasions, and that he vowed to get even. On the day in question he had had gone to the cupboard and obtained a revolver. It was partially loaded, and he filled the vacant chambers with cartridges. He and his mother and two brothers went to a field to plant beans and while his mother was sitting down he had come up behind her within five or six feet and shot her through the head, killing her instantly.

To be sure that he had done the work well he fired a second shot into the leg and body of his prostrate mother. The boy told his story to the jury without much hesitation. He described how his mother sat and where and how he fired the fatal shots. He said the act was his own and no one else had knowledge of his purpose until after the deed was committed.

The authorities have taken the boy in custody, but it is not known what action will be taken. He seems as bright and intelligent as the average child of his age, but has had few advantages.

The weekly precipitation was above the normal, except in the southwestern counties, where it was slightly below the normal. The rainfall ranged from one to slightly more than three inches in the eastern counties, while it was about three-quarters of an inch in the southwest. POLICE CHIEF SAYS HE HAS A LIFE JOB BUT MAY BE FOOLED

Donahue of Omaha Under Civil Service, But the Board Is Preparing Charges.

Omaha, Neb., June 13.—Has Chief of Police John J. Donahue got a life lease on his office is the question that is agitating the members of the Omaha board of fire and police. They have been trying to decide it in their own minds for some time. The chief insists that he is a member of the police force, and if that is true it will be necessary to make specific charges against him and prove them before he can be removed. At least two members of the board are in favor of having a new chief of police and the third member is not opposed to the movement.

The matter of removing Donahue is conceded by the members to be a delicate one and it was said today that deliberate action would be necessary. Evidence is being gathered by the members and will probably be presented to the next meeting of the board.

Evils in Badlands. The board took it upon themselves recently to go through the badlands on a little trip of inspection. They had previously questioned the chief about what was going on at a number of places, and it is said they received assurance that certain nuisances had been cleaned up. They investigated these places themselves and found two gambling joints running and liquor being sold illegally in several others.

Chief Donahue had little to say. He declares, however, that the town is as well policed as any city of its size in the country, and that there is no protected vice.

CORPORATIONS SWELL FEES OF SEC'Y OF STATE. Lincoln, Neb., June 13.—Nearly 100 per cent. increase is shown in the semi-annual report of fees collected by the secretary of state's office up to May 31 this year, as compared with the showing for the same period on the same date in 1906. Practically the whole of this increase is due to the new law which requires corporations to pay larger fees than before or filing their organic articles or amendments. About five-sixths of all the revenue collected by the office in the past six months was derived from that source. Below are the figures contained in the secretary of state's report to the governor:

For attesting great seal and forwarding notarial commissions ..... $ 508.00 For filing articles of incorporation, etc. .... 10,804.40 For making transcripts and certificates ..... 429.40 For labels and trade marks ..... 4.50 For issuing brands and marks ..... 199.50 For motor vehicle licenses ..... 366.00 For filing certificates of agents ..... 61.15 From all other sources ..... .74 Total ..... $12,373.74

For the same period of time one year ago the receipts of the office were $6,315.52, showing a net increase of $6,058.20 for the half of 1907.

The condemned man's attorneys alleged that he is insane. Barker was convicted nearly three years ago for the murder of his brother and the latter's wife near Inavale, Neb. The bodies of his victims were found buried in a cow stable. Barker afterwards confessed, saying that he coveted his brother's farm in order that he might marry and have a home for his bride. He was sentenced to hang, but a reprieve for two years was granted by Governor Sheldon's predecessor. The present governor refused to interfere with the sentence or execution.
