It is hard to keep out of work and out of jail at the same time.

If angels are as nice as girls of 10 or 12, we shall be satisfied.

The only thing some men are ever willing to save is the country.

How a man will roar at fate if he loses a job he didn't try to hold.

The only way some women have of showing their love is by jealousy.

People naturally shy from the man who suspects everyone of dishonesty.

The woman who tells everything she hears, always hears so much, too.

With some people the price of peace is complete surrender to their enemies.

One nice thing about tradition is that no one cares whether it is true or not.

Politicians and pugilists are very similar in the matter of their retirements.

When you do exactly as you please, remember you are the only person pleased.

A farmer's idea of laziness is to let the sun beat you at getting up in the morning.

The average man's idea of religious liberty is the privilege of staying home from church.

If it were not for the funerals, there wouldn't be any family reunions in some families.

A girl is homely. It is safe to assert that she is a great deal of help to her mother.

The man who has fish given him is the only one who feels obliged to believe fish stories.

Every time we see a boy of 12, smoking, we confess to feeling a disposition to spank him.

After a heart has been broken a few times, the healing process becomes greatly simplified.

What has become of the old-fashioned girl who said she wouldn't marry the best man living?

A stubborn man always says he is willing to change his mind if you can convince him he is wrong.

A man can think of a lot of reasons why he lost his money, and not once think of his poor judgment.

Usually it is easy enough to start an argument with the man who has plenty of his words at his command.

The man who is too fat, or too old, to run, always seems to have the most trouble with his hat blowing off.

The man who says he lives "close to nature," is not the one you will find doing the heavy work on a farm.

Every man who is pretty well satisfied if he were as important as a book agent tries to make him believe.

How disappointed the average girl is when she shows a young man her photo and he doesn't ask her for one.

A really young man is one who can show the visiting girl a good time without damaging his local fences.

The man of artistic temperament sees great beauty in a woman's soul if she looks all right in other particulars.

Since they have gone out of fashion, a man can boost his reputation as a fool pretty fast by wanting to fight a duel.

The man who thinks he is wise enough for his own luxury, probably is, if he is good enough to keep out of trouble.

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who saved the train from destruction by flagging it with her red petticoat?

The corset affords men what satisfaction they can get out of the belief that women are not as cool in warm weather as they look.

The card club women may laugh at the woman who asks if the poker is used in playing whist, but the men admire her.

If it is referred to as a "financial transaction," there is probably less real money involved than if it were merely called a "deal."

Say to a girl who owns a diamond ring, "You have a pretty diamond," and she is sure to say: "Yes, but it needs cleaning."

Every day you hear people complaining of being imposed upon by visitors. Do visitors know this? What's the matter with the hotels?

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who expected that the boys who played cards would eventually become a gambler?

There is nearly every kind of a town in this country except the one in which the loyal citizens won't insist they have the best looking girls.

There are a many qualities which may go toward making a man a favorite with his fellows, but wearing good clothes isn't among them.

Gossip is more entertaining than statistics, and for the average man makes just as effective a means of acquiring reliable information.

Lectures on economy don't reduce a boy's expenditures for peanuts and licorice until he wants to save money to buy skates or a bicycle outfit.

A woman may have the milk man, the grocer and the butcher bluffed, but she always tries to be diplomatic in her dealings with the washer-woman.

We have noticed that people who do exactly as they please, whether their friends like it or not, get along about as well as those who are always trying to please.

A man who only half tries to do everything else, puts forth a pretty good effort when it comes to complaining about the lack of appreciation in this world.

A scientist asserts that a sperm which swells an automobile, is not to be surprised if you see a few sperm whales flopping around some farmer's barnyard.

Billy ran from the head of the stairs where he had taken in the gist of the talk at the dining table below. In the nursery he found his younger brother.

"Gee, Jimmy," he cried, "mother's goin' to give it to daddy after the company's gone."

"How do you know?" demanded Jimmy.

"Why," answered Billy, "she's told her three times hand runnin' she was mistaken about somethin', and she only said, 'Why, darlin'.'"

Mr. Hirth, of Christiania, Norway, has invented a system of treating low grade iron ores in an electric smelter, with graphite as a reducing medium, instead of coal. He has been awarded a prize for his invention by the iron and steel institute. There are large quantities of graphite and of low grade ores in Norway, and the existence of water power makes the invention a valuable one if it can be worked well on a large scale.

from the same physical disturbances, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drift them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, organic troubles, ulceration, falling and displacements, or perhaps irregularity or suppression causing backache, nervousness, irritability, and sleeplessness.

Women everywhere should remember that the medicine that holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female ills is made from simple native roots and herbs. For more than thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, regulating the functions perfectly and overcoming pain. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for child-birth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. A. M. Hagermann, of Bay Shore, L. I., writes:—"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—'I suffered from a displacement, excessive and painful functions so that I had to lie down or sit still most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman so that I am able to attend to my duties. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see what relief it will give them.'"

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Therefore she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

THE "COOK LADIES' UNION."

Annie Yeamans's Characterization Becomes a Reality in New Zealand.

From the Indianapolis News.

Peace to the memory of Annie Yeamans—If the good old soul were in New Zealand now she would see her "Kook Ladies' Union" blossoming into reality. The sanctity of the New Zealand home is at last being invaded by government recognized unionism. Wellington and Christ church homes are in an uproar, and the mistresses are at white heat, and red in the face, all because the house servants have at last done what other workers in New Zealand have done—organized a union and presented a "bill of claims" with the invitation for the mistresses to sign or be brought into the arbitration court. The united army has been organized into eight corps at Wellington—housekeepers, lady helps, generalists, housemaids, nursemaids, kitchen maids, laundry maids and cooks; and at Christ church into ten classes, waitresses and nurse-in-charge being added. The wages demanded range from $3 a week for nursemaids to $6.25 for housekeepers, "generals" being scheduled at $7.75. They want the week's work limited to sixty-eight hours, which certainly seems reasonable, inasmuch as the government has given male workers the forty-eight hour week, shop and office clerks the fifty-two hour week, and female workers in factories a forty-five hour week. They do not wish to be ousted out of bed before 6:30 o'clock, wish to have Thursday afternoons and evenings up to midnight, wish time to go to church on Sunday or all Sunday afternoon, and wish all of the legal holidays, eight all told, and if required to work on those days to be paid a shilling an hour. They also ask the employers to furnish any required uniform—dress, caps, collars, cuffs and aprons—and that only union help be employed. They close the list with their most insistent demand, that employers provide well ventilated bedrooms for domestic workers. "They ask that all disagreements be arbitrated.

Women have more cause to be unhappy than men, but most of them keep fairly cheerful because melancholia is bad for the complexion.

He undeservedly noted an unseemly revolve in his wife's manner.

"Why do you look so sad, my love?" he asked.

"I was thinking of a poor little beggar child that came here this morning," replied his wife. "Just think, Charles, the poor child was only 8 years old, and her father was killed in the civil war and her mother died of sorrow within a year afterward."

FEARFUL BURNING SORES.

Boy in Misery Twelve Years—Eczema in Rough Scales, Itching and Inflamed—Cured by Cuticura.

"Cuticura has put a stop to twelve years of misery I passed with my son. As an infant I noticed on his body a red spot and treated same with different remedies for about five years, but when the spot began to get larger I put him under the care of doctors. Under their treatment the disease spread to four different parts of his body. During the day it would get rough and form like scales. At night it would be cracked, inflamed and badly swollen, with terrible burning and itching. One doctor told me that my son's eczema was incurable, and gave it up. I decided to give Cuticura a trial. When I had used the first box of Cuticura Ointment there was a great improvement, and by the time I had used the second set of Cuticura Remedies my child was cured. He is now twelve years old, and his skin is as fine and smooth as silk. Michael Steinman, 7 Sumner Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., April 16, 1905."

Table Etiquet.

A Denver man had a friend from a Kansas ranch in the city Saturday on a business deal, and at noon they went to a downtown restaurant and had lunch together, says the Denver Post. The Kansas ranchman ate his entire meal with his knife. When he finished he said to the Denver man, "I discovered that he had no fork."

"Say," he said to the Denver man, "that waiter didn't give me a fork."

"Well, you don't need one," replied the Denver man, seriously.

"The deuce I don't," came from the Kansan. "What am I going to stir my coffee with?"

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive food and the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hacking chronic coughs, bronchitis and nervous troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Dennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think it would be due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have had numerous orders sent me, but without avail and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

Undeserved Unseemly.

He undeservedly noted an unseemly revolve in his wife's manner.

"I was thinking of a poor little beggar child that came here this morning," replied his wife. "Just think, Charles, the poor child was only 8 years old, and her father was killed in the civil war and her mother died of sorrow within a year afterward."

According to History.

From July Harper's.

A New York man, who spends a portion of the summer each year in England, tells of an amusing incident in connection with his first visit to Richmond castle. On that occasion he was accompanied by a guide who relied for his information mainly on a guide-book, which, from time to time, he would furtively consult if he thought the visitor was not looking his way.

"What is the height of this fine old keep?" asked the New Yorker.

"According to history," replied the guide, "it's ninety-two feet."

Similar replies were made to other questions of a like nature, each being vouchsafed with the assurance that it was "according to history."

Finally there was reached a part of the battlements where the hill on which the castle stands descends abruptly to the river.

"Pretty steep descent!" exclaimed the American.

"Yes, sir," came from the guide, in his monotonous tone. "According to history, it's almost perpendicular!"

Tired Backs.

The kidneys have a great work to do in keeping the blood pure. When they get out of order it causes backache, headaches, dizziness, languor and distressing urinary troubles. Keep the kidneys well and all these sufferings will be saved you. Mrs. S. A. Moore, proprietor of a restaurant at Waterville, Mo., says:

"Before using Doan's Kidney Pills I suffered everything from kidney troubles for a year and a half. I had pain in the back and head, and almost continuous in the loins and felt weary all the time. A few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills brought great relief, and I kept on taking them until in a short time I was cured. I think Doan's Kidney Pills are wonderful."

From Osborne, Kas., Farmer's Village.

"Agamemnon," said I to one of the members of our church the other day, "aren't you going to give anything toward the preacher's salary this year?"

"No," he replied very emphatically, "I gave $5 one year ago and didn't get a bit more trade from the members, and I made up my mind that it was simply throwing money away."
