Fall Opening OF LADIES, MISSES & CHILDREN'S GARMENTS

For fifteen years I have successfully shown the trade of O'Neill and Holt county the Palmer Garment, and once more my ready to wear department is crowded with these popular coats and jackets, which during all these years have never failed to give perfect satisfaction.

From the best information I can obtain, the popular coat of this season will be a fifty in semi or tight fitting coat.

Anyone contemplating purchasing should not fail to investigate my lines.

BEAR SKIN JACKETS have aroused the stylish world and we illustrate in the above cut one of the many styles this fur has been made up in. They are beauties and and have proved one of the best articles in my cloak department.

P. J. McMANUS

Mrs. H. O. Jackson of Chicago visited at the home of her brother, L. G. Gillespie, here last week. She was accompanied home by her sister, Ruth Gillespie, who will attend school in Chicago.

Connie Quinn of Ewing was an O'Neill visitor Sunday.

Wm. Coyne, after a several months' stay at Ewing, returned to O'Neill Sunday night.

Miss Rose Matthews, who teaches in the public schools at Ewing, spent Sunday with her folks here.

Frank Clark has resigned his position with Arthur Ryan and left Sunday night for Coleridge where he has accepted a position for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ernst, Sr., returned Monday evening from a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends in South Dakota, and Sioux City and Le Mars, Iowa.

Ducks are said to be quite plentiful in the south country and several of the local nimrods are "spinning yarns" about the bags they have killed the past ten days.

J. B. Berry was in from the north country Monday. "Back" says his orchard is in splendid shape this season and that he will have a great crop of apples.

Arthur Benson, living on the Wynn place just east of town, has returned from a trip to his former home near Atlantic, Iowa. Although he has been here less than a year he says nothing could induce him to move back to Iowa.

Dan Harrington arrived in town Sunday night from Madison and Monday went to work in the grocery department of Mann's store, where he was employed some five years ago. Dan has been at Humphrey and Madison since leaving here.

Just opened for your inspection the largest and most complete line of fall and winter shoes and overshoes of all kinds for men, women and children, and at prices that beats them all. Come and see us; you can save money.

Ann Carroll O'Neill, the aged mother of Hugh O'Neill, died at the home of her son thirty miles north of here last week, the remains being brought to town Sunday for interment. The funeral occurred at St. Patrick's church in this city. The deceased was eighty-two years of age.

Madison Star-Mall: It is with deep regret that the Star-Mall chronicles the fact that Dan Harrington, the manager of the grocery department of the D. Q. Nicholson store, will leave Madison on Oct. 1st and remove to his old home at O'Neill where he has a similar position offered him and at the same time be in a better position to be with his parents in their declining years. Dan Harrington has been a prime favorite in Madison and we voice the sentiment of the entire community when we say that we regret to see him leave.

Ed Alberts left for Herrick, S. D., Tuesday morning where he will play ball three days with the Neligh team. The O'Neill team was requested to go up there and play during their tournament, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but the boys thought the weather was getting a little too cool for base ball.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Houlihan of Crawfordsville, Ind., who have been visiting Mr. Houlihan's uncle, John Enright, the past three weeks, left for their home Tuesday morning. Mr. Houlihan is the owner of a fine farm about five miles northwest of the city and says he may return in a year or build upon his farm and make his permanent residence in old Holt.

Mrs. Ida Peterson of Beaver Crossing is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Cowperthwaite. Yesterday Mrs. Peterson made a record at angling. She accompanied a party of friends to South Fork on a fishing trip and had the good fortune to bring in a 10-pound pickerel as a trophy of the day's sports. The fish measured 32 inches in length by 18 in girth, and weighed 10 1/2 pounds. The party caught eight fish in all; mostly small pickerel. The head of the 10-pounder was exhibited at Gallagher's store yesterday to prove that a big one was actually caught, besides witnesses were called in at the weighing and measuring before the decapitation took place.

Speed On, Dave Stannard's fast pacer, is still winning the money. At La Crosse, Wis., on Tuesday of last week, he got first money in the 2:24 pace; purse $600. Time 2:18 1/2. In this race were four other fast horses, with marks of 2:13 1/2 and 2:15. Speed On was fourth in the first heat, first in the second, second in the third, and won the fourth and fifth, which demonstrates his staying qualities. On last Friday he was entered in the 2:30 pace, purse $500, and won the race in three straight heats. Time 2:17 1/2. Considering that this is the first season he has been campaigned he is making a splendid record and will show some of the speedy ones how to go next season.

The Tuesday Club held its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Adams. The meeting proved to be profitable as well as enjoyable. The program which was carried out in full consisted of papers and talks on the life and works of the poet, Longfellow. Mrs. Gallagher read a paper on the "Delineation of His Character;" Mrs. Flynn on "His Poetry and Kinds of;" Mrs. Mote talked on "Why is Hiawatha the Greatest American Poem?" Mrs. Harrington's paper gave us a good insight into the characteristics represented by Evangeline; and Mrs.

Golden's subject was "Acadia, as Given in Evangeline and as Known in History." The program closed with roll call and quotations from Longfellow. Secretary.

Tragedy at Chambers.
 David Dorothy of Chicago, a brother of E. and J. E. Dorothy of Chambers, met a tragic death over near Chambers Tuesday afternoon. His mangled body was found by his brother, J. E. Dorothy, in a grove between the Dorothy place and W. B. Cooper's. A great hole was torn in the abdomen, the left side of his face shot off and his throat hacked and gashed. A blood stained knife and a shotgun lay beside the body, one hand still holding to the gun. The ground was stained with blood at two places twelve feet apart, showing that the accident or attempt upon his own life was followed by a second struggle where he fell.
 Mr. Dorothy, in company with his wife, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Searer, was visiting with relatives and friends in and about Chambers and was enjoying an outing fishing and hunting. He was a nurse in a hospital at Chicago and stopped here on his way home from California where he had been for the benefit of his wife's health.
 The day of the tragedy they had been out for a hunt. Coming in Mrs. Dorothy stopped at the home of her parents while Mr. Dorothy went on toward his brother's place. The next saw of him was when his brother was riding through the grove going after cattle and came upon the mangled remains by accident. He had evidently shot himself twice and cut his throat with a pocket knife, Coroner Flynn says, he having been called there to hold an inquest. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting. Mr. Dorothy and wife expected to leave the next day for Chicago.
 The remains were buried at Chambers after the inquest, which was held Wednesday.
