A. E. Rich will hold his annual sale of Poland China and Duroc Jersey hogs on the 20th of November, 1907, at his farm six miles west and one mile north of Creighton, Neb. Write for catalog. A. E. Rich.
United States Senator Norris Brown will discuss the political issues of the day at the court house next Tuesday evening, October 29. Senator Brown is one of the ablest orators in the state and he should be greeted with a crowded house.
Mr. and Mrs. James McManus and two children of Chicago arrived in the city last Sunday evening to attend the Horriskey-McManus wedding. Jim is engaged in the grocery business at Edgewater, one of the most aristocratic residence sections of the city, and is prospering, a fact which his many O'Neill friends will be pleased to learn.
James Enright, who lives on the old John Cronin farm about five miles northwest of O'Neill, suffered a severe loss from fire last Sunday afternoon. His barn with contents was burned. The barn contained 1200 bushels of speltz and oats, two horses, three sets of harness, a new riding plow and a new endgate seeder. Mr. Enright was at his father's, a little over a half mile southwest, when the fire started and when he reached home the fire had gained such headway that he was unable to save anything. He had no insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Horriskey-McManus
A very pretty wedding was that which was solemnized at the Catholic church last Tuesday morning, which united in marriage Joseph C. Horriskey and Miss Susie S. McManus, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating. Arthur F. Duffy was groomsman and Miss Mamie McManus, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.
The bride is a young lady whose friends in O'Neill and vicinity are limited only by her acquaintance. For several years she has been the efficient bookkeeper in the general merchandise store of her brother, P. J., and with her sweet, amiable disposition and kindly ways won the esteem and friendship of all with whom she came in contact.
The groom has been a resident of O'Neill and vicinity since childhood. For the past five years he has been engaged in the grocery business and by frugality and close attention to business has succeeded in building up a prosperous business.
After the ceremony, the bridal couple went to their future home, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party. This happy young couple enter upon the journey of life together under the most favorable auspices. The Frontier joins their many friends in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous journey.
Bankrupt Clothing and Shoe Sale.
Having made very large purchases of clothing and shoes in New York at the bankrupt sale of Blum & Rosenthal, we will put the entire purchase on sale for the next thirty days at prices that will cause you to stop breathing for a little while and say oh, how I have been robbed buying clothing and shoes at old time prices. It pays to look for bargains before you buy your fall overcoats, suits for men and boys; shoes, the best on earth; overshoes that will keep your feet warm and at prices that nobody can match. Come and get our price and you will be convinced. Sale will commence Saturday, Oct. 26th, and will continue indefinitely. 18-1 Sullivan & Co.
Cash Paid For Poultry.
Bring in your poultry to J. T. Yantzi, the O'Neill poultry man, and get the cash for them. 15-4-p

The republican county candidates will address the voters on local issues and the financial conditions of the county, at the Bellar school-house in Shields precinct on Monday evening, October 28. Everybody welcome.

Bids will be received up until 12 o'clock of the 6th day of November, 1907. Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. W. P. Sinar, County Clerk. 18-2
A Word From a School Officer.
O'Neill, Oct. 21.—Editor Frontier: I have been a director in school district No. 171 for several years and I want to say that Miss Florence Zink, our present county superintendent, is the best superintendent the county ever had. During the years others had the office they were content to sit by a warm fire in the court-house and let the schools take care of themselves. But Miss Zink visits the schools and makes good, practical suggestions to teachers and pupils in language that all can understand.
Miss Zink is entitled to re-election, and I hope that everyone who has the welfare of our schools at heart will vote for her. T. D. Harrington.
Tuesday Club.
The Tuesday Club will hold its next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Dowling on Oct. 29th. Program: The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. New York in its early history and location of above. Mrs. Scott.
