 Improved farms in Eastern Nebraska and Iowa, also income property clear of incumbrance to exchange for ranch land. Send me a full description of your land if you wish to sell or exchange and I will find you a buyer.—Fred L. Barclay, Stuart, Nebraska. 11-12
 "The Rogues" came in from their hunting trip to the lakes in southwestern Holt last Saturday night. During their hunt, which lasted all last week, they bagged about 180 ducks of different kinds. They succeeded in getting very few red heads and canvas backs and the boys are of the opinion that these ducks have not started upon their southern flight yet, as the weather in the Dakotas and in Minnesota has remained too fine. A few days of cold weather would undoubtedly start them southward and several local nimrods are promising themselves a few days shooting in the rice patches in the southern part of the county.

 Sheriff Hall was passing around the cigars last Sunday with a smile all over his countenance. He received a telegram from Leavenworth, Wash., announcing that a son was born to his daughter, Mrs. G. A. Hamilton. The O'Neill friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton extend congratulations.

Temporarily the Journal will be issued from the Tribune office. The newspaper men of Nebraska and Iowa hope that the Journal will come out of this disaster brighter and better than ever.
 Bob Rumsey Shoots Himself.
 A special to the Norfolk News from Butte, Nebr., dated Nov. 4, says: Robert Rumsey, an old resident of this part of the country, shot himself Saturday twice in the head. One shot took effect in the back of the head, cutting a deep gash several inches long, while the other bullet went in near the right temple and came out at top of his head, penetrating the brain, a portion of which was oozing out through the wound when he was found. A revolver was used. Mr. Rumsey had been in the insane asylum twice and fear of being sent again, was the cause of the rash deed. "Bob" as he was familiarly known, was about fifty years old and leaves a wife and a large family of children. The end was momentarily expected.
