From A Pioneer Resident.
The following is taken from a recent issue of the Norfolk News. Old timers will remember Joe Hall as having been in the saloon business in this city along about 1878-9 or 1880:
"The following letter was recently received by Thomas Kryger from the old-time cow puncher 'Joe Hall' or F. J. Simmons as he signs himself. Joe Hall was his assumed name while in the Elkhorn valley. The letter is dated Bronson, Texas, where he is now living.
"Old Friend Tommy: Yours of a late date received a day or two since and I need not say was pursued with considerable more than ordinary pleasure. It furnished reminiscences of a happy bygone when my life was so badly wrecked and morals so badly shattered that I did not value life nor dread death as much as you might have supposed. I expect I would have shot quicker than you ever thought. I got wrecked just after the war by killing a negro in a large town in Louisiana. That and the Indian, Grey Eyes, were the only two men that I ever killed and I am glad of both of those as anything I ever did. I shot another white man and cut another white man bad and this is the most of my troubles. My conscience is as clear as anybody's.

"I belong to the church and truly believe that I am a christian. You never in your life saw a man with as much change. My morals are good, I never swear, never get tight and for two years I suppose I never touched whiskey, but for a number of years I took an occasional drink. You did not tell me what became of McCormick, the old Pen and Plow editor. You asked me what I am doing. I have quit shucking pumpkins and now I wagon for a livelihood. You also asked me if I ever got over my fall. I am still a little lame, but stout, and broke many of the worst horses in Texas for money. I have quit now—am getting most too old, 57 years. Doesn't that sound strange? Send me your photo and I will send you mine as soon as I get to an artist—there is none here at present.
"What has become of Joe Milligan, Loren Means and Troy Hale of Battle Creek and did Battle Creek ever amount to much? I reckon you will get tired answering questions. I am living happy now, have a nice little home all paid for in a hustling town. If you want to do the job of your whole life, come to Texas. This country is knew, building up and fine land, fine climate for health. There are many northern people all over the state and you couldn't run them off. Well I will close, write soon, answer all of the letter and write a long letter on the outside.
Your true friend,
F. J. Simmons, (Joe Hall).

in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or of attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.

TWO MORE DOCTORS INDICTED
True Ellis Returned Against Rohlf and Chagee at Waverly.
Waverly, Ia., Nov. 6.—The Bremer county grand jury, which a few weeks ago indicted fourteen members of the county medical association, alleging violation of the anti-trust law, reported additional indictments against Dr. W. A. Rohlf and Dr. O. L. Chagee on the general ground of conspiracy. Their alleged offense resulted from their adherence to the boycott feature of the association agreement which operated to force an independent doctor from a surgical case in which he, as well as one of the accused doctors, had been employed after he had refused to sign the union scale.

ARRIVAL OF FIRST TREASURE SHIP FEATURE OF DAY.
BANKERS SEE END OF WORRY
Steamer Kron Prinzessin Cecelie Unloads $7,100,000 in Yellow Metal and Lusitania Will Follow With $10,000,000 More—Extra-Session Not Likely.
New York, Nov. 6.—The arrival of the first treasure ship laden with gold for the relief of the present stringency was the feature of the financial situation. The Kron Prinzessin Cecelie unloaded $7,100,000 in the yellow metal, which will go to strengthen New York bank reserves. The new Cunard liner Lusitania will follow closely in her wake with $10,000,000, and $14,000,000 more will follow during the remainder of the week and early next week.
The additional withdrawals from the Bank of England for the United States brings up the total gold engagements on the present movement to about $36,600,000. The news that the Bank of France bought $2,000,000 in sterling bills on London was regarded here as an event of the first importance, as indicating that French financiers were not only able, but willing to help London, and thus indirectly help America, by relieving the strain on the Bank of England caused by the heavy American demands for gold. It is hoped that this action of the Bank of France will deter the Bank of England from raising its discount rate to 7 per cent at the meeting of the directors tomorrow and the Imperial Bank of Germany from raising the rate from 6 1/2 to 7 1/2 per cent. The inference is drawn that it is likely to have this effect, because not since 1873 has the Bank of England rate been above 6 per cent, and only for twelve days in each of the years 1899 and 1900 has the German rate been above 6 per cent since 1870.
The presence of Secretary Cortelyou in the city gave an opportunity for further conferences with Mr. Morgan and other leading bankers. The secretary came over from Washington with President Roosevelt to vote and on his way back from his home at Hempstead, L. I., decided to stop off and learn of the financial situation. Besides Mr. Morgan, Secretary Cortelyou saw George W. Perkins and one or two other bankers, who acquainted him with the progress of events. He was told that the situation in New York was rapidly improving, because of the developments in the last twenty-four hours.
Those who saw Secretary Cortelyou are convinced that there is no intention of President Roosevelt to call an extra session of congress to pass remedial financial legislation, as it is understood the administration feels that the situation should settle down to a basis where a proper judgment can be formed on the various proposed changes in the present monetary laws. It was further stated that the administration has not yet definitely shaped the plans of financial legislation which it may desire to have considered at the coming session of congress.

KOHLSAAT ENJOINS LAW SUIT
Stops Request for Receiver for Corn Products Company in State Court.
Chicago, Nov. 5.—Judge Kohlsaat in the United States circuit court issued an injunction restraining George F. Harding from prosecuting in the state courts the suit recently started by Harding, asking for the appointment of a receiver for the Corn Products company. It is claimed in the plea for an injunction that a similar suit was brought some time ago by a company of which Harding is the head, and that the present action contemplated by him is merely an attempt to harass the Corn Products company. Final hearing on the application for an injunction will be had on Nov. 12. Harding, in his application for a receiver, alleged that the Standard Oil company, in connection with certain individuals, had conspired to wreck the Corn Products company.

Keymen Vote to "Suspend" Strike.
Chicago, Nov. 6.—A secret vote of striking telegraph operators resulted in a decision to recommend to the national executive board that the strike be "suspended." The executive committee will hold a meeting this morning and after listening to a report from the committee which has been seeking to make terms with the telegraph companies in New York, will act on the recommendation. The vote stood 212 for adoption of the resolution and 109 against.

President Receives Returns.
Washington, Nov. 6.—After returning to Washington from Oyster Bay, where he went to vote, President Roosevelt received election returns at the executive offices. Secretary Loeb was with the president, but no announcement of any kind was issued from the White House in comment on the returns.
Sutton Defeats Schaefer.
Chicago, Nov. 6.—George Sutton successfully defended his title as champion eighteen-two billiard player by defeating Jacob Schaefer, the score being 500 to 241.
Fire Wipes Out Stock Yards.

More Than Enough is Too Much.
To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and liver tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.
For Chronic Diarrhoea.
"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton, of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief until Mr. A. W. Miles of this place persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by Gilligan & Stout.
