

LOCAL MATTERS.

Buy an overcoat for $4 at the Cash Store. 24

C. E. Downey was a Stuart visitor Tuesday.

County Clerk Simar was at Atkinson Tuesday.

A suit of clothes for men for $4.80 at the Cash Store. 24

Thomas Halldorson is spending the week at Bassett.

R. G. Kruger of Neligh spent last Sunday in the city.

Men's black clay worsted suits for $7.50, at the Cash Store. 24

R. R. Dickson had business in Omaha a few days this week.

Twenty per cent discount on all merchandise at the Cash Store. 24

We have the coal—worth the money here in town—Con Keys.

Men's heavy underwear for 40 cents a garment at the Cash Store.

Joe Cowperthwaite had business at Neligh a day or two this week.

Night robes for everyone at twenty per cent discount at the Cash Store.

F. B. Stearns and Roy Hunt of Stuart were O'Neill visitors last Sunday.

Pat O'Donnell was down from Atkinson a few days the first of the week.

Attorney S. D. Thornton of Neligh was in the city on legal business last Friday.

Guy Saberson of Allen visited at the home of his uncle, O. O. Snyder, Wednesday.

There will be services at the Episcopal church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

C. E. Howe is in Omaha this week attending court as a member of the federal grand jury.

Fred Barclay, the hustling real estate dealer of Stuart, was an O'Neill visitor last Monday.

M. J. Enright went to Omaha Tuesday morning to spend a week sight-seeing in the metropolis.

Mrs. T. F. Donahoe left Tuesday morning for Colo, Iowa, to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. F. McNichols.

J. H. Diehl, one of The Frontier's Atkinson subscribers, was a caller Wednesday and renewed for another year.

Clyde Mills, the 16-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mills, is quite ill, suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Frank Campbell, jr., went to Lincoln the first of the week to drive up an automobile for an Atkinson real estate dealer.

Miss Anna Dwyer returned to Omaha Sunday morning after a couple of weeks visit with her parents and other relatives here.

Mrs. John Sturdevant and children of Stuart were guests at the home of Mrs. Sturdevant's parents here a few days last week and this.

M. W. Holcomb, of the general mercantile firm of Holcomb & Feyerherm, of Amelia, was a business caller at this office yesterday.

Will Dwyer, who came up from Omaha to spend Thanksgiving, returned to his studies at Creighton college Monday morning.

Mrs. P. F. McNichols and son, Joe,

A Revelation of Everything Novel in CHRISTMAS GOODS

Go where you may and you'll not find a display of such absorbing interest. The question of "what shall I buy for Christmas?" finds a ready answer in the superb Holiday lines we have to offer this season. Special new and interesting toys for the children, beautiful toilet sets for ladies, novelties innumerable, chinaware and cut glass, albums, Christmas cards, books suitable for children or adults, and everything that goes to make up a complete and interesting stock for Holiday shoppers. We can't begin to tell you of the half we have, but you can come in and see all of it. Come and see everything, everybody.

PIXLEY & HANLEY O'NEILL, NEBRASKA

took the early train Monday morning for Colo, Iowa, to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. F. McNichols.

W. H. Livingston of Sioux City, who put in a week quail shooting out at Louie Stebner's on the Eagle, returned to his home Monday morning.

B. E. Short came up from Sioux City Wednesday evening. Mr. Short is the contractor who is building the K. C. hall and opera house in this city.

Rev. E. E. Dillon was up from Neligh Tuesday and sold his residence property here to Michael Holland, who will move to town from his farm west of here.

PERSONAL—I have important news for Alvin B. Quimby from Vermont. Reward for his address.—A. W. Woodard, 1822 H. Street Lincoln, Nebr. 24-3

The apparatus for a heating plant in the First National bank block has arrived and that building will be heated by steam as soon as the plant can be installed.

Mrs. A. J. Hammond and Miss Anna Sullivan left for Colo, Iowa, last Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. F. McNichols, who was buried there yesterday.

Strayed—From my pasture seven miles northwest of O'Neill, on or about October 15, one three-year old steer, branded S on right hip. Suitable reward.—J. B. Ryan, O'Neill, Nebr. 24-3

A little flurry among the bulls and bears of the New York stock exchange has no effect on their solidity.

Miss Mary McGee, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Early, the past three weeks, left for North Bend Monday morning where she will visit her sister for a few days and then go on to Washington where will resume her position in the department of Commerce and Labor.

Arthur Ryan returned from St. Joseph, Mo., last Monday night where he had spent Thanksgiving with his wife and three-weeks old son. Art says the boy is a daisy and while he does not think the boy will be able to hold a position on next year's ball team he thinks he will be able to qualify as one of the rooters.

Jack Sullivan, John McKenna and Ed Maughan went to Crawford Tuesday night to witness the twenty round fight between Dewey and Mustain. The fight was pulled off at Crawford last night and went twenty rounds to a draw. In a message to E. S. Eves Jack Sullivan said Dewey had away the best of it all the way through.

There was a fire scare at the home of R. R. Dickson Monday night. A large hanging lamp fell to the floor and spurted burning kerosene over the carpet and furniture. The fire was extinguished before any great amount of damage was done, though things in the vicinity of the flaming oil were considerably scorched.

Harry Wilson, who was the star catcher of the O'Neill ball team last season, has signed with the Lincoln Western League team for the season of 1908. Roy Bradley, O'Neill's last seasons crack twirler and "our own" Eddie Alberts have also signed with the same team. These boys are all good ball players and the best wishes of the O'Neill fans and fanettes will accompany them and hope they make "good" in fast company.

CHAMBERS.
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clauson left here Wednesday for a trip to Iowa and Illinois where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. W. Smith and children of Sioux City are here getting settled in the house formerly occupied by Ace Fouts. Hubert expects to be able to come next week.

Chambers lodge I. O. O. F. last Tuesday evening elected the following officers for the next term: D. B. Perkins, past grand; E. V. Sageser, noble grand; F. D. Smith, vice grand; Edward Adams, treasurer; E. F. Porter, secretary.—The Bugle.

ATKINSON.
Howard Greeley is over from South Dakota this week, calling on friends and relatives.

G. R. Wycoff of Madison came up Wednesday and assisted in initiating several new members in the Woodmen lodge that evening.

S. D. Orcutt, on account of the recent loss of his sheds and hay by fire on his Kinkaid homestead, will move to town for the winter.

W. D. Townsend and Ed George of Omaha arrived Saturday for a few days shoot among the quail; while here they will be guests at the home of Sam Becker.

C. B. Gregory came up from Lincoln last Thursday and visited with his wife and her mother, Mrs. Julia Miner, until Monday, when he and Mr. Gregory left for their home.

Supervisor Root was in Atkinson Wednesday after the lumber to repair the bridge over the Elkhorn south of town. He says the bridge is in bad condition, caused by the breaking of the stringers in one of the spans and forces people who travel that way to ford the river.—The Graphic.

Censorious Sisters.
"I didn't think you'd get so angry because I said I thought you ought to wear gray suede shoes with your gray dress instead of white ones. I didn't mean to offend you," her friend very sweetly apologized.

"Never mind," she returned softly. "It was all right, but it made me angry for two reasons—first, because I had to wear the white shoes because I didn't have any others that were presentable, and second, because when I left my family of sisters, who made every possible sort of comment on my clothes, I declared I would never stand it from anybody else. I said to myself that whenever a friend got so friendly that she thought she could treat me like a sister I'd shake her."—New York Press.

Artistic Dishes for Christmas

WE ARE SHOWING THIS YEAR FOR HOLIDAY GIFT BUYERS VERY COMPLETE LINES IN THESE GOODS

Fancy pieces in Japanese, China and German; large line of Fancy Lamps, Jardinières and Glassware

J. C. Horiskey

Mike Lyons was down from Emmet yesterday. He is happy because he was not the owner of several thousand shares of railroad stock and did not lose a million or two in the recent financial flurry.

John Brennan returned to Omaha Sunday morning after spending Thanksgiving at the home of his parents in this city. John has a good position in the shipping department of the wholesale hardware firm of Lee Glass Anderson Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McCarthy left for Omaha this morning where they expect to remain this winter. Jerry figures that he will be able to pull off a few "scraps" with ambitious youngsters in the metropolis of Nebraska during the winter months.

Holiday advertisers show their wisdom in beginning early and also in selecting The Frontier as a medium through which to reach the people. The Frontier's list of home readers, growing every day, is nearly two to one over its nearest competitor.

I have a complete moving outfit and am prepared to move buildings anywhere in the county. Will move buildings 24-foot wide and under and not over 40-foot long for $10 per day and expenses from the time I leave home.—B. G. Hanna, Chambers, Nebr. 24-4

The statement of the O'Neill National bank appears in another column and it is a statement of which any banking institution might be proud of. The statement shows cash on hand, in the bank vault, $26,991.23, while the total cash and sight exchange amounts to $49,052.66. The deposits are about the same as at the time of the last statement. The O'Neill banks are it splendid shape.

EWING.
The neighbors out on South Fork realizing the unfortunate condition in which Jay Booth has been placed by the serious illness of his wife, kindly went to work one day lately and husked all his corn and put it in the crib. Such kindly acts denote true friendship and bears out the old saying, "a friend in need is a friend indeed."

S. H. Trussell got his team mixed up in an unusual manner coming to town Monday. He was driving four horses and when about a mile from town one of the horses hitched to the

STUART.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Flannigan, sr., have been enjoying a visit from their children, who have been attending school at O'Neill.

Dr. D. L. Thompson of Gothenburg, Nebr., was in Stuart Saturday of last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chittick.

Mrs. Lizzie Frey of Platte Center, Nebr., and Mrs. Agnes Moffett of Battle Creek, are spending Thanksgiving in Stuart with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Ripp.

Frank Bailey started for Loveland,

Cole's Jewelry Store

IS THE PLACE TO FIND THAT PRESENT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR!

Superb new lines of the best articles on the market today from the very best manufacturers in America and abroad in the following:

Silverware
Table Services
Wellerware
Chinaware
Cut Glass

Also full line of Watches, Clocks, Diamonds and Rings
Nice Assortment of Stringed Instruments.
F. B. COLE, O'NEILL, NEB.

Ask Your Own Doctor

If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. But we know what he will say; for doctors have used this cough medicine over 60 years.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for hard colds, bad coughs, and influenza. It has done me great good, and I believe it is the best cough medicine in the world for all throat and lung troubles."—E. L. C. STUART, Albany, Oregon.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of Ayer's
SARSAPARILLA,
PILLS,
HAIR VIGOR.

Keep the bowels open with one of Ayer's Pills at bedtime, just one.

Colo., this morning. Mr. Bailey hopes to be improved in health by the change and may locate there permanently if he finds just what he wants.—The Advocate.