NUMBER 32

LOCAL MATTERS.

Don't forget Flavin's sale on February 6.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Snyder returned from Omaha last Friday.

John Hayes was down from Ewing Monday, visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Grady.

W. W. Bethea was up from Ewing Monday and made this office a pleasant call, to renew his subscription.

For Sale—One choice lot, with five room cottage and barn, one block from school house.—H. F. Ihne. 30-3rd

Mrs. Jeanette Taylor was over from Boyd county the first of the week, looking after some legal matters.

R. R. Dickson was called to Osage, Iowa, last Sunday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his mother.

Arthur Barrett, Tim McCarthy and Andrew Clark were callers Monday, renewing their subscription to this reliable family journal.

Earl LaViolette, who has been at West Superior, Wis., the past eight months, returned home last Thursday night for a month's visit.

John Grutsch, one of The Frontier's old-time friends, was in from the north country Wednesday and called to renew his subscription.

All those interested in the lamp at J. C. Horriskey's are requested to be at the store next Saturday evening as it will be given away on that date.

The Presbyterian ladies will hold an exchange at Mann's store Saturday afternoon, come and get your pies, cakes, etc., for your Sunday dinner.

County Assessor Skidmore is up from Ewing this week preparing his list of precinct assessors to submit to the county board for their ratification.

Mrs. John A. Harmon returned from Omaha Tuesday evening. She says Mr. Harmon is getting along nicely and will be able to come home in about ten days.

Frank Harnish came home from Cherokee, Iowa, last week for a couple of weeks visit with his parents. Frank has a good position in the insane asylum at Cherokee and likes the work.

The Ladies' Working Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. F. Jordan, Thursday, January 30, at 2 o'clock, and with Mrs. J. A. Cowperthwaite, February 6, at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Younkin left Monday morning for Lincoln where they will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives. They will also visit for a time at their old home in Beatrice.

An old saying is that an ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure. Keep well by using Bliss Native Herbs, which is a preventive as well as a cure. Every package guaranteed or money refunded at Alberts Harness shop. 32-4.

Mrs. E. R. Adams entertained very delightfully eight ladies at six o'clock dinner on Thursday last. After dinner bridge whist was played and Mrs. C. E. Stout scoring the most points captured the prize, a beautiful Haviland cup and saucer.

The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be with Mrs. Bright, February 5, 1908. The state executive committee of the W. C. T. U. of Nebraska met in Lincoln January 27 and 28. Mrs. A. S. Younkin was sent as a delegate from Holt county.

The county board braved the northern winds last Tuesday and drove over to the Whiting bridge on a tour of inspection. A new steel bridge was built there this fall and they say it is far the best bridge in this part of the state. They returned yesterday.

L. L. Mandeville, residing about seven miles northeast of town, has leased his farm to two young men from near Grand Island and he will move into town and take things easy. Mr. Mandeville expects to have a large sale of his personal effects about March 1.

Last week Wyant & Milligan, the hustling hay dealers, built an addition to one of their hay storage barns 50x66 feet with 16 foot posts, 33-foot to the eaves. This addition now gives this firm a storage capacity of 2000 tons. They have in the barns now about 1500 tons.

For Rent or Sale—My farm 10 miles northeast of O'Neill, 480 acres, all under fence, 160 acres in cultivation. Good 6 room house; barn 40x50, granary, corn cribs, etc., and a nice growing orchard. For the next ninety days will give good terms to the right parties.—Patrick Regan. 30-3

Mr. and Mrs. Cam Tinsley are the proud parents of a daughter, born Wednesday morning. Mother and child are doing nicely, while Cam and Grandpa Parker are spending their spare time, the past forty-eight hours, memorizing nursery rhymes with which to entertain the young lady.

N. B. Nesbit returned from Enid, Oklahoma, last Saturday night, where he went a week ago to judge the field trials. Nat says that it is a great country around Enid and the trials were very successful. M. E. McMichael, formerly a barber in this city, had dogs entered in the trials and won $400. Mr. Nesbit says he has developed into a good handler and has a fine string of dogs.

A will written in Bohemian was filed for probate in county court last Tuesday. The will was that of Joseph Skrala of Stuart township and was dated March 3, 1904. Mr. Skrala died on December 23, last. As Judge Malone's education in the Bohemian language had been neglected an interpreter was secured who translated the will into English. Joseph Skrala, a son of the deceased, was appointed administrator.

Mrs. T. F. Birmingham entertained at her beautiful home on Wednesday, from five till nine o'clock. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. McVay of Omaha and Mrs. Ryan of Neligh and was perfect in appointment. The decorations consisted of a profusion of pink carnation and fern. A delicious luncheon was daintily served at 7 o'clock, after which cards were resumed. Mrs. Ed F. Gallagher and Miss Zink scoring the same number of points, Mrs. Gallagher gracefully withdrew in favor of Miss Zink. The prize being a hand painted rose jar.

On account of a recent order of the postoffice department, effective January 1, 1908, all subscriptions to weekly papers must be paid within a year, or the publisher will be compelled to place a one cent stamp on each paper. The Frontier has a large number of subscribers who are a year or more in arrears and we hope that they will call promptly and pay up their arrears and one year in advance. Now is the time to call and square up.

Three of the children of L. E. Harding, who lost his wife last Friday, have been sick with pneumonia and it was feared for a time that the eldest boy could not survive the attack, but he has passed the crisis and the attending physician, Dr. Flynn, says that he is now getting along nicely. The other children are also recovering. Miss Ida Hamilton, sister-in-law of Mr. Harding came up from her home at Albion to take care of the children during their illness.

On Saturday last Mrs. H. P. Dowling entertained in a very elaborate and charming way. Twelve ladies were present and high five was the game. Places were found by means of cards attached to pink carnations. The color scheme throughout was pink and white. At 7 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served after which cards were resumed and at the end of the game Mrs. McVay of Omaha was found to have won the prize, a beautiful hand painted salt and pepper shaker.

At the meeting of Holt Camp No. 1710, Modern Woodmen of America, last Tuesday night, fifteen new applications for adoption were presented. Deputy McKee is doing good work and it is expected that there will be a class of at least fifty inducted into the mysteries of Woodcraft on February 11. There will be a meeting held next Monday night when the officers elect for 1908 will be installed and a little social gathering afterward which will wind up with an oyster supper. All members are urged to be present on Monday, February 3.

Henry Martfeldt was down from Emmet yesterday and made a business call at this office renewing his subscription. Mr. Martfeldt informed us that he had traded his farm north of Emmet for a hotel at Newport and that he would move up there to assume his new duties, as caterer to the hungry, about March 1. The Frontier regrets to see such a desirable citizen as Mr. Martfeldt leave old Holt but wish him happiness and prosperity in his new home. The Frontier will accompany him to his new home to keep him posted on affairs in old Holt.

Mrs. Bessie Myers who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Snyder, the past few weeks, left Monday morning for Lincoln, where she will visit relatives and friends for a week and will then go to Lancaster, Colo., where Mr. Myers has located and which will be their future home. Mr. Myers went to Lancaster a couple of months ago and put in a stock of general merchandise and is also interested, with other Nebraskans, in the Lancaster State bank of which he is vice-president. The O'Neill friends of Mr. and Mrs. Myers hope that prosperity will smile upon them in their new home.

A. R. Johnson of this city, a brakeman on the Burlington railroad, was seriously hurt last Monday night at Dixon, by being knocked from the top of a freight car, by the protruding spout of a water tank. He had a shoulder dislocated and was internally injured. The injured man was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Sioux City. The physician who made an examination of Johnson, on his arrival in Sioux City said there was no bones broken, but that the injured man was suffering from a slight concussion of the brain. The latest reports from Sioux City are to the effect that the injured man is rapidly recovering and will be around in a few days. The injured man is about twenty-seven years old and has a wife and child. They have been resident of this city about two months.

By request of the postoffice department Postmaster Marsh desires to call attention to the practice of some patrons of rural delivery of placing loose coins in their boxes each time they desire to dispatch letters instead of supplying themselves with postage in advance of their needs. This practice imposes undue hardship on rural carriers in removing loose coins from boxes and delays them on the service of their routes. The postmaster, therefore, urgently requests that patrons of rural delivery provide themselves and keep on hand a supply of stamps consistent with and in advance of their needs. It is also very desirable that rural patrons place in their mail boxes small detachable cups of wood or tin in which to place coins, when necessary, in purchasing supplies of stamps.

Timmermier's Fined $75.

On the grounds that the county court did not have jurisdiction the case of the State of Nebraska vs. John and George Timmermier was dismissed by the county attorney last Tuesday. This is the case wherein the Timmermiers, who are druggists at Page, were arrested upon a complaint of Ernst Wiseman for having sold whiskey and beer to Amos and Pearl Scott. The complaint was filed the forepart of January.

Immediately after the dismissal of the above suit the county attorney filed a complaint against the Timmermiers in which it was alleged that on or about the 8th day of January, 1908, in the County of Holt and State of Nebraska they did unlawfully, willfully and intentionally sell and give away to one John Doe, real name unknown, a certain quantity of malt, spirituous and vinous liquors which said liquors were adulterated with injurious substances other than malt, spirituous and vinous liquors contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the state of Nebraska. Defendants appeared in court without the issuance of a summons and plead guilty to the above charge and Judge Malone fined them $75 and costs, which defendants paid.

Death of Mrs. L. E. Harding.

Mrs. Lena G. Harding died at her home about twelve miles north of this city last Friday night, after an illness of but a few days, of congestion of the lungs.

Deceased was taken down with a severe attack of the grip on January 18 and on January 19 gave birth to a little girl. The attack of grip developed into an attack of pneumonia and, although all that medical science or loving hands and hearts could do was done, the dread disease could not be overcome and she passed peacefully away at midnight on Friday, January 24, just one week after being taken sick.

Mrs. Harding was born at St. Joseph, Mo., March 27, 1878, and was married to L. E. Harding October 14, 1900, she being a widow at that time with two children and Mr. Harding a widower with four children. To them were born three children, the youngest being a baby who will never know a mother's love and care. The eldest is a boy fifteen years old. Mrs. Harding was a kind, loving and indulgent wife and mother, and possessed many admirable traits that endeared her to all her neighbors and friends.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by the Presbyterian minister of this city and the remains interred in the Protestant cemetery, being followed to their final resting place by a large concourse of friends and neighbors. The Frontier tenders Mr. Harding and the orphaned children its heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow.

Obituary.

Patrick Mullen died at the home of his son, Edward Mullen, 5 miles north of Emmet, on Monday January 27, aged 87 years. Deceased was born in Ireland in the year 1822, and was a resident of this county for the past 27 years. Previous to his coming to this county he resided near Hazelton, Penn., where he was employed in and about the mines. He was an exemplary citizen and an honest, faithful man.

When we realize the long period of life granted to the deceased; when we think back over the many years, with the numerous changes in the world since he first saw the light of day in the Emerald Isle; his departure from there in the old sailing vessel, with all its privation; the landing of the emigrant nearly a century ago, in the fields of America; the many hardships endured; the fearful struggle for existence, and that he conquered all inasmuch as he retained his manhood and raised his family to know and worship God, taught them to be law-abiding and worthy citizens, an honor to his old age, and a heritage to his future generations. Who among you can do more? None we think, and few indeed there are in this world, who can do as much.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning from the Catholic church in this city, a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. F. Moore, who preached an appropriate sermon.

His two sons, J. P. and Edward Mullen, were at his bedside when the final summons came.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.
