EWING.

A man giving his name as I. C. Wilson, asked for meals and lodging at the Elkhorn hotel one day last week. He was given both and had no more than become acquainted with his new quarters when he was taken seriously ill. Medical aid was secured and everything done to help him, but he died Monday night about six o'clock. He claimed to be fifty-three years of age and a resident of O'Neill, having voted there last fall. None of his relatives could be found and an investigation proved the dead man to be penniless. The body was taken in charge by Undertaker Jaco and buried in the Ewing cemetery yesterday.—The Advocate.

Reason Enthroned.

Because meats are so tasty they are consumed in great excess. This leads to stomach trouble, biliousness and constipation. Revise your diet, let reason and not a pampered appetite control, then take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. Try it. Last Monday evening Art Chambers discovered a dog hanging to his fence by one of his legs which had got caught in the wire, he attempted to relieve the poor brute from his predicament, but the frightened beast would have none of it and fastened on to the leg of his would-be rescuer with his teeth and held on. As a result of the mixup the poor doggy is dead and Art is badly crippled up and vows vengeance on all dogs hereafter found in distress.—The Graphic.

CAMBERS.

A reception was given to the band boys and their families last Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coppoc, the event being in honor of their son, Earl Coppoc, and his bride. A very enjoyable evening was passed. Earl was married on January 25 to Miss Pearl Penninger Valparaiso, Neb. The bride is a much respected young woman and was a trained nurse of marked ability. The groom is a prosperous Chambers farmer and is a

Desperate Coughs

Dangerous coughs. Extremely perilous coughs. Coughs that rasp and tear the throat and lungs. Coughs that shake the whole body. You need a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine, for such a cough. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.

J. M. Carter of McCutchensville, Ohio, has been in Chambers buying horses to ship to Ohio where he breaks them and gets them in shape to work, and sells them to Ohio farmers. He bought seven head at Chambers, paying $150 a head for three four and five year-old colts broke to halter. With horses selling at these prices and with the dairy products bringing unusually high prices, stock cattle, sheep, etc., also selling at good prices, it would seem to us that the farmers of Holt ought to be making money from their farms.—The Bugle.

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by Gilligan & Stout.
