A good many republicans still think that Roosevelt will yet be the candidate.

The democrats always carry the election about six months before the votes are counted.

La Follette succeeds in getting his picture in print more than the other presidential candidates.

Holt county hasn't gone into the hands of a receiver yet, as predicted and "proved" by the fusion campaign writers last fall.

If the Chinese make the boycott against Japanese goods "stick," the mikado's victory in the Tatsu Maru affair may prove expensive in the end.

The Frontier fears the "fraternal feeling" will lead to an open breach if the strained relations continue between Holt county's two bourbon editors.

The act of the desperate and depraved Indiana youth who slew his mother with the blow of a hammer to get money is a tragic illustration of the old truth that "the love of money is the root of all evil."

An Omaha couple are the parents of an eighteen-pound baby, which a local paper says beats the record in weights and measures. Omaha expects to have big people as well as lots of them when it reaches the 200,000 mark.

The mayor of North Platte has been arrested for bootlegging. He owns a drug store and is charged with selling liquor without license. Up this way there is no use of taking such a risk.
While a saloon man gets a license for $1,000, a druggist is afforded a similar privilege for $1.

It is said that the farmers in the tobacco growing district of Kentucky are leaving the state because of the vandallism of the night riders. It is probable, however, that the migration from bourbon communities is occasioned by the election of a republican to the United States senate.

Blows from the "big stick" are falling in the camps of anarchy. "Undesirable foreigners" are being deported and President Roosevelt asks the postoffice department to exclude from the mails an anarchist publication at Patterson, N. J., directing the department of justice to prosecute its publishers.

Walter Wellman lets out the information that sets at rest a good many anxious democrats. Writing from St. Paul to the Chicago Record-Herald he says: "Governor Johnson is a candidate for the presidential nomination of the democratic party.
He authorizes me to make this statement in his behalf."

The failure of the Minnesota railway rate law to pass muster in the supreme court of the United States has inspired a conspiracy of railway presidents to begin an attack on the rate laws of other states, according to a report from Chicago. Nebraska is in the list of states in which the railway chiefs think the law is vulnerable and defective.

A Chicago dispatch says that there is a quiet movement on foot among the railroads for a general advance in freight rates, and it is hinted that the interstate commission would much more readily indorse a reasonable increase in rates than any reduction in the wages of the operating forces. But it is not at all plain, observes the Kearney Hub, that either is necessary.
The railroads' profit is shown by the yearly balance sheet, on an equitable continuous rate. A fluctuating rate permitted in order to maintain a constant high water margin of profit is not the thing at all and the interstate commerce commission should not countenance it.

W. V. Allen, the former verbose statesman of Madison county, is leaning democraticward. He was honored with a place on the populist convention at St. Louis, but says he will not attend because he expects to vote for Bryan and thinks the pops may not endorse the democratic slate this time. The populists may as well abandon their national organization and fall in line with the rest of the country.

At a union labor meeting in an Ohio town last week the speaker, Congressman Isaac R. Sherwood, criticized the president for sending federal troops to Goldfield, Nev., during the riots last winter. The congressman was probably talking to tickle the ears of his hearers and believes himself that federal protection at Goldfield, after the state legislature requested it, was necessary. The labor unions will excite no public sympathy by denouncing the government for taking measures to protect life and property.

It is announced that as a result of the government inquiry thousands of "undesirable foreigners" will be deported from the Pittsburg, Pa., district. A hotbed of anarchy and sedition has been festering around Pittsburg for years, aggravated right along by the inflow of anarchists from Europe.
Liberal immigration laws have been taken advantage of by this class until the government finds it not only necessary to close its ports but also to make deportations. The thrifty and honest foreigner is as welcome as ever, but the anarchists are not wanted.

At the last presidential election there were 224,677 votes cast in Nebraska. Of these there is approximately 75,000 Bryan supporters, basing the estimate on the returns for 1904, which is a low estimate because Bryan was not then a candidate. A little figuring will disclose the motive for the appeal to Bryan followers in Nebraska to contribute $10 each to the cause. If each of the 75,000 would contribute $10 a fund of $750,000 would be raised. But there are probably 25-000 more Bryan supporters in Nebraska than indicated by the returns of 1904. Placing the estimate at 100,000 a contribution of $10 each would place a fund of $1,000,000 in the hands of the "Bryan Volunteer" promoters.
In other words, Nebraska democrats are asked to raise a million dollars to help elect the "peerless."

For Diseases of the Skin.
Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and barbers' itch, are characterized by an increase itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the smarting and itching almost instantly. Many cases have been cured by its use. For o'clock a. m. Board met pursuant to adjournment, members present, Golden, Hickman, Roll, Roberts, Rocke and Keyes.

Upon motion the board adjourned until 1 o'clock p. m.

1 o'clock p. m., board called to order, all members present.

Now comes J. H. Sutton and asks the boards of supervisors that the clerk correct tax books for the year 1907. The error is shown by the affidavit of Charles Preston, deputy assessor for Francis township the year 1904, showing that by error the east half (1/2) of the northwest quarter (1/4) and the west half (1/2) of the northwest quarter (1/4), sec. 23, twp. 27, range 15, was assessed $2200, when it should have been assessed $600.

Mr. Chairman: I move the prayer of the petition be granted.
S. A. Hickman,
J. A. Golden.

Motion carried.
O'Neill, Neb., Jan. 30, 1908. I, Charles Preston, do state that I was deputy assessor for Francis township for the year 1904; and that a mistake was made in the assessment of the east half of the northwest quarter and west half of the northeast quarter, sec. 23-27-15, and to the best of my knowledge this land should be assessed at $600 per quarter.

Charles Preston.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of February, 1908.

O. E. Graves, Justice of the Peace.
The minutes of Jan. 20, 21, 22, 23, were read and approved.

Upon motion the school tax assessed against the E1 SE1/4, SE1 NE1/4, NW1 SE1/4, section 30-26-15; in school district No. 222, was ordered transferred to a school dist. No. 242, the same having been erroneously assessed in school dist. No. 222.

O'Neill, Neb., Feb. 24, 1908. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors.
Please have the county treasurer transfer the sum of $57.03, now in the bond fund of school dist. No. 206 to the general fund of said district. Respectfully,
C. D. Withers,
Director.

Upon motion the prayer of the petition of C. D. Withers was granted.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Holt County, Nebr. Your petitioner, Benjamin Johring, represents that on the day of November, 1905, he purchased at Scavan-ger sale, lots 9, 10 and 11, in block 38, Riggs' addition to the City of O'Neill, Nebraska, and paid to the county treasurer the sum of $15.

Your petitioner further represents that there were no taxes against said lots at said time and that said sale was unauthorized.
Wherefore, your petitioner prays that said money paid by him, to-wit: $15, be refunded with interests.

Your petitioner presents herewith tax sale certificates issued to him at said time. B. H. Johring, Petitioner.

tioner of B. H. Johring was denied.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors.
The State of Nebraska, County of Holt, ss.

I, John Carr, being sworn, depose and say that affiant was a resident of road dist. No. 39, Ewing township, Holt county, Neb., during the year 1907, and is erroneously charged with poll tax for said year, being over 50 years of age and not liable for same and hereby ask you to grant me a refund of $2.50 so paid. John Carr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of February, 1908.

W. P. Simar, County Clerk.
(Seal) Roy Smith, Deputy.

Upon motion the prayer of the petition was granted.

O'Neill, Neb., Feb. 21, 1908. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors.— Gentlemen: Calling your attention to the personal tax of M. Miller in Paddock precinct in which Miller paid tax of $3.36. As the township tax in that precinct for 1907 was three mills, and Mr. Miller's assessed valuation being $112, the tax should have been 33 cents instead of $3.36, he is entitled to a refund of $3.03. I refer you to receipt No. 2549 paid on Jan. 3, 1908.
Respectfully,
W. P. Simar,
County Clerk.

By Roy Smith, Deputy.
Upon motion the prayer of the petition of Mr. Miller was granted.

O'Neill, Neb., Feb. 20, 1908. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors.— Gentlemen: Your petitioner represents that he was assessed erroneously for labor tax for the year 1907, in Shields precinct, for the reason I am 56 years of age and therefore exempt and I respectfully ask your honorable body to grant me a refund in the amount of $2.50 which amount was paid by me as evidenced by receipts No. 3125, series of 1907. Respectfully, Geo. W. Bradt.

Upon motion the prayer of the petition was granted.

O'Neill, Neb., Feb. 24, 1908. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors. Your petitioner represents that he resides in section 1-23-15, which is unorganized territory. I have paid my personal tax for 1907 and find myself assessed in school district number 245. This is an error and I hereby request you to grant me a refund of $1.10, amount paid as school tax. Respectfully, W. K. Wilkins.

Upon motion the prayer of the petition was granted.

O'Neill, Neb., Feb. 24, 1908. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors. Your petitioner represents that he was excessively assessed on twelve head of horses for 1906, in Saratoga township.
Said horses being mostly broncos and bronco colts, not worth $52 per head as returned by the assessor, I told the assessor that they were not worth that amount but he returned it the same, this property is worth $315 and not worth $620 as the assessor has it.
I hereby ask for a refund of the amount excessively assessed.

Creighton, Neb., March 7, 1908. The County of Holt, State of Nebraska, in account with Charles H. Hathaway.

March 5, 1908, to poll tax paid for 1907, $2.50.

The State of Nebraska, County of Knox, ss.

Charles H. Hathaway, being duly sworn on his oath says that on the 5th day of March, 1908, he paid his personal taxes for 1907 to the county treasurer of Holt county, Nebraska, not knowing that it included poll tax, but that on that date he paid said county treasurer $2.50 poll tax for 1907. Afflant further says that said poll tax was illegally assessed in this that this affiant was never a resident of Holt county, Nebraska; and said personal taxes were levied on 20 cattle which affiant had in Holt county in 1907.
Affiant therefore asks that said $2.50 be allowed and forwarded to him at Creighton, Nebraska.

THERE WAS NO CHARGE.

All the Seats in That Particular Church Were Free.

At a certain church an aged usher, to save the exertion of continually marching up and down the aisle to conduct persons to their seats, used to take a stand in the center of the church and when any incomers appeared beckon to them and then conduct them to a seat.

The urchins of the neighborhood, knowing his peculiarity, used to pop their heads inside the church door and mimic his action by beckoning to him.
Many times he tried to catch one and one Sunday morning nearly did so.
But the boy rushed away from the church and ran into the arms of a policeman.

"What have you been up to?" demanded the policeman.

"Thought the boy, 'I'm caught,' but he said, 'Oh, sir, there's a disturbance at that church, and they have sent me to fetch a policeman.'"

"Very good," said the officer. "I'll step in and see about it."

So he opened the door at the west end of the church and, taking off his helmet, entered.

The moment the aged usher saw him he beckoned to him and motioned him to a seat next an old gentleman.

Immediately he was seated he touched the old gentleman and said, "Come quiet."

The old gentleman replied, "What do you mean?"

Officer—"You know what I mean, and I don't want no chat. Come quiet or I shall have to take yer by force."

Old Gentleman—I really don't understand you.

Officer—Look here! We don't want no more disturbance! You have been kicking up quite enough, and I'm going to have you out quick.

By this time the congregation were looking at the pair and wondering what was the matter, so the old gentleman said: "Very well, I have not made any disturbance, but to save any I will go with you."

So together, to the wonderment of the congregation, they marched up the aisle.

When they had passed out of the church the usher followed them, and the policeman, turning to him, said:

"Now, then, you have to make your charge."

"Charge?" said the usher. "There ain't any charge. All the seats are free."—Detroit News-Tribune.

On Yawning.
I have come to the conclusion that if a man yawns and you don't want to yawn, too, the only way to prevent it is to blow your nose. A man of my whole railway carriage full of people yawning by merely taking time over it himself, and I believe he can.—Fry's
