You know the rules of the social game well enough to know that full dress Tuxedo are imperatively required for certain occasions; and for such times you'd better not go if you don't go right. We'll show you ready-to-wear Hart Schaffner & Marx dress clothes; and wherever you wear them you may be sure that you'll be as well dressed as any man there; and better than some of them. Glad to show you business clothes, too; plenty of them here.

Young men's suits, the clothes that make you look good and more comfortable than any others. Every young man has pride about his clothing, and when P. J. McManus fits him out with his high class clothes the young fellow has more pride than ever, because he looks right.

The little fellow, too, has to have the latest, and the only place they can be suited is at P. J. McManus.

In District Court.
District court adjourned Tuesday, when the jury was dismissed. Only two cases were tried since our last issue. A. Smith, a land agent at Stuart, secured a verdict in a case of interest to real estate men in general. He brought suit against Mrs. Louise Bartow and husband of Gordon to secure his commission for obtaining a buyer for a farm owned by the Bartows in the vicinity of Stuart and was awarded $524.82 by the jury.

Mr. Smith made a showing to the effect that in 1906 he entered into a contract with the Bartows to sell their farm at $40 per acre and was to have $500 commission for securing a buyer. Soon after he found a buyer who wanted the land at the price stated, when the owners refused to sell. By the terms of the agreement the owners were to furnish a deed when a buyer was found. Their refusal to sell was the cause of the suit, and the verdict in favor of Mr. Smith establishes the right of a land agent to enforce a contract.

The case against Charles Falk, the Verdigris township boy, who was found guilty a few months ago in county court of stealing one bushel of corn and on which appeal was taken to the district court, went against the boy in the higher court. A verdict was returned by the jury finding him guilty. The court had not yesterday fixed the amount of fine.

O'Neill Junior Normal.

Opens June 8th and continues six weeks. Closes July 17, 1908. Dr. H. K. Wolf of the State University will be principal. Review classes in all the common branches will be formed, also beginning and advanced classes in the higher work in all branches for which there is a demand. The tuition is two dollars for the term and this amount secures also a season lecture course ticket. The lecture course consists of four numbers: N. C. Abbott, June 11; Dr. A. L. Bixby, June 15; Adrian M. Newens, June 23; Chicago Glee Club, July 6.

The instructors for the summer are: Dr. H. K. Wolf, 1277 J. St., Lincoln, Neb.; N. C. Abbott, Tekamah; J. G. Mote, O'Neill; C. A. Mohrman, Atkinson; Miss Eunice Ensor, South Omaha; T. N. Flemming, Lyons; Miss Katherine Linton, Spencer; Florence E. Zink, O'Neill, also secretary and treasurer.

Board and room may be secured for $3.50 per week. Text books will be loaned free of charge. The total expense of attending the Junior Normal for a term of six weeks need not be over $23.

Methodist Church Items.

Our third quarterly meeting will be held Sunday evening at the usual hour of service. The Rev. Dr. Bithell our presiding elder, will be present and will preach at 8 o'clock, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. We shall be glad to have all of our friends participate in these services.

The usual services will be held in the morning. Class meeting at 10 o'clock, led by Mrs. O. O. Snyder. Sermon by the pastor at 10:30, subject of our morning discourse will be, "Burdens and What to do With Them." Sunday school at the close of the morning service. We always have an interesting Sunday school, and cordially invite everybody to tarry for the study of God's word.

Junior league service at 3 p. m., the service last Sunday, was interesting and helpful and the attendance was very good, but a few of the Juniors were not in their place. We trust that all will be present next Sunday.

Epworth league service at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. I presume Dr. Bithell will be on hand for this service, let all Epworthians be present to greet him and enjoy the services.

Our Third Quarterly conference will be held at the church on Monday, April 13, at 9 a. m., a full attendance is desired.

All friends who would like to assist us in filling a couple of crates with eggs, for the Methodist Hospital in Omaha, will find the crates at the church during the present week. If we all do a little we can easily fill three crates, thus helping a very worthy cause.

T. S. Watson, Pastor.

Educational Notes

We wish to thank the school boards of Holt county who were so generous to give their teachers the two days necessary to attend the North Nebraska Teachers' association held at Norfolk last week. Fifty teachers and ten prospective teachers, making sixty in all, was the enrollment from this county. We are very much pleased with this response made to the first call on the school boards of the rural districts especially, and from the interest and pleasure your teachers experienced there can be no doubt but you will be repaid manifold for your generosity.

After hearing Inspector A. A. Reed's practical talk on "Expression in Reading" one cannot help but teach that subject better, nor could one help but be convinced that the old way is not the better way of teaching geography, after hearing Dr. Winship's address, "The New Geography." His lecture "The Making of Manly Boys" proved that he has been very fittingly styled "the Horace Mann of his time." The point most emphatically brought out was that the nation today needs fathering. The father spends too much of his time attending to his business, and not enough with his boys. Probably the best lecture was given Thursday evening by Colorado's Governor Henry A. Buchtel who is also Chancellor of the University at Denver. One hearer has said Chancellor Buchtel's lecture on Theodore Roosevelt belongs in the same class with Bishop Fowler's lecture on Abraham Lincoln.

The primary, grade, high school, superintendent and rural sections, each separated from the others, gave all an opportunity to hear much of the subject he was most interested in and to express his views or ask questions, according to his need to assist others or be assisted.

Since we promised to publish the names of those in attendance from Holt county, we respectfully submit the following list: J. F. Powers, Louisa McGee, Lillie Galleher, Bessie Eaton, Grace Alderson of Stuart; Chas. A. Mohrman, Mrs. Mohrman, Mrs. Scott, Minnie Miller, Cozima Zack, Genevieve McNichols, Bertha Stilson, Ollie Sturdevant, Mabel Stratton, Clara Brook, Joe Locke, Chas. Donnelly, Arthur Miller, Jesse Parnell, Otto Stratton, Harold Dickerson, Ethel Flemming, Julia Corrigan of Atkinson; Ruth Alderson, J. G. Mote, Lottie Grady, Margaret Grady, Celia Gorby, Ada M. Fritz, Mrs. M. O'Neill, Blanch Abbott, Kathleen Doyle, Mary Horiskey, Anna Donohoe, Florence E. Zink, Margaret Brennan of O'Neill; R. H. Hill, Cleo Howard, Alice Davies, Rose Matthews, Alice Wunner, Sophia Sanders, Josephine Sanders, Mrs. Pearl Powers of Ewing; Minnie Richardson, Nellie Reed, Ida Spear, Maggie Murray of Page; T. M. Gushee, Mattie Gifford, Myrtle McDermott of Inman; Alice McGrane, Kathryn McShane of Tonawanda; Esther Thomas, Hilda Widfeldt of Disney; Clair Partridge of Dustin; Alma Ridgeway of Catalpa; Laca Pillen of Mineola.

Florence E. Zink,
County Superintendent.

Mail Order Clothes.

Walt Mason in Empora (Kan.) Gazette: I bought me a suit of the Searsbuck brand, they said it was tailored and sewed by hand; they said it was woven of finest wool, and couldn't be torn by an angry bull; they said it was fine, and would surely last till Gabriel tooted the final blast. It was ten cents cheaper than suits I'd bought from local dealers, who seemed quite hot and shed a bucket of briny tears, when I bought my clothes of the Sawbuck Rears. I wore that suit when the day was damp, and it shrank to the size of a postage stamp; the coat split up and the vest split down and I scared the horses all over the town, for the buttons popped and the seams they tore, and the stitches gave, with a sullen roar. And I gave that suit to a maiden small, who found it handy to dress her doll.

The Norfolk Nursery.

If you want extra select large blooming size flowering shrubs and crimson rambling roses; or evergreens, fruit trees and small fruit plant; large and small shade trees and seed potatoes; call at Norfolk Nursery or write E. D. Hammond, Norfolk, Neb. 42-8

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their Easter bazaar and exchange at Golden's furniture store on Saturday, April 18. The ladies have a beautiful and attractive display of useful and ornamental articles appropriate and seasonable for easter, and invite your attention and patronage on the occasion of their sale. They will also have on hand the usual amount of good things for
