Mary O. Grooms, — Grooms, first and real name unknown, the unknown heirs and devisees of — Grooms, deceased; M. S. Boyd, first and real name unknown and — Boyd, first and real name unknown; Isaac W. Toland; the unknown heirs and devisees of — Boyd, deceased; Phoebe Madden; C. D. B. Eisaman, first and real name unknown and Maggie Eisaman; George Lang and Mrs. George Lang her first and real name unknown; George F. Padden, and — Padden, first and real name unknown; John Doe, real name unknown and Mrs. John Doe, real name unknown; will take notice that on the 11th day of April, A. D. 1908, Luke L. Mandeville, the plaintiff herein, filed his petition and commenced action against you and each of you in the District Court of the Fifteenth judicial district of Nebraska, in and for Holt county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of said action and petition being to quiet and confirm the title in the plaintiff Luke L. Mandeville in and to the following described real estate situated in the county of Holt and state of Nebraska, to-wit:

Lots one (1), two (2), and three (3), in block thirty-two (32), in the original town of O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska, as surveyed, platted and recorded in the office of the county clerk of said county.

In his said petition the plaintiff alleges that he is the owner in fee simple of said lots one (1), two (2) and three (3), in block thirty-two (32) of the original town of O'Neill aforesaid. That plaintiff became seized of said lot two (2) of said block thirty-two (32) by mesne conveyance from the United States. That on the 4th day of August, 1875, Patrick Fahy who was then the owner of said lot in fee simple conveyed said lot by warranty deed to the defendant S. M. Boyd, real name unknown. That said S. M. Boyd on the 23rd day of April, 1880, conveyed said lot by deed of conveyance to G. M. Cleveland and H. M. Utley. But that in said deed of conveyance said S. M. Boyd described himself and signed said instrument under the name of Samuel M. Boyd which as plaintiff alleges was the real and full first name of said S. M. Boyd. That S. M. Boyd and Samuel M. Boyd are one and the same identical person. That in the deed made to the said S. M. Boyd on the 4th day of August, 1875, by Patrick Fahy as aforesaid, the said S. M. Boyd, real name Samuel M. Boyd, was by clerical error described as M. S. Boyd but that the said M. S. Boyd was no other than and was the same identical person as the said Samuel M. Boyd. That said irregularities of description and signature has cast a cloud on plaintiff's title.

Plaintiff further alleges that the defendant George F. Padden was at one time the owner of said lot two (2) by deed of conveyance from G. M. Cleveland and H. M. Utley, and that thereafter said George F. Padden being a single man conveyed said lot to one Emory A. Cobb, but in the deed of conveyance whereby he granted said lot to Emory A. Cobb, the said George F. Padden described himself as G. F. Padden and thus signed his name to said deed, but plaintiff alleges that said G. F. Padden and George F. Padden were one and the same identical person. That said irregularity of description has cast a cloud on plaintiff's title to said lot two (2).

The plaintiff further alleges that he is the owner in fee simple of and in actual possession of lots one (1) and three (3) in said block thirty-two (32) aforesaid and that he acquired said title and possession by warranty deed from one Ben E. Wagner and Frank E. Wagner, husband and wife, and that said Ben E. Wagner acquired the fee simple title in and to said lots one (1) and three (3) from one Edwin P. Loy and Clara Loy, husband and wife. Plaintiff further alleges that the said Ben E. Wagner and his predecessors in title in and to said lots one (1) and three (3) were and had been in open, notorious, adverse, exclusive, undisturbed and interrupted, continuous and hostile possession of said real estate, as regards the defendants, for more than ten years immediately preceding commencement of this action and that plaintiff is therefore entitled to a decree quieting and confirming title in him to said lots one (1) and three (3) as against each and all of said defendants. That plaintiff is also entitled to a decree quieting and confirming title in him as to said lots one (1) and three (3) by reason of a tax deed duly made, executed and delivered by the county treasurer of Holt county, Nebraska, on the 14th day of December, 1907, whereby said county treasurer conveyed said lots one (1) and three (3) to E. P. Loy and that the said E. P. Loy by mesne conveyance has assigned and conveyed said tax title to this plaintiff, by virtue of which this plaintiff ought to have his title and possession of said lots quieted and confirmed as against all of said defendants. The plaintiff further alleges that the defendants M. S. Boyd, real name unknown; Mary O. Grooms, — Grooms, real name unknown; Phoebe Madden, C. D. B. Eisaman, real name unknown, C. D. B. Eisaman, real name unknown, and Maggie Eisaman, George Lang, Mrs. George Lang, real name unknown, each and all claim and assert some title to, interest in and right of possession of said lots one (1) and three (3) in block thirty-two (32) of the original town of O'Neill, aforesaid. The plaintiff further alleges that none of said defendants were ever in actual possession of said premises and that for more than twenty years last past said defendants and each of them have absolutely abandoned the possession, use and occupation of said premises and have recognized and acquiesced in the title and possession of said premises asserted by this plaintiff and his predecessors in title and possession thereof for more than ten years last past and that said defendants and each of them are estopped from ever asserting any title to, interest in, lien or claim upon said lots.

The plaintiff further alleges each and all of said defendants in this action and named in this notice by reason of the fact that their names stand of record in the office of the county clerk of Holt county, Nebraska, as parties whose title to said lots has been divested in an irregular manner, and by reason of the further fact that each and all of said defendants express and assert some title to, interest in, lien or claim upon each of said lots, thereby cast a cloud upon plaintiff's title to said real property which tends to depreciate the market value thereof and the assertion of such title, interest, lien or claim as said defendants and each of them allege to have in, to or upon said lots tends to annoy the plaintiff in the quiet enjoyment of said property; and plaintiff alleges that said alleged title, or interest, or lien, or claim upon said lots or any of them, so asserted by the defendants or any of them has not been valid for more than ten years last past and is barred by the statute of limitations, and he prays for a decree forever barring and concluding the defendants and each of them from asserting or claiming any title, interest, or lien in or upon said lots one (1), two (2), and three (3), in block thirty-two (32), in the original town of O'Neill aforesaid, and for general relief.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 8th day of June, A. D. 1908, or the relief therein prayed for will be granted.
