GRAPHIC STORY OF THE NOMINATION OF BRYAN AT DENVER

Night Session of the Convention Names Nebraskan for the Presidency.

Convention Hall, Denver, July 10.— This is the detailed story of last night's session, which wound up at 3:30 o'clock this morning with the nomination of Bryan.

A small American flag had been placed on every delegate's chair prior to the beginning of the evening session. This was the unmistakable evidence of the nominating session of the convention and quickened the interest of the spectators who early made a of the spectators, who early made a rush for the galleries, filling them to overflowing.

At 7 o'clock, however, there were

At 7 o'clock, however, there were few delegates in their places. They had lingered long at dinner, the slow dying twilight of the Colorado evenings proving deceptive as to the hour. The hall had not cooled off from the afternoon session when the evening crowds began to gather, and the great heat promised an uncomfortable ending to the protracted sitting.

Call to Order.

Call to Order.

It was just 7:50 o'clock when Chairman Clayton rapped for order. Mr. Clayton recognized Mr. McQuisten, of Pennsylvania, who announced the selection of James Kerr as member of the national committee from that state in place of James M. Guffey, who was selected before the Pennsylvania contests were settled. The selection was ratified without objection.

A committee of three was appointed to wait upon the platform committee and ascertain when it would be ready to report. Call to Order.

Judge Wade Speaks. Following Senator Grady, Chairman Clayton introduced Judge M. J. Wade, of Iowa, as a representative of the great corn state. Mr. Wade is the national committeeman from new national committeeman from Iowa.

"Whoever the candidate, whatever the platform of this convention," he declared, "the thought that goes out from this convention is that honesty must be enthroned as the dominating influence of public life. It must be manifest on the part of the public officers and on the part of every individual dealing with the corporations or with our fellow man."

By the time Judge Wade had concluded his address the crowd had increased still further, and the doorways were packed in a manner that showed mismanagement on the part of the doorkeepers that was not far from criminal. All the doors were open and there was no places in the entire building that were as impassable as the exits.

Just as Judge Wade finished his

When quiet was restored Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky, of the committee sent to ascertain the probability of an early report from the committee on resolutions, reported that the committee would not be ready to report before midnight. He then made a motion that the rules be suspended and that the nominating speeches for presidential candidates be made, with the understanding, however, that no ballot should be taken until after the report of the committee had been received.

Roll for Nominations.

Roll for Nominations.

The motion was adopted and the rules were declared by the chair to be suspended and nominations to be in call the roll of the states for nominations for the office of president of the United States," shouted Chairman Alabama," called the clerk.

The chairman of that delegation ose and was recognized.
"Knowing that Nebraska will make distake in nominating a great he said, "Alabama yields to Ne-

"I. J. Dunn, of Omaha, will speak for the Nebraska delegation," announced the chairman of that state, while the cheering which followed the first statement continued unabated.

Dunn Nominates Bryan. Mr. Dunn, who was to make the speech for the convention in which the greatest interest was felt by the delegates and the spectators, is scarcely of gates and the spectators, is scarcely of middle age. His clean-cut, determined looking, clean shaven face is surmounted by dark brown hair, which owing to the emphatic manner in which he emphasized his speech with his head, was soon touching the center of his forehead. He spoke clearly and with a pleasing manner of delivery.

As Mr. Dunn proceeded almost every aliusion he made to Mr. Bryan was enthusiastically applauded, although he had not yet mentioned the name of the Nebraska candidate. The plaudits, however, were not long continued and their transient character seemed to their transient character seemed to promise that the record breaking demonstration of Wednesday in honor of Mr. Bryan would not, when the time arrived, be equaled in duration, even it proved to be of equal intensity.

Liberate White Dove.

ever ready flags were tossed aloft and a roar of applause swept through the hall. While the cheering was at its helght a white dove was let loose in the gallery and flew across the convention hall, while the delegates halled it with great enthusiasm and cheered as long as it was in sight.

Mr. Dunn brought out the name of William J. Bryan with intense dramatic force and the response from the great throng was electric. The delegates sprang up, the gallertes followed suit and the demonstration was under way in a manner that promised to rival Wednesday's exhibition of enthusiasm. A few moments after the cheering began an immense oil painting of Mr. Bryan was lowered from behind a monster American shield which had 1cposed over the chairman's desk ever since the convention began.

Crowd Goes Crazy.

Crowd Goes Crazy.

Crowd Goes Crazy.

The appearance of the picture raised the pitch of the outburst to a veritable pandemonium. It was not long then before the scenes of Wednesday's prolonged demonstration was renewed. The delegates poured from the convention floor onto the already overcrowded stage. James C. Dahlman, of Omaha, a Bryan leader, jumped to the secretary's desk and urged the throng forward. The state standards were grouped about the platform. Galleries and delegates were on their feet waving the thousands of flags and cheering themselves hoarse. Many of the New York delegates stood and cheered with the others, but the majority remained seated. Only six states were missing in the parade through the alses after the grouping at the stage had broken into a procession. They were Maryland, Minnesota, New York, Georgia, New Jersey and Delaware.

Many Bryan banners which had been brought into the hall were quickly caught up by the marching delegates and carried through the aisles.

The band in the balcony lent its share to the celebration of the Bryan followers and the blare of horns, the beat of drums and the crash of cymbals could be heard above the din of the shouting hundreds on the floor and the

could be heard above the din of the shouting hundreds on the floor and the thousands in the "alleries.

Take Flashlights.

The start of the demonstration set a dozen photographers at work and the boom of their flashlight explosions at times fairly shook the great building, such an immense amount of powder was used. The explosions also served to fill the upper portion of the hall with choking white smoke, adding vastly to the discomfort of those already force? to breathe the heavy atmosphere of the upper strata.

One of the banners that aroused much enthusiasm was labeled: "Missouri—Nominate Bryan and we will show you!"

The members of the Missouri delegation.

influence of public life. It must be manifest on the part of the public of ficers and on the part of every individual to the public of ficers and on the part of every full discovery the control of every five or fellow man."

The members of the Missouri delegation with our fellow man."

The members of the Missouri delegation with our fellow man."

The members of the Missouri delegation with our fellow man."

The members of the Missouri delegation with our fellow man."

The members of the Missouri delegation with our fellow man."

The creased still further, and the doorways were packed in a manner that showed mismanagement on the part of ways were packed in a manner that showed mismanagement on the part of the same way as yesterday.

Showed mismanagement on the part of the same way as yesterday.

Showed mismanagement on the part of the same way as yesterday.

Showed mismanagement on the part of the same way as yesterday.

Showed mismanagement on the part of the same way as yesterday.

Storm Press Seats.

The crowd of shouters, apparently frenzied. were carried away by their speech a woman seated in the rear of the hall fainted away. It was out of the hall fainted away, It was out of the hall fainted away, It was out of the hall fainted away. It was out of the hall fainted away, It was ou

A feature of the demonstration never before a part of a national convention was that the greater part of the cheering and uproar was distinctly heard by the candidate at his home 500 miles away, a telephone to which was attached an immense megaphone having been placed in the han and Mr. Bryan, at the other end of the wire was at at the other end of the wire, was at Fairview, where he was able to hear the cheering in his honor that filled the hall.

About an hour after the name of Bryan had been mentioned Chairman Clayton, who had several times tried to stay the tumult but in vain, bodily dragged the men from his desk. With uplifted hands he stood trying to restore order, and there were increasing signs now that the outburst had about run its course. Half of the delegates, tired and hot, had resumed their seats. Another measure calculated to cause a cessation of the shouting was the turning out of many of the lights in the clusters on the ceiling. This had a marked effect and a storm of hisses that was directed at the shouters from all parts of the hall helped the work all parts of the hall helped the work anazingly. At 10:20 o'clock p. m., when the demonstration's last cry had died away, Chairman Clayton directed them to make the call of the roll of the states. Arkansas passed, California yielded to Oregon. Ex-Senator Gearin, of that to Oregon. Ex-Senator Gearin, of that state, was then introduced to second the nomination of Bryan.

Arkansas gave way to North Carolina and Governor Glenn, of that state, seconded the nomination of Bryan.

Colorado gave way to North Carolina and Governor Glenn, of that state, seconded the nomination of Bryan.

The next speaker to second the nomination of Mr. Bryan was Governor Swanson of ingrinta.

Swanson, of irginia Hammond Names Johnson.

Connecticut gave way to Minnesota and Winfield S. Hammond placed in nomination John A. Johnson, of Minne-

That all the cheer was not yet killed in the convention was made manifest when Mr. Hammond concluded. The loyal sons of the North Star state responded with a cheer and a number of delegates of Massachusetts and Okla-homa joined in. A liberal amount of applause came down from the galler Liberate White Dove.

When Mr. Dunn declared that his candidate was the choice of the militant democracy of the country, the convention broke in with wild cheers. The

First and Only Ballot at Denver on the Presidency

f	ACCOUNT OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR		-	3
c	N B	Jo	0	Z
it	2	E	20	7
8	V an	SE		4
it	0	10	1	voting
y	CONTRACTOR	51	9000	5
			30	0.5
al		斓	188
1.	22-Alabama 22		Marie 1
g	18—Arkansas		ASSES	100
r.	20—California 20			83
a	10-Colorado 10
d	14—Connecticut 9	5	319
r	6—Delaware	36	6	20
3	10-Florida 10		333	1000
	26-Georgia 4	2	20	100
201	6-Idaho 6	M		200
d	54—Illinois 54	繺	180	800
e	30-Indiana 30	鰄	1	999
n	26Iowa 26			330
	20-Kansas 20	뛣		1.
1.	26-Kentucky 26		1
	18-Louisiana 18
	12-Maine 10	1	120	1
f	16-Maryland 7	9	2.0	- 32-Massachusetts 32
e	28-Michigan 28	M
g	22-Minnesota	22		-
e	20-Mississippi 20			2.70
8	36-Missouri 36
g	6-Montana 6	3
g	16-Nebraska 16	•		* 9
v	6-Nevada 6	85		30
h	8-New Hampshire 7	1		201
d	24-New Jersey	•	24	23
g	78-New York 78	92		00
r	24-North Carolina 24			200
	8-North Dakota 8	4
n	46—Ohlo	22	22.0	500
		83	300
1,		3	916	8
	8-Rhode Island 5	3	972	94
n	8-Rhode Island 5 18-South Carolina 18		00(2)
У	8-South Dakota 8	鰑	501377	油線
8	24—Tennessee	鰄		齈
	36—Texas 36	徶	000	鱛
S	6—Utah 6	鱴	350
n	8-Vermont 7	鱮		1
e	24-Virginia 24	쬟	1000	1
	10-Washington 10	鶰	2500
8	14-West Virginia 14	鲗	10003
e	26-Wisconsin 26	1	3000
e	6-Wyoming 6
100	6-Alaska 6	200
134	6—Arizona 6 6—District of Columbia 6
2	6-District of Columbia 6		**
t	6-Hawaii 6
e	6-New Mexico 6	10
ıt	*6—Philippines	00		200
ζ,	6-Porto Rico 6	98
r		示		-
d	Total8921/2	46	5936	8

Chairman Clayton succeeded in restoring order.

L. Irving Handy, of Delaware, then rose to name as a presidential candidate George Gray, of his state.

of the convention which was repeated shortly after when he said that the republicans had "nominated Roosevelt's man Friday."

Senator Gore concluded in a whirl-wind of applause and the roll call was resumed Oregon, Pensylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin and all the territories seconded Mr. Bryan's omination. "If there are no other nominations," said Chairman Clayton, "the secretary will call the roll of states," and the will call the roll of states," and the vote was begun.

Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany hall, was selected as clerk to read the roll of the states.

Alabama Starts It.

"Alabama Starts It.

"Alabama," he shouted, and there came the quick response: "Alabama casts her 22 votes for Bryan."

Arkansas cast 18, California 29 and Colorado 10. The first split delegation was that of Connecticut, which cast 9 for Bryan and 5 for Johnson.

"Delaware," called the clerk.

"Six votes for Judge Gray," was the reply.

Georgia divided her votes among all three candidates.

A roar went up when Illinois cast her solid vote for Bryan.

Iowa and Indiana followed suit.

Maine cast 10 for Bryan, 1 for John-on and 1 not voting. Maryland cast 9 for Johnson and for Bryan.

Massachusetts cast a solid vote of 32 for Bryan.
Michigan announced that it desired a poll of the delegation, but after some debate this was denied by the chair and the vote was cast solidly for Minnesota cast her 22 votes for Johnson.

Missouri cast 36 for Bryan, and solid votes came from Montana, Nebraska and Nevada.

New Hampshire cast 1 for Johnson and 7 for Bryan. New Jersey went solidly for Gray, and then came New York.

New York Bolts. There were calls for silence all over the hall as Charles F. Murphy arose to his feet when the state was called.
"New York is voting under the unit rule and casts 78 votes for Bryan," he said.

A wild yell of enthusiasm went up when the Empire state, for the first time, declared itself.

votes for Bryan when Judge O'Connor, of Utica, N. Y., one of the state delegates, arose and shouted:

"Mr. Chairman, I challenge the vote of New York, and demand that the delegation be polled.

The chairman announced that the poll would be taken.

George Brennan, of Illinois, raised a point of order that the poll should not be taken without evidence of fraud inasmuch as the state had already declared its vote. His point of order was overruled.

clared its vote. His point of order was overruled.

"Alton B. Parker," called the clerk in beginning the poll. There was no response and he called the name twice. Judge Parker was not in the hall.

"Charles F. Murphy," was the next name called.

"I vote for Bryan," responded the chief of Tammany hall and head of the delegation. Lewis was next. "Bryan," he called.

There were a number of absentees

"Bryan," he called.

There were a number of absentees in the delegation, but a continuous chorus of "Bryans" came in response to the calls of the clerk.

Two for Johnson.

G. Hyde Clark broke the solid Bryan vote by declaring for Johnson and Judge O'Conner, of Utiea, also voted for the Minnesota man. The result was strongly in favor of Bryan. The absentees were many, but the result was not announced in numbers. It was declared by the chairman, however, that the vote as announced by Mr. Murphy was correct, and the vote would be counted as 78 for Bryan.

"Each and every man in the Ohio delegation is for Bryan," announced the chairman of the delegation, "and it requires no unit rule for us to cast our 46 votes for Bryan."

When Oklahoma was called, the chairman announced:

"Oklahoma casts her 18 maiden votes for William Jennings Bryan."

Pennsylvania Decides It.

Pennsylvania demanded that a poll of the delegation whether. Two for Johnson.

Pennsylvania Decides It.

Pennsylvania demanded that a poll of the delegation be taken. The vote went largely for Bryan, but the count proceeded slowly because of confusion of names arising from the ousting of the Guffey delegates. The state was not under the unit rule and the result was announced to be: Bryan, 49½; Gray, 9½; Johnson, 3.

When Pennsylvania was reached Bryan needed only 48 votes to make his nomination sure and Pennsylvania giving him 49½ made him the party nominee.

Rhode Island cast five for Bryan and three for Johnson. Solid delegations cast their votes for Bryan from South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas and Utah. Vermont cast seven for Bryan, one not voting.

Virginia and Wisconsin cast their full votes for Bryan as did Alaska and all the remaining delegations, neither Johnson nor Gray receiving another vote. vote.

Make It Unanimous.

Make It Unanimous.

Before the vote was announced, Mr. Hammond, who had placed Mr. Johnson in nomination, moved to make unanimous the nomination of Mr. Bryan, saying Minnesota knew how to lose as well as fight well. A great cheer broke from the throng.

Judge Gray Murray Van Diver, of Maryland, and a delegate from Delaware seconded the motion of Mr. Hammond. There came cries of "Georgia, get Georgia in."

That state after a short pause declared that it also seconded the motion, which upon being put by the chairman was carried with a roar.

H. H. Elders, of Georgia, alone voted in the negative.

"I now declare Wm. J. Bryan to be the nominee of the democratic party for the president of the United States," said Chairman Clayton and the delegates giving one wild cheer, began to move toward the doors.

KERN, OF INDIANA,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT John Worth Kern, lawyer, of Indianapolis, Ind., was nominated for vice president by acclamation, all other candidates for the honor having withdrawn when it became evident that Kern's nomination on the first ballot was certain.

Mr. Kern was placed in nomination by Marshall, of Indiana, South Dakota seconding. The best of feeling prevailed, and immediately after naming, the candidate for second place the convention adjourned.

 BRYAN ON HIS NOMINATION

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 10.—The following statement was made by W. J. Bryan today when at 4:34 a. m. he received the announcement of his nomination by the democratic party for president:

"The presidency is the highest position in the world and no one occupying it can afford to have position in the world and no one occupying it can afford to have his views upon public questions biased by personal ambition. Recognizing his responsibility to God and his obligation to his countrymen, he should enter upon the discharge of his duties with singleness of purpose. Believing that one can best do do this when he is not planning for a second term. I announce for a second term, I announce now as I have on former occa-sions, that if elected I shall not be a candidate for re-election.

be a candidate for re-election.

"This is a nomination as purely from the people as can be and if elected my obligation will be as purely to the people. I appreciate the honor the more because it came not from one person or a few persons, but from the rank and file, acting freely and without compulsion."

* GRAY SENDS BRYAN

HIS CONGRATULATIONS Wilmington, Del., July 10.—Judge Gray sent the following telegram to Bryan today: "Accept my hearty congratulations."

Johnson to Support. St. Faul, Minn., July 10.—It is under-stood that a telegram congratulating Bryan and tendering him Governor Johnson's support was sent to Lincoln

The text of Johnson's telegram fol-"Please accept my heartiest congrat-ulations on your nomination and the splendid victory which it implies. You will have no more earnest supporter than I and I hope to be permitted to contribute to your success and to that of the party."

when the Empire state, for the first ime, declared itself.

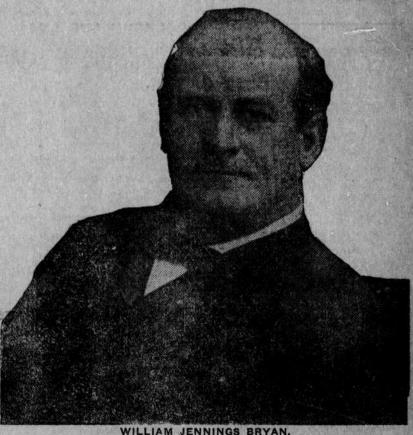

North Carolina had just cast her 24

There are now 262,000 Sunday schools in the world with a total of 26,000,000 pupils.

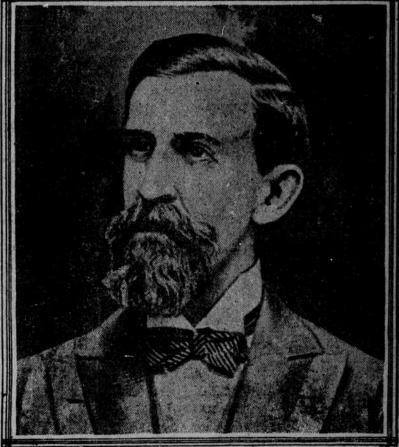

CAPTAIN BROATCH, OF OMAHA, SUICIDES

In northern Australia there is one white man to every 700 square miles. Some of the great Atlantic liners employ 150 Gremen,

CHOSEN FOR THE THIRD TIME TO LEAD DEMOCRATIC HOSTS

THE CONVENTION'S CHOICE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

JOHN W. KEDN ..

John Worth Kern, of Indianapolis is city attorney of Indianapolis, 1897-1901. 59 years old. He was born in Howard county, Indiana, December 20, 1848. He held public office for many years, being reporter for the Michigan supreme court 1885-9; state senator 1892-6; State Life building, Indianapolis.

BALL CONFESSES ROBBERY OF TRAIN AT MINNEAPOLIS

Des Moines, Ia., July 13.—Owen Ball, arrested at Marshalltown Wednesday evening in company with Mrs. Frank Shercliffe, wife of the famous diamond robber, opened the doors of the penitentlary to himself yesterday afternoon, when he made a full and complete confession of his participation with Shercliffe in the robbing of a Northern Pacific train in the city limits of Minneapolis on the night of April 16.

Ball also confessed to the robbery of a St. Paul drug store the night before. In this he was also assisted by Shercliffe. Special Agent McFetridge, of the Northern Pacific, will leave Des Moines with his prisoner for St. Paul and Minneapolis this morning, and Ball has promised the officers he will conduct them to the spot where he and Shercliffe hid a number of watches taken from passengers on the night of the holdup.

When Ball was arrested at Marshalltown Wednesday evening Mrs. Shersuspicion and held under bonds of $2,000 can have all present in the support of a $1,000 can have all under bonds of $2,000 can have all under bonds of $2,000 can have all under bonds of $2,000 can have under the support of a $2,000 can have under the support of the support of the holds under bonds of $2,000 can have under the support of the holds under bonds of $2,000 can have under the support of the holds under bonds of $2,000 can have under the support of the holds under bonds of $2,000 can have under the support of the holds under bonds of $2,000 can have under the holds unde

IN THE PHILIPPINES

New Haven, Conn., July 13.—A cable-gram received here brings word of the suicide in the Philippines of Captain James Wallace Broatch, U. S. M. C.. Broatch was a native of Omaha.

MURDER AND ARSON AT MOTHER'S DOOR

Mt. Pleasant, Ia., July 13 .-- A dastardly attempt to chloroform and then cre-mate Mr. and Mrs. E. Levacy and their mate Mr. and Mrs. E. Levacy and their two small children near Winfield last, night has been laid at the door of Mrs. Levacy's stepmother, a prominent woman named Mrs. J. W. Myers. The accused woman was arrested today on suspicion and held under bonds of $2,000 to appear at a preliminary hearing next.

LUSITANIA BREAKS ALL OCEAN RECORDS

New York, July 13.—Breaking all previous records over long distance across the Atlantic, 2,891 miles, the turbiner Lusitania arrived at Sandy Hook lightship today. Time of passage four days, 19 hours 36 minutes.

The annual fish catch in England is valued at $53,960,000.

In Paris there is a Buddhist temple with 300 members.

Another One from the "Kid."
"That reminds me," said Dr. Boswell.
"I visited, one evening last summer, a farm where a little slum child, a country weeker, was enjoying his first glimpse of pastoral life.
"The setting sun gilded the grass and flowers of the old-fashioned garden, and on a little stool he sat, under a tree, bent with its load of ripe peaches, beside the cook, who was plucking a chicken.

"He watched that plucking operation gravely for some time. Then he said:
"'Do ye take off their clothes every night, leidy?"

The Eccentric Orator.
The parrot swinging on the perch
Has a vocabulary small
And unenlightened by research—
And yet 'tis pleasant, after all,
When our discussions seem to tend
To candidate and trades and tricks
To have some faithful biped friend
Who isn't talking politics.

I listen with a friendly sigh To what he utters o'er and o'er.
Here is no cry for sordid pie;
He wants a cracker, nothing more.
How well his speeches seem to flow;
Profane, perhaps, but ne'er prolix;
The only orator I know
Who isn't talking politics!

Senator LaFollette, at a recent dinner in Washington said of the millionaires who complain about the harm that they and their affairs have suf-fered from government attacks: "These whiners, with only themselves to blame, remind me of a bad little Primrose boy.

"He ran howling to his mother:

Dreams of the Grass.

O! to lie in long grasses!
O! to dream on the plain!
Where the West wind sings as it passes,
A weird and unceasing refrain!
Where the rank grass tosses and wallowa
And the plain's rim dazzles the eye;
Where hardly a silver cloud bosses
The flashing steel shield of the sky!

"'How are nowling to his mother:
"'Oh, ma, Johnny has hurt me!'
"'And how did bad Johnny hurt mother's little darling?"
"'Why, I was a-goin' to punch him in the face, and he ducked his head, and I hit my knuckles against the wall.'"

To watch the gay gulls as they glitter
Like snowflakes, and fall on high To dip in the deeps of the prairie;
Where the crow's foot tosses awry,
Like the swirl o' swift waltzers is glee To the harsh, shrill creak of the cricket
And the song of the lark and the bee!