A good second-hand Deering binder for sale cheap; in good repair. Inquire of P. S. Hughes. 5-1f
Miss Mary Coyle departed Monday morning for a six-week's visit at Des Moines, Ogden and Berkeley, Ia.
F. J. Dishner arrived home from Denver last Saturday, having attended the democratic national convention.
Arther Ryan and W. J. O'Connor went to Fremont Tuesday to see Hugh McKenna's fast nag, Shady O'Neill, go in the races.
W. W. Wyant has built a 30-foot addition to the Welcome rink, making that much more space for the skaters to circulate in.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bright were at Plainview Wednesday last. Charley noted that crops along the route were not as far advanced as in this vicinity.
Mrs. H. E. Graham and two sons, George and Thomas, of Omaha, arrived in the city Friday last and will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt for a few weeks.
Frank Biglin was called to Ainsworth last Saturday to embalm the body of a resident of that city, who died that morning. Frank performed his labors and returned Sunday morning.
New cement walks and neatly trimmed lawns make one of the prettiest streets in town along Col. Doyle and J. F. Gallagher's residences. A neat cottage going up on the south side of the block for the occupancy of Mrs. Donohoe is an additional improvement.

A. R. Wertz of Star was an O'Neill visitor last Saturday and made this office a pleasant call. He says crops were never finer in his section of the county. Last Friday he finished harvesting his winter wheat and he says it will yield from twenty-five to thirty bushels per acre. Oats are a splendid crop and will be harvested next week.
In view of the approaching campaign, a meeting of the Holt County Republican Central Committee has been called at O'Neill next Saturday to consider the situation, devise plans for the furtherance of the cause and get the candidates before the primaries. While it is a committee meeting the presence of republicans generally is desired, and all who can should make it a point to come in.
The Frontier scribe made a drive to Chambers last Friday. Crops in the south country are looking good except in a few very low places where the heavy rains drowned them out. If they had a railroad through southern Holt, so they could find a market for the thousands of tons of hay that is never harvested on account of the distance to market, southern Holt would soon be the richest portion of the county.
Abraham F. Rouse, one of the pioneer and most highly respected residents of the Meek neighborhood, died at his home near Meek last Friday. Mr. Rouse was nearly 76 years of age and had been a resident of this county for more than twenty-five years and was known and admired for his sterling integrity, upright conduct and rugged honesty. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon from the Marquette Chapel, near Blackbird, and the remains interred in the Blackbird cemetery and were followed to the grave by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives, neighbors and friends.
Joseph E. Inley was arrested by Sheriff Hall last Monday evening and brought to O'Neill Tuesday to answer to the charge of rape preferred by Alice R. Garin, sixteen years of age. The prosecuting witness alleges that the first offense was committed on November 22, 1907, and the last on or about May 9, 1908. Inley was brought before Justice Golden yesterday morning, waived preliminary and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $500, which bond was signed by Joseph Obermire. The defendant Inley is a gray haired man about 56 years of age.

Hit by Hail.
Last Monday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock a destructive hail storm done considerable damage to crops northwest of O'Neill. We have been unable to ascertain the starting point but as far as we learn the hail extended from Henderson's, about 5 miles northeast of Atkinson, to J. K. Ernst's, about 4 miles northwest of O'Neill. From Ernst's the storm extended south to the Elkhorn river. It covered a stretch of country from a mile to a mile and a half wide and about ten miles long. The center of the hail seemed to be at the farms of William Jilg, John Gallagher and Jap Ritts, and their splendid crops were almost totally destroyed. The hail was accompanied by a terrific wind and field after field of oats was blown down and beaten into the ground by the force of the ice.
We were unable to learn the names of all who sustained loss by the storm, but the following were among the heaviest losers:
J. S. Gallagher lost all his small grain and his corn was badly cut and much of it broken down. He may get half a crop of corn.
William Myers lost fifteen acres of wheat and forty acres of oats. His corn was not badly damaged.
J. K. Ernst lost sixty acres oats. Those who saw his oat field before the storm say it was one of the finest fields of grain in the county. His corn was badly cut but he expects to get two-thirds of a crop.
William Jilg was hard hit. His place was about the center of the storm and it is reported that his crops are a total wreck.
Herman Gusse lost fifty acres of oats.
Fred Koekle lost his small grain.
Jap Ritts lost sixty-five acres of oats and fifteen acres of spelts. Mr. Ritts has one hundred acres of corn and while it was badly battered he thinks he will get two-thirds of a crop.
Frank Kubichek, Bert Lawrence on the Murphy farm, Baker on the Dailey farm, J. P. Mullen, Ed Mullen and Peter Clausen were in the path of the storm and their crops were badly damaged.
M. C. Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Coffey of this city, died at Warm Springs, Montana, on July 18th. The remains were shipped to this city and interred in the Catholic cemetery here Thursday morning, the remains being followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. Deceased was 38 years of age. John Coffey and Mrs. Frank Dailey of Park City, Utah, brother and sister of the deceased, accompanied the remains to this city. This is the second death in the Coffey family in six months and O'Neill friends extend the family and relatives sympathy in their sorrow.

Traveling life's pathway with her consort has again become unbearable to Mrs. Julia Uecker and she has filed a petition in the district court praying for a divorce from Gus Uecker, to whom she was married on January 8, 1908. In her petition she alleges that he has become a habitual drunkard during the past five months and that he has threatened her life, and has upon numerous occasions called her vile and insulting names privately and before strangers. She alleges that she is the owner of personal property and real estate valued at $2,000 and prays that defendant be barred from asserting any right, title or claim thereto.
In a suit filed in district court on Tuesday, Laura B. Gladhill prays for a divorce from Evert Gladhill, to whom she was married on December 25, 1879. In her petition she alleges that the defendant has failed to provide for her support during the past two years, although able to do so, and with what assistance could be furnished by her eighteen-year old son she has been compelled to support herself and children. She further alleges that since May 1, 1908, defendant has lived apart from plaintiff in idleness and has failed and refused to render any support to herself or family. She also asks to be given the custody of their two children, C. W., age 18, and John B., age 15.
Mrs. Ellen Mackey has filed a petition in the district court praying for a divorce from William Mackey, to whom she was married on November 12, 1907. Plaintiff, in her petition, alleges that she is 65 years of age and in poor health. She further alleges in her petition that defendant is 75 years of age and a man of vicious and vulgar character and given to the use of vile, indecent and profane language. That he has threatened to cut her head off and has also threatened to leave her and go to the Pacific coast. That he has also failed to provide for her the necessities of life although fully competent and able to do so. She alleges that he is worth about $1,500 and she asks for divorce from bed and board, costs of suit and such alimony as the court may deem proper.

Death of Mrs. John M. Alderson.
Mrs. John M. Alderson, wife of John M. Alderson, one of the pioneers and most highly respected residents of Chambers township, died in Omaha last Friday morning. Mrs. Alderson had been in poor health the past year and it was supposed she was suffering from gall stones. About ten days ago Mr. and Mrs. Alderson went to Omaha to consult a specialist and an operation was decided upon. It was then discovered that she was suffering from cancer of the stomach, and although all that loving hands and hearts and medical skill could do was done for her, she sank rapidly and passed away six days later.
Deceased was about fifty-five years of age and leaves a husband and family and numerous friends to mourn her demise. The remains were shipped to O'Neill Saturday and taken to Chambers Sunday and interred in the Chambers cemetery, being followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and neighbors. A large company of O'Neill citizens showed their respects to the memory of the dead woman and her family by forming in line at the undertakers and accompanying the hearse and mourners as far as the Northwestern depot.
The Frontier and many O'Neill friends extend sympathy in their hour of sorrow.
Card of Thanks.
We desire to express our most sincere thanks for the kindly assistance and comfort rendered us by friends and neighbors in our great bereavement, the loss of our beloved wife and mother.—John M. Alderson and family.
John Leese of Mineola received word last Friday that his father, John A. Leese, dropped dead at the home of his son Edward, at Alpina, N. D., on July 13. Mr. Leese appeared in his usual good health that day and left his home and went to his son's residence, just across the road. There was no one home at the time and as he did not return in about thirty minutes his daughter went to the house and found him lying dead on the floor just inside the door. Mr. Leese was a resident of the Mineola neighborhood, this county, for about five years but left here two years ago last September and moved to North Dakota where he had since resided. Deceased was 71 years of age and while he had suffered from heart trouble for years the knowledge of his sudden death was a severe blow to his relatives and many friends in this county.

Methodist Church Items.
If you want to begin right and have a good day Sunday, come to the Sunday school at the Methodist church at 9:45 every Sunday morning. We are having splendid times there studying God's word and singing the delightful songs of Zion. Come out next Sunday and see for yourself what a delightful service it is. Brother A. E. McKeen is the superintendent.
Next Sunday morning the pastor will resume the series of sermons on "The Christian's Armour," which has been interrupted somewhat of late, and will take for his theme at that time, "The Helmet of Salvation." The subject of our evening discourse will be, "Sane or Insane?" We most cordially invite everybody to these services.
Every Sunday at the close of the morning service our class meeting is held, and always proves to be an interesting and helpful service. We should be pleased to have everybody enjoy this service with us. Mrs. O. O. Snyder is the leader.
Junior League service every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which we invite all the boys and girls. The interest is good, and we expect to see it even better in the near future.
Attention, Epworthians! The Epworth League service on Sunday evening is your service and should receive the loyal and hearty support of every young man and woman of our church. Are you doing your best? Remember the hour of service is 7 o'clock. To this service we most cordially invite all young people and all others are welcome.
Prayer meeting and bible study class every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, to which we are glad to welcome either friends or strangers.
T. S. Watson, Pastor.
C. J. Coffey of Spencer and Dan Coffey of Burke, South Dakota, came over from Spencer Monday to attend the funeral of their brother, M. C., who was buried this morning.
