PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.
 The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 3rd, A. D. 1908:

A JOINT RESOLUTION TO AMEND SECTIONS TWO (2), FOUR (4), FIVE (5), SIX (6) AND THIRTEEN (13) OF ARTICLE SIX (6) OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEBRASKA, RELATING TO JUDICIAL POWERS. BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEBRASKA:
Section 1. (Amendment proposed.) That Section two (2) of Article six (6) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:
Section 2. (Supreme court, judges, jurisdiction.) The Supreme Court shall consist of seven (7) judges, and a majority of which elected and qualified judges shall be necessary to constitute a quorum or pronounce a decision. The Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction in all cases relating to revenue, civil cases in which the state is a party, mandamus, quo warrant, habeas corpus, and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law.
Section 2. (Amendment proposed.) That Section four (4) of Article six (6) of the constitution of the State of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:
Section 4. (Supreme court, judges, election, term, residence.) The judges of the Supreme Court shall be elected by the electors of the state at large; and their terms of office, except as hereinafter provided, shall be six years. And six Supreme Court judges shall during their term of office reside at the place where the court is held.

Section 3. (Amendment proposed.) That Section five (5) of Article six (6) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:
Section 5. (Supreme court, judges, election, term; chief justice.) That at the general election to be held in the state of Nebraska in the year 1908, and in six years thereafter, there shall be elected three (3) judges of the Supreme Court, who shall hold their office for the period of six years; that at the general election to be held in the state of Nebraska in the year 1911, and each six years thereafter, there shall be elected two (2) judges of the Supreme Court, who shall hold their office for the period of six years; and at the general election to be held in the state of Nebraska in the year 1913, and each six years thereafter, there shall be elected one (1) judge of the Supreme Court, who shall hold his office for the period of six years; that the members of the Supreme Court whose term of office expires in January, 1914, shall be Chief Justice and one of the judges to be elected at that time until the expiration of his term of office. And provided further, that upon the adoption of these amendments adopted, immediately upon issuing his proclamation declaring said amendments adopted, appoint four (4) judges of the Supreme Court, one of whom shall be appointed to hold said office until their successors shall be elected at the general election in 1908, and the other three shall hold their office until their successors shall be elected at the general election held in 1911, and in 1913.

Section 4. (Amendment proposed.) That Section six (6) of Article six (6) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, be amended to read as follows:
Section 6. (Chief justice.) The Chief Justice shall serve as such during all the terms for which he is elected, but shall not be re-elected. In the absence of the Chief Justice, the judges present shall select one of their number to act as Chief Justice.

Section 5. (Amendment proposed.) That Section thirteen (13) of Article six (6) of the Constitution of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:
Section 13. (Judges, salaries.) That judges of the Supreme Court shall each receive a salary of $4,500, and the judges of the District Court shall each receive a salary of $3,000 per annum, payable quarterly.

Section 6. (Amendment proposed.) That Section 17, Article 8, 1907, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, and that the amendments proposed by the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendments to the Constitution of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 3rd day of November, 1908. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska, Done at Lincoln the 17th day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eight, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and thirty-third, and of this State the Forty-second.

 To the Iowa Loan and Trust Company, non-resident defendant:
 The Iowa Loan and Trust Company will take notice that on the 13th day of July, 1899, the county of Holt commenced an action in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against Edward V. Lewis and — Lewis his wife, first name unknown, James F. Toy, Cornelia Thompson and the Nebraska Loan and Trust Company, the object of the plaintiff's action being to foreclose its tax lien on the following described real estate situated in Holt county, Nebraska, to-wit: The south half of the south half of section three, township twenty-eight, north of range sixteen, west of the sixth P. M. That on the 18th day of August, 1899, the defendant, The Nebraska Loan and Trust Company filed its answer and cross petition in said cause praying for a foreclosure of a certain mortgage given on the above described land by Fred W. H. Myer on the 1st day of May, 1885, for the sum of $500 which mortgage and the debt secured thereby the defendant and cross petitioner, The Nebraska Loan and Trust Company, alleges that it is the owner of, also to foreclose a certain other mortgage given by said Fred W. H. Myer to the Nebraska Loan and Trust Company, defendant and cross petitioner, on said real estate on the 1st day of May, 1895, to secure the debt of the said Myer for the sum of $75.00.
 The defendant and cross petitioner alleges that it is the legal owner and holder of both said mortgages and the debt secured thereby and that there is due in said mortgages, the sum of $1,896.70 and that said mortgages are a first lien on the above described real estate and alleges that the same are due and payable and prays for a foreclosure of said mortgages and for a decree that the defendants be required to pay the same or that said land be sold and the proceeds applied in the payment of the amount found due the cross petitioner and for other equitable relief.
 You will further take notice that on the 6th day of July, 1908, that by an order of the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, you were made a defendant in said action and the said defendant and cross petitioner, praying for the admission to probate of a duly authenticated copy of the last Will and Testament of John Beekman, deceased, late of Holt County, Nebraska, New York, which copy they have filed with their petition; and praying the appointment of L. D. Richardson as administrator with the will annexed of the estate of the said John Beekman.
