T. L. Bule of Denver, a socialist spellbinder, talked for two or three hours to a crowd on the street Tuesday evening. His speech was a somewhat disconnected and pointless harangue with little rhyme or reason, but it furnished a little diversion for the evening.

Fall commenced officially Monday but in reality summer continues. Continued dry and hot weather such as has obtained all during September is something before unknown, but there has been great blessing in these weather conditions here this year. Corn has been ripened and placed beyond injury by frost, which is quite likely to follow the first rain.

According to a statement issued from the office of the state food commission dairy men have received $138,000 more for the cream sold to creameries the last six months on account of the pure food law than they would without such a law to regulate weights and measures. On the other hand butter consumers, says the circular, are benefited at the rate of $152,136 annually by the elimination of the short weight graft that had obtained among creameries before the enactment of the pure food law.
When you buy a wagon get a Studebaker. In 1886 we sold Studebaker wagons to men now living in Holt County and some of them are still in running order today. And there is not another brand of wagon that was ever sold for the money that has done any better. There are Studebaker wagons in Holt County that have been running twelve and fifteen years and never had a tire set. We have every size tire and three sizes of gears to chose from at very low prices considering the quality. Call and see them before you buy. Neil Brennan.
The assault case started before Justice J. A. Golden the fore part of Aug. against Henry Kasperski of Inman township was tried to a jury Monday. The jury found the defendant guilty and the court fined him $5 and costs, amounting in all to $36. Joseph Zabarowski was the complaining witness and charged that Kasperski pointed a gun at him and fired. The defense was that the defendant shot at a dog, not at the complaining witness at all, and evidence was given tending to show that the dog was dead and Zabarowski alive. An interpreter was needed in the examination of the witnesses who are Bohemians. The jury consisted of five O'Neill men, D. A. Doyle, J. J. McCafferty, John Carton, Sheridan Simmons and F. G. Clift, and it took them several hours to arrive at a verdict.

J. C. Horiskey's grocery store was robbed last Sunday, the thief securing six or seven dollars in money. Entrance was effect to the store through a back window, from which a glass was cut. The money drawers were rifled and what cash it contained taken except about 50 cents in pennies. Besides the silver, Mr. Horiskey says there was perhaps $1.50 in pennies in the drawer, but the thief it seems did not want to carry so many coppers and left a part of them. Mr. Horiskey says he could not tell whether any goods had been taken, as a large quantity might be carried off and not missed.
A stranger, giving his name as S. L. Rischer and claiming to be buying horses for the government, stopped at the Evans Tuesday night and Wednesday morning offered to pay his hotel bill with a bank check, but was "turned down" because Landlord Evans had read in a daily paper that a man by that name had visited Neligh and issued worthless checks to the amount of $5,600. He deposited a check for $5,000 in a bank at Neligh issued against a Sioux City bank but telephone connections with the Sioux City bank brought the information that no money was to the credit of a person by that name there. He "bought" horses at Neligh and issued checks to the above amount, but did not take any of the horses, explaining that he would take them later. After his arrival in O'Neill Mr. Evans informed Sheriff Hall of his presence here and the sheriff at Neligh was notified but sent word that the man was not wanted there because he had got nothing on his worthless checks.
Envious Atkinson
Atkinson Graphic: What promises to be a great feast for the base ball fans will be the games at O'Neill next Sunday and Monday between the crack Verdigre team and Parker's Pets who claim the championship of the northwest by reason of a lucky winning streak in the last few games played. The Verdigre bunch are a swift aggregation and ought to win both games and the championship.

Division Petitions.
The Jackson county petition was held legal today and granted by the board on a vote of three to four.
The board of supervisors convened Wednesday morning to the listen to grievances of the various agitators who want to divide Holt county and found petitions on file for the following proposed new counties to be sliced out of Holt's territory.
Meadow, petitioned for by Atkinson people, and comprising a desirable territory taking in the whole northwestern part of the county from about a mile this side of Emmet and six miles south.
Alfalfa county, petitioned for by Grattan and Shelds township people and others adjacent to those township, setting out a chunk in the north central portion of the county.
Fountain county, petitioned for by Chambers people and comprising all of the south end of the county from six miles south of O'Neill and extending to within twelve miles of the east line of the county.
Eden county, petitioned by Ewing and Page and comprising a strip of territory on the east end of the county twelve miles wide and the full length of the county north and south, making the very odd proportion of 12 x 40 miles.
Jackson county, petitioned for by the same petitioners that presented the Alfalfa petition, and cutting out and oddly divided territory taking in the extreme southwest part of the county, with lines diverging up through all the other territory except Meadow.
The Meadow county petition was granted by the board yesterday, Alfalfa rejected, and now the fight is on with the Jackson county petition, which has been reconstituted by representatives of the other proposed counties, lead on by Atkinson, with W. E. Scott of that place performing the legal stunts. The remonstrators allege that the petition is illegal, that some of the signatures were secured by fraud, that the petition is not in good faith, and various other things. The board spent most of the afternoon yesterday listening to these allegations and continues the hearing today.
The petitions for Fountain and Eden counties hang on the fate of the Jackson county petition. If this petition is granted the other two can not be considered on account of a confliction of proposed lines.

The Live Stock Market
Special market letter from Nye Schneider Fowler Co. South Omaha, Nebra., Sept. 23, 1908.
Our cattle receipt at the beginning of this week are about one-half of what they were the fore part of last week. This was generally expected owing to the heavy receipts and the big slump of last week which news was wired to all parts of the country stopping to a large extent parties who contemplating a shipment. Receipts as usual include only a few corn fed cattle and the offerings from the ranges were pretty well divided between killers and stockers and feeders. The heavy receipts of stockers and feeders were picked up very liberally last week and about 540 cars were shipped to the country, nevertheless dealers had to carry over about 4,000 head. Values are fully 10 higher on desirable killers and steady to strong on good feeders and generally steady on all other kinds of cattle. The outlook seems to be for a stronger market for the balance of the week.
We quote:—
Choice corn feed beef.....$6.50@7.50
Fair to good.....5.00@ 6.50
Common grade down.....4.10
Range steers.....4.25@ 5.25
Cows and heifers.....3.00@ 4.25
Good to choice grassers.....3.50@ 4.75
Fair butcher grade.....2.75@ 3.25
Canners and cutters.....1.75@ 2.75
Veal calves.....4.00@ 6.00
Bulls, stags, etc.....2.00@ 3.00
C. stockers & feeders 4 25@ 4.75 to 5.40
Fair to good.....3.50@ 4.00
Stock heifers.....2.50@ 3.00
There is a very light run of hogs and the same condition is expected to continue throughout the week. Packers are very wary of buying any more than enough to fill present orders at one time, and while the tendency of market is strong, anything like liberal receipts would bring a sharp break. Bulk of sales $6.75 to $7.00.
The sheep receipts Monday were the largest in over a year and while there was a good active demand and plenty of feeder buyers all kinds are selling some lower. Feeders are paying much higher prices proportionately than the packers.
