Potato digging is occupying the attention of many farmers at present. An unusual large crop is reported this season. They are selling at 35 cents per bushel on the O'Neill market and several cars have been shipped out the past week.

State Superintendent J. L. McBrien will be in the city next Saturday, the date of the County Teachers' association meeting. In the evening Mr. McBrien will deliver a lecture at the opera-house on the subject, "Our Young People, and What Shall We Do With Them?" This lecture is highly recommended by our county superintendent, who has heard it. No admission fee is charged and while it is primarily for the benefit of the teachers who may be here that day Miss Zink says she wants everybody in town to hear the lecture.

Capt. J. C. McGowan of Chambers saw an opportunity to boost for Holt county during the two weeks of the rush of land seekers at O'Neill, and he did so. Capt. McGowan established a sort of general information bureau in town and was busy all the while with the crowds showing what can be done in this county in the way of growing crops. He had a nice exhibit of farm products to show as evidence of the fertility of the soil and the attention of many strangers was called to the wonderful productiveness of Holt county land, that is cheap compared with prices in other places, through his efforts.

Among the Chicago citizens who registered in this city last week for the Tripp county drawing were Lew Schwering and Harvey Garver, two prominent State street business men. This was the first time these gentlemen had ever been in Nebraska, which they had been led to believe was an unproductive wilderness, and they returned home satisfied that Nebraska was one of the best states in the union and O'Neill about the best town in the state.

The "hay country" got another shaking up last Monday, when a severe wind and rain storm passed over the Dry Creek and South Fork valleys demolishing hay stacks and blowing over some small buildings. Owen Baker tells us twenty-six stacks of hay were not only "unroofed" for him but pretty badly shattered. His hen house and another small building were blown over and a number of chickens killed. The Petrs, Shaws and others in that neighborhood sustained considerable damage to their hay.

Fairfax Advertiser: More railroad talk as a result of the opening of Tripp county and the rapidly settling up of Lyman, Stanley, Mead and Butte counties, late reports being to the effect that the Platte valley will be connected with Gregory county by a branch of the Burlington road. It is claimed that a preliminary survey was recently made of a proposed extension of the Ericson branch. Both Butte and Naper are said to be on the proposed new line and the object is to tap the newly developing country between the Missouri and the Black Hills.

The State Journal is trying awful hard to get people to give that daily a trial. Its offer now is to send the paper from date until January 1, 1909, for only 50 cents without Sunday, or 75 cents with Sunday. The publishers feel sure that anyone who tries the State Journal will stick. However, they have adopted an absolute rule of stopping every subscriber when his term is out. If there is anything that makes a man mad it is to subscribe for a city daily and then have to fight with the publishers to get it stopped or pay for something he doesn't want. The Journal's new plan will be popular.

John F. Gunthorpe, editor of the Plainview News, has purchased a half interest in the Denver Western League team and has been elected secretary-treasurer of the club, and as such will have active charge of that team during the season of 1909. John is a cracker-jack newspaperman and got out one of the neatest and best paying papers in Northeastern Nebraska.

We hope he will be equally successful as a baseball magnate and prove to the "Chawley-bboy" sporting editor of Denver that a man does not have to part his hair in the center, and wear the latest in clothes to be a success as a base ball manager.

Martin Maloney died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Hickey, two miles north of town, on Sunday, at the advanced age of eighty years. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at the Catholic church in this city. The deceased was a native of county Mayo, Ireland. He had lived in Nebraska for forty years, homesteading in Washington county in early days. The past fifteen years he has lived with his daughter at West Point, coming here with Mr. and Mrs. Hickey about a month ago. He is survived by five children, Mrs. J. Hickey of O'Neill, Martin and James W. Maloney of Pender, Neb., Mrs. Martin Padden of Chicago and Mrs. Catherine Watson of Creighton, Neb. The children were all in attendance at the funeral.

Destructive Prairie Fire.

The Stuart Advocate reports that one of the worst prairie fires in the west end of the county devastated a large area south of Stuart Wednesday of last week. It destroyed about 1,000 tons of hay, burned the barn on the R. M. Johnson place; burned to death a fine team of horses and destroyed a set of harness belonging to Murray McGrew, the team being hitched to the baler, ruined the hay press which belonged to Mr. Crowley. The fire started on the northeast corner of Mr. Crowley's farm, where Murray McGrew and his crew were baling hay for Mr. Crowley. A high wind was blowing from the southwest and the flames were rapidly driven to the northeast corner of the Crowley meadow, where the fire crossed the road and swept without hindrance through the almost countless number of hay stacks between there and the section line east. Mr. Crowley lost but a few stacks of hay, but Mr. Wallinger, whose hay was in the direct path of the fire, lost very heavily. Jack McGrew, Dick Johnson, Frank Pettinger, John Steinhauser, Henry Kruger, and Wm. Schorn were also heavy losers. We understand that Frank Pettinger lost nineteen large stacks of hay, and was only able to save two stacks of his crop. It is estimated that the loss, direct and indirect, will be at least $5,000.

Program of Tuesday Club.

The Tuesday Club will hold its next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. E. R. Adams on October 27, with the following program:

Try the Fair Cash Department Store first, just across the street from the K. C. hall, O'Neill, Nebr. 18-3

Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School convention for the Dorsey district will be held at the Scottville church on Friday, Oct. 23 at 10 o'clock a. m. Everybody is cordially invited to come and help make it a feast of good things for the Sunday schools. V. V. Rasenkranz, Sec.

O'NEILL EXCEEDS 45,000

Has 10,000 More Registrations than Any Other Point.

NEARLY EQUAL TO ALL OTHERS

The Total Number to Register at All Points in the Tripp Land Drawing, 114,769.

O'Neill had over 10,000 more than the next highest in the rush for the Rosebud land drawing, and nearly as many as all other registration and affidavit points combined. The total registration was 114,769, and was divided as follows: O'Neill, 45,808; Dallas, 33,451; Chamberlain, 20,348; Gregory, 7,257; Valentine, 2,249; Presbo, 1,916; by mail, both Dallas and Gregory, 3,840.

Recital.

Della Cowder Miller, reader and impersonator, will give an entertainment at the opera-house Thursday evening, October 29. Her program is made up from the choicest selections of English literature, comprising such as a dramatic adaption of "Ben-Hur," "Christmas Carol," "Gypsy's Year at the Golden Crescent," "Evening With the Children" and readings from the Bible. It will be one of the real entertainments of merit to appear at the opera-house this season.

Below are a few comments on her work:

J. H. Kellogg, M.D., president sanitarium, Battle Creek, Mich.: Della Cowder Miller is sincere—unaffected—and truthful in her work in expression. She is beautifully artistic and highly entertaining.

Roxbury, Mass., Gazette: She is a reader and impersonator of rare accomplishments. She has no trouble in holding an audience. Her natural ability and qualifications make her a model of her profession.

Bloomington, Ind., World-Courier: Mrs. Miller again favored a home audience with one of her artistic impersonations. She is par excellence, and ranks among the best platform readers of the day.

The Garber-Howe Entertainers.

Music, Magic and Mirth. A full evening of novelty effect, magic, violin and song. Mr. and Mrs. Howe have for years given full evenings alone to augment their strength. Mr. Garber is added, making a combination doubly desirable and pleasing. In addition to their program of the past season, which has been well received, many new novelties and magic specialties have been added.

Program will consist of banjo solos, violin solos, saxophone solos, twenty minutes of magic, vocal solos, banjo and guitar duets and other instrumental combinations and the playing of novelty instruments, including imitations of all sorts.

They will be at the opera-house in O'Neill Saturday evening, Oct. 31.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted and offered words and deeds of sympathy to us during the illness and death of our beloved father and grandfather.—Mr. and Mrs. John Hickey and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maloney, Mr. M. Maloney, Mrs. Mary Padden, Mrs. F. L. Watson.
