The Live Stock Market

SOUTH OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 29.—Special market letter from Nye-Schneider-Fowler Co.

Fear of election dullness together with bad weather, combined to cut shipments down so that the week starts out with the lightest run since the western season began. Market is fully active with all buyers looking for supplies. There is still nothing of consequence being offered in the way of corn fed cattle and the offerings of range beef are quite limited and the quality not extra good. The same decrease in receipts was shown in cow and butcher stock and this market was stimulated by a number of orders from outside buyers. Common and canning classes did not show much improvement but anything of good quality 10 to 15 cents higher. The same amount of advance was shown in all classes of killers both western rangers and corned. The yards were cleaned up of stockers and feeders very closely last week owing to the stormy weather and speculators being willing to sacrifice in price in order to get them off their hands. As a result there was a keen sharp demand for anything fresh in this line this morning, and prices were generally 10 to 15 better than Friday.

We quote:
Choice corn feed beef.....$6.20@67.00
Fair to good.....4.25@6.10
Range steers.....4.40@5.65
Others from.....3.50 to 4.35
Cows and heifers.....3.25@4.15
Good butcher grades.....2.65@3.20
Canners and cutters.....1.75@2.60
Veal calves.....3.50@5.75
Bulls, stags, etc.....2.00@3.00
C. stockers & feeders.....3.85@4.65
Fair to good.....3.25@3.75
Stock heifers.....2.50@3.00

This point was very nearly out of the hog business both at the close of last week and the beginning of this week, as there was only ten cars arrived Monday. The market was 10 to 15 higher and prospects seem to be for a further upturn. Bulk $5.50 to 5.70.

Educational Notes

By the County Superintendent.

The Holt County Teachers' meeting last Saturday was well attended considering the inclemency of the weather. The class recitations and exercises conducted by Miss Grady and Miss Daly illustrated excellent primary methods and ideas for the observation of those present.

The main subject for the afternoon discussion was that of mental arithmetic. The association agreed that a text book on this subject should be used in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades and that more mental work should be done in all the other grades. Superintendent McBrien talked in behalf of Edward Brook's New Mental Arithmetic published by Christopher Sower Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

This is the book recommended for use in normal training schools and we take this occasion to recommend it to all schools in Holt county. All agreed that the subject had become a lost art which should be revived and that the only way to get it back into the daily program is to put it back.

Teachers present at the meeting resolved to follow out this suggestion immediately upon returning to their schools and judging from the rapid disappearance of the copies of this text which we had on exhibition they meant what they said.

The paper by Miss Zack, "Suggestions to the Story Teller," was well received. Superintendent McBrien paid a well earned tribute to Miss Zack by asking for a copy of the paper to print in this month's issue "The Nebraska Teacher."

Instead of commenting on this paper we have arranged to send each teacher a copy of it because of the valuable suggestions it contains.

The evening address was listened to by an appreciative audience if not a large one. In his closing remarks, Mr. McBrien said that among other appropriations for educational purposes the next legislature would be asked to double the "State Aid for Weak Districts."

Mr. Robinson, of Ewing, had on exhibition in the court room some very creditable work done by the Ewing schools, consisting of a collection of one hundred varieties of seeds, geographical and historical maps, drawings, compositions and primary work. The lower grades of the O'Neill schools also had work handily displayed for the observation of visitors.

In behalf of the executive committee we wish to thank all who assisted, in any way, in making the meeting a success.

We have a few first class buggies on hand bright and new that will pay you to see before you buy elsewhere. Our prices and goods are right.—Neil Brennan. 14-1f

The residence of Thomas Enright on "Kid Hill" is nearing completion. When the finishing touches are put on, Tom will have one of the most commodious residences in the city.

If your horses and hogs do not seem to fatten up as fast as they should try some International Stock Food and if it does not help them we will give you your money back. Neil Brennan.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon November 3rd at the home of Mrs. Younklin. The time has been changed from 8 o'clock to 2:30. Members urged to be present.

J. B. Ryan has commenced the erection of a handsome home on east Douglas street. The building will be 29x30 feet with 18 foot posts. He expects to have it completed and ready for occupancy before Christmas.

The ladies of the Womans Christian Temperance Union at Leonie, will serve meals on election day, Nov. 3, near Paddock town hall, for the benefit of the voters. All are invited.—By order of union.

If you are figuring on buying a heating stove remember the name RE-PORT OAK. Do not confuse the name because there are thousands of Oak stoves. All are trying to imitate the Retort.—Neil Brennan. 14-1f.

Bargains, bargains, in dry goods, shoes, clothing, blankets, quilts, underwear. Examine our 39 cent underwear before purchasing elsewhere. For bargaining in any line of goods try the Department Store, just across the street from the K. C. hall. 18-3

Tom Johnson, of Corning, Iowa, who has been visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, J. J. Thomas, for the past three weeks left for his home last Saturday morning, having spent a few days in the south country hunting the elusive mallard.

M. F. Ryan came down from Stuart Sunday and on Tuesday packed up his household goods and left with his family for their future home at Stuart Wednesday afternoon. The many O'Neill friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan wish them prosperity in their new home.

Last Friday afternoon fire gutted the upper part of the old Lowrie house, now owned by William Laviolette. Before the department had subdued the flames the upper part of the east wing was gutted. Mr. Laviolette estimated the damage to the building at $500, fully insured.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ryan returned from St. Joe, Mo., Monday night, where Mrs. Ryan had been visiting friends the past two months. Arthur says that old Missouri presents a rather peculiar appearance. They have over a foot and half of snow on a level, which is something unusual for the "show me" state.

Do not class "A Bachelor's Honey-moon" with the general run of farce comedies and rough "horse play" which tour the country. Remember this is a New York success one which stood the test for ten months in the most critical theatrical center of the world. Messers Oakes & Gilson pay an enormous royalty and have the sole right to present the play this season. It will be at Opera House on Nov., 2.

ADMISSION, 25 CENTS.

Senator F. W. Phillips and daughter, Miss Elma, of Star, were in the city yesterday.

P. C. Anderson, W. P. Mohr and Gus Hagenstein of Spencer, were O'Neill visitors Wednesday.

A large delegation of O'Neill republicans attended a rally at Page Tuesday evening. They report a large enthusiastic audience present.

Elmer S. London of Auburn, Neb., and Miss Jennie L. Klotsback of Atkinson were granted a marriage license by Judge Malone last Monday.

Ex-Congressman J. J. McCarthy of Poca, was in the city last Tuesday night. He left Wednesday morning for Belden where he addressed the voters upon the political issues of the day Wednesday night.

J. M. O'Neill of Lincoln was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. O'Neill is secretary of the republican state central committee and says everything is looking splendid for the republican party in Nebraska.

A number of Miss Dora Alberts' friends took Dora by surprise last evening it being her birthday anniversary. After spending the evening those present departed for home feeling that they had a very pleasant time.

The high school foot ball team went to Neligh last Saturday to play a return game with the high school of that city. On the O'Neill grounds our boys trimmed them up with a 6 to 0 score, but the Neligh boys evened things up last Saturday, winning the game with a score of 10 to 0.

Clyde V. Walker of Omaha and Miss Hazel W. Coats of Stuart were married at Stuart last Monday evening by Rev. Chas. E. Connell. Miss Coats is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Coats of the Stuart Advocate and one of the most popular young ladies in western Holt county and her many friends wish her and her husband many, many years of happiness and bliss.

In a letter renewing his subscription to the household necessity E. Opp, for many years a resident of Stuart, but now living in southern California, has the following to say concerning the political conditions in that state. He says "Here it will be all one sided and southern California will roll up as great a vote for Taft and Sherman as was cast for McKinley. Politics are very quiet here and we hardly know there is a presidential campaign on."

Many local Nimrods have been in the south country the past week in an attempt to bag a few canvas back, mallards or redheads. Most of those who have been out say hunting is fine, but not much game. The northern flight has not arrived yet and about the only ducks here are natives and a couple of shots suffice to drive them south out of reach of the pot hunter. The "Rogues" figure on going on their annual hunt next week and they promise all their friends a good duck upon their return. But we are from Missouri.

County Judge Malone performed the ceremony last Monday afternoon that united Julius Eppenbaugh of Scottville and Mrs. James Lichty of Agee. The groom is one of Scott townships most prosperous young farmers and the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McAllister of Agee.

Oakes & Gilson will bring the great Hoyt Theatre comedy here on Nov., 2. This play has been seen in all the leading cities and by the same cast which appears here. It is a high class comedy full of life and action and sparkling with lines of wit. It is one of the most brilliant from the playwrights pen and should receive the patronage of the best class of theatre goers of our city.

The people of O'Neill will regret to learn that Rev. Father Moore is assigned to Bancroft, Neb., which fact will necessitate his removal to that city. Father Moore has been three years among us, and his departure will be regretted by all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance. We trust his future home will be a happy one and his field of labor enlarged that his ability and learning may have ample scope to do the work his mission in life is intended to do. For this he was ordained and to this end comes the proper reward for faithful service well performed. He will be succeeded here by Rev. Father O'Sullivan who arrived here this week from Ireland.

Judge Malone has been the busiest man in the county the past month. During the month he has united seven couples in the holy bonds of matrimony, which is four couples more than any like period since he has been in office. The Judge is undecided whether to attribute this rush to the Tripp county opening or not, but if that is the cause he says he is liable to be swamped with business next March as their are several O'Neill people who have won a home in the Indian reservation and will probably need some one to look after tee house and darn their socks, and of course they will take them from old Holt.

Ex-Governor Lorenzo Crouse addressed a large and appreciative audience at the K. C. hall last night upon the political issues of the day from a republican standpoint. The meeting was presided over by Col. Neil Brennan, who is an old-time friend of Governor Crouse's and was a member of his staff when he was governor of Nebraska. In introducing the speaker Col. Brennan referred to the many official positions filled by the speaker of the evening during his life time and that he retired from every position with honor to his very party and his state. The Governor has always had a great many admirers in O'Neill and he said there was no place in the state so which he would rather come than this city, where he had so many warm and hospitable friends. He then took up the issues of the campaign and for an hour and a half he presented good logical and forcible argument for the election of the republican ticket. He spoke at some length upon the bank guarantee proposition and proved conclusively that even if he was elected president it would be impossible for Mr. Bryan to give a measure of that kind to the people. He closed with a special plea for a republican congress to support the hand of Mr. Taft who would be in the White House after March 4th next.

Methodist Church Items.

There will be the usual services at our church next Sunday, beginning with the class meeting at 10 a. m. led by Mrs. O. O. Snyder. Sermon by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. The subject for our Sunday morning discourse will be, "Were Former Days Better Than These?" In the evening our subject will be, "Behold the Man!" To these and to all services of our church we extend a most cordial invitation to everybody.

Sunday school immediately at the close of the morning service. Mrs. O. O. Snyder is the acting superintendent and the sessions are interesting and instructive. Everybody welcome and a place for everybody who comes.

Junior League service at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. To this service we most cordially invite all of the boys and girls.

Epworth League service at 6:30 Sunday evening. Miss Fanny Millard will lead. The subject will be, "Learning in the School of Christ." We especially invite all young people to attend and take part in this service.

Prayer Meeting and Bible study class every Thursday evening at 7:30. We are always glad to have our friends come in with us for the study of God's Word and prayer.

T. S. Watson, Pastor.

The Garber-Howe Entertainers.

Music, Magic and Mirth. A full evening of novelty effect, magic, violin and song. Mr. and Mrs. Howe have for years given full evenings alone to augment their strength. Mr. Garber is added, making a combination doubly desirable and pleasing. In addition to their program of the past season, which has been well received, many new novelties and magic specialties have been added.

Program will consist of banjo solos, violin solos, saxophone solos, twenty minutes of magic, vocal solos, banjo and guitar duets and other instrumental combinations and the playing of novelty instruments, including imitations of all sorts.

They will be at the opera-house in O'Neill Saturday evening, Oct. 31.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters remain un-called for in the O'Neill postoffice for the week ending Oct. 28, 1908:

If not called for in two weeks will be sent to dead letter office.

R. J. Marsh, P.M.

Cut Price Sale.

At all times in the Cash Department Store. We sell goods at low prices. We don't ask the people to build brick blocks or brown stone fronts for us. Those who have such luxuries, the people paid for them. We are willing to live and let live, and let live. Get our prices on all lines of fall and winter goods before purchasing elsewhere. Try the Fair Cash Department Store first, just across the street from the K. C. hall, O'Neill, Neb. 18-3

Nightwatchman Jack Kane and his son, James, were arrested Tuesday evening upon complaint of Jerry Hanley who charged them with assault and battery. James Kane plead guilty before Justice Golden and was fined $20 and costs. Jack Kane plead not guilty and will have his hearing before County Judge Malone next Thursday.

Accounts Turned Into Cash.

Our system is to get the cash. We buy accounts against railway employees in any part of the United States. Make collections and adjustments anywhere. List you accounts with us. Tri-City Collecting Co., 11-7 103 Pearl Street, Council Bluffs, Iowa.
