SWEEPING VICTORY IS SCORED FOR TAFT

Bryanism Receives a Third and Stunning Blow.

EAST ALL REPUBLICAN

"Doubtful States" Roll Up Majorities From 15,000 to 100,000 Against the "Peerless"

NEBRASKA GOES DEMOCRATIC

Gives Bryan Small Majority, With Schallenberger in the Lead for Governor.

Returns from Tuesday's election convey the information that Mr. Taft carries the country for president and will have probably 300 electoral votes, or fifty-eight more than necessary for election.

It was a quiet election day in O'Neill although the usual vote was polled. The returns for the town—62 majority for Bryan—inspired assurance among the local disciples of the "peerless" and their plans for a ratification when the news would come over the wire of his election were already laid and the men who had climbed onto the band wagon at the eleventh hour to be in line for the pie counter were ready to shout the loudest, while the pent-up enthusiasm of their sons and daughters could not be suppressed and they marched the streets singing and shouting for the hundred thousand-dollar "commoner."

But consternation reigned among them when the first word from New York came that that state was safe for Taft by 100,000 plurality. Then all the New England states, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, the Dakotas, Kansas and Pacific coast states came in with republican pluralities of from 15,000 to 75,000.

At republican headquarters it sounded like a bomb had exploded in the telephone when the word came that Nebraska had gone democratic, with the probable defeat of the whole republican state ticket.

Holt county went with the general democratic land slide in the state. E. H. Whelan is re-elected county attorney by a very small majority, probably about fifty. J. A. Golden is re-elected supervisor in the O'Neill district. Grimes, democrat, in the Chambers-Inman district, Nilson, democrat, in the First district, and Kramer, republican, in the Seventh district.

Incomplete returns from the Sixth congressional district indicate the reelection of Kinkaid. Boyd, republican, was defeated for congress by Latta, democrat, in the Third district and Hitchcock, democrat, was re-elected in the Second. The other congressional districts went republican.

Frank Phillips, republican, was defeated by J. A. Denohoe, fusion, for state senator in this district, and the fusion nominees for representatives, Henry and Wilbern, are elected.

A complete tabulated statement of the vote in this county will appear in the next issue of this paper.

IN COURT

"Have you," demanded the court of the juror, "formed an opinion about this case?"

"I have not," answered the juror emphatically: "I forgot to mention it to my wife."

"I should like to be excused, your honor," said a man who had been summoned on the jury.

"What for?"

"I owe a man five dollars, and I want to hunt him up and pay it."

"Do you mean to tell this court you would hunt up a man to pay a bill instead of waiting for him to hunt you up?"

"Yes, your honor."

"You are excused, I don't want any man on the jury who will lie like that."

Wedding at Stuart

Stuart Advocate: Modesty having always been one of our chief characteristics, we are at a loss to tell our readers just what we thought of the wedding at our house Monday night, October 26, 1908. Below we give an account as it was published by the Norfolk Daily News, and of which we will venture the quotation that "them are our sentiments too."

A very pretty wedding took place at Stuart when Miss Hazel Coats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Coats, and C. V. Walker of Omaha were married at the home of the bride's parents, Monday evening at 3 o'clock, Rev. Connell officiating. The house was nicely decorated. The bride was gowned in tan satin, and the groom in the customary black.

Only a few friends were present. After the ceremony a three course luncheon was served. Miss Coats was a well known and popular young lady, this being her home since childhood. Mr. Walker was formerly of Norfolk, where his parents now live. He is a printer by trade and for a year was foreman of the Stuart Advocate, of which Mr. Coats is editor.

Mr. Walker is at present working for the Reed Printing Company of Omaha, where the young couple will make their home.
